The debate was well prepared and well presented but after the argument was closed the majority voted the Forum's decision as to the respective sides with some effectual poetical declamation. In a vote of selection upon the question of music by the judges and the big law forensic contest was over.

The adoption of this measure was not a necessary gift. This cement has been placed on a basis of literacy and of the right of suffrage would not have rendered the negro more fit to the poor whites of the southern states. The negro is vastly improved in civilization and in the business world.

To prove Dr. Hill has been an equal knowledge of the game and has played a second to the palmed medallion. He has developed into a player as fast and formidable as his more experienced opponents. Western College will appear here soon after the quarantine is raised.

The spirit and enthusiasm which is being manifested by the tennis men and management thus far term is in striking contrast to the enthusiasm of the other offices and is most encouraging. Never before in the history of the world has so much activity been done in the way of preliminary practice before the opening day.

Interest in Oratory

Interest in the local oratorical contest increases as the time approaches and one who has read the several orations contest is by the productions of which much talk has been made.

The March 14th. Manager Marsh bas not yet announced the final manager.

The athletes of the University of Iowa are not all found among the members of the intercollegiate tennis club. Manager Rector is training the muscles and is redoubling the efforts of the young women of the institution that their part in the great tennis tournament will probably be arranged with Chicago just before the final meet of the association.

About a month ago a few would-be journalists at Minnesota started a hand daily paper. In commenting upon this move at that time, this paper prophesied a short career for the new concern and it took but a few weeks to establish the truth of that prophesy. Last week the new venture was buried in oblivion, the old paper completely absorbed it and continues to publish in the old way. These spasmodic efforts are usually the work of inexperienced men who have no appreciation of what it means to publish a daily college paper. Not long since the same proposition was tried at Michigan and met with about the same result. Though at times there are a few ignorants who are willing to spend time and money to test the proposition yet the truth prevails that thus far in the progress of civilization there is no educational institution in the United States large enough to support two daily papers.

The university may be governed by a board of control, a trustee, or a board of regents, or what we care not, but the one fact remains that she must have more liberal support. Her immediate needs may be ignored or overlooked by our representatives but they remain none the less conspicuous and no body that has ever assembled can legislate them out of existence.

The editor of the Daily Nebraskan has his hands full to keep up to date with his general denials of all the derogatory reports that find their way into circulation concerning that institution. It is safe to suppose that there is a little fire along with so much smoke.

The editor of the Delphic plunged headlong into the political fight that has been waging in Des Moines. Conditions there may warrant such a course, but we venture the assertion that this is rarely the case.

Here's to the tennis man and may he be amply rewarded for his effort and enthusiasm.

If Morals are a QUESTION OF DIET

As is urged by some who have made a study of the subject then it is evident that the grocery merchant occupied a position of no small responsibility, for you depend more or less upon the judgment and conscience of your grocer for the selection of the food which you consume.

HOW ABOUT YOUR FEET

Hope they are not worrying you. No man can develop the better part of his nature while his feet ache. Aside from making himself disagreeable to others he loses considerable of life’s sunshine. It gets right by him—he is busy thinking about those feet. Its good business to buy shoes intelligently. The Walk-Over Shoe is the smartest shoe for men on the market. They wear long and look best and they feel broken in from the start. The cost $2.50 and $4.00 and are for sale here—can’t get them anywhere else in town—come and see them.
