AN ACCOUNT OF PRINCE HENRY'S VISIT AT U. OF C.

Stagg at Aid-In-Camp Puts Faculty and Students through Some Fancy Drills

Amid shouts of "Hoch der Prinz," which means body guard of gallant juglings from the North Side Turnverein look. Prince Henri, reared at the campus last Wednesday afternoon at 3:30, according to the official times. As the German Snell, the innates repeated one of their famous brotherly-love jum- bores, pounding each other with bed slates and brick-a-brac. H. B. Barksberry, William referred. When sand had been sprinkled over the blood xashes, the keys to the house were presented together with the keys to each indi- vidual cell, accompanied by an address of welcome delivered by the bar tender of the Edelweiss, who had been hired for the occasion.

The procession then proceeded to Cobb Hall, in front of which the president and all the faculty, in the uniform of the Uhlans of the Guard, received his Holsteen, C '99, with all the energy and earnest- ness of the former and critic of the latter - these clubs being two of lows: he continued: "Wilkommen. Mach nicht aus. Was ist los?" German Snells, the innates repeated one of their famous brotherly-love jum- bores, pounding each other with bed slates and brick-a-brac. H. B. Whatever be the motives or objectives, until late at night, we are filled with eagerness to get through the requirements of various courses and plans of work. The reason for this extra work is either an ambition to finish the regular work mapped out in the curriculum or a desire to get through the course, it shows on the part of the petitioner, in most cases, a total lack of appreciation of the true purpose of a college course. To him a college course only means the taking of so much work and of coming out with a degree. He fails to grasp the idea that development, training and knowledge are the things to be desired and not merely an empty degree.

Whatsoever be the motives or objects the work mapped out in the curriculum should be followed as closely as possible. Extra work in some cases is justifiable but often it brings more harm than good.

If Morals are a Question of Diet

As is urged by some who have made a study of the subject then it is evident that the grocery merchant occupies a position of no small responsibility, for you depend more or less upon the judgment and conscience of your grocer for the selection of the food which you consume.

Barth, the Grocer takes particular pride in selecting for his trade the cleanest and most wholesome foods to be found anywhere upon the market.

How About Your Feet

HOPE they are not worrying you. No man can develop the better part of his nature while his feet ache. Aside from making himself disagreeable to others he loses considerable of life’s sunshine. It gets right by him—be is busy thinking about those feet. Its good business to buy shoes intelligently. The Walk-Over Shoe is the smartest shoe for men on the market. They wear longest and look best and they feel broken in from the start. They cost $3.50 and $4.00 and are for sale here—can’t get them anywhere else in town—come and see them.
