THAT WE MAY MOVE

RESOLUTION IN HOUSE FOR INDEFINITE AMENDMENT

Representative Larrabee Would Remove Restrictions so that University Location May be Moved

Larrabee of Fayette this morning introducing the house of representatives joint resolution No. 4, reading as follows:

"That the following amendment to the constitution of the state of Iowa be and the same is hereby proposed." Strike out of section 8 of article 11 the constitution the following words, "and the State university at Iowa City, in the county of Johnson." Resolved, further, That the proposed amendment to the constitution of Iowa and the same is hereby referred to the legislature to be chosen at the next election for members of the general assembly, and that the secretary of state cause the same to be published for three months previous to the day of such election as provided by law." The whole section which it is proposed to amend reads: "The seat of government is hereby permanently established, as now fixed by law, at the city of Des Moines, in the county of Polk, and the State university at Iowa City, in the county of Johnson." Larrabee does not claim that there is at present any movement on foot to move the university to any other point than Iowa City. He does believe, however, that such a movement will be inaugurated in the near future unless people in the neighborhood of Iowa City do something for the university, and that the university, if not become a second. Every muscle fiber of the heart's action. Upon its activity depends the life of any other organ.

Congregational Church, George Luther Caldy pastor. Prof. W. Douglass MacKenzie, D. D., will preach at the morning service and also at the afternoon service in the Presbytery Church. Prof. Mackenzie is pastor of the New England Congregational Church of Chicago and is considered one of the strongest thinkers and preachers in the Presbytery of that city. There will be no evening service.

A bill passed the senate this morning which gives the38: prov3s of law to the colonists and instructs the governor to commission as such.

BROWN, Track Capt.
The athletic board met this morning, and now we sincerely hope that something will be done. We're up to that order of business now.

The woman's edition of The University of Chicago Weekly reflects great credit upon the lady editors of that paper.

We agree with the one who says that the university should be moved. Yes; moved forward in standard and equipment until it will occupy a place second to none in the West.

All petitions to the faculty in respect to the work of the Spring Term must be filed in the Dean's office on or before Saturday, March 22nd.

Amos N. Currier.

Additional notices are interested.

While a million dollars for an educational institution still "soured" some members of the state legislature the probability of vacating the $500,000 worth of buildings here at Iowa City is not very great. Yet if we were to measure the stability of our location by the resolutions introduced in this legislature, verily, we might well be in doubt as to where "two are at." First we go across the river and then the whereabouts of our destination is left shrouded in doubt.

We would suggest that if anyone has anything to say against the one-fifth of a mill tax, then let it be said, but why side-track the main issue with such palpable defenses as these?

Two communications were received by The Daily Iowan this morning calling attention to the fact that there were but three members of the faculty at the oratorical contest last night. We conclude that faculty interest in college oratory cannot be very great at present, but possibly what might be considered a sacrifice on their part would lend a helpful emphasis to those who are interested.

If Morals are a Question of Diet

As is argued by some who have made a study of the subject then it is evident that the grocery merchant occupies a position of no small responsibility, for you depend more or less upon the judgment and conscience of your grocer for the selection of the food which you consume.

Barth, the Grocer, takes particular pride in selling for his trade the cleanest and most wholesome foods to be found anywhere at the market.

Unlike all other burlesque companies on the road is M. M. Theine's own company, known as the "Wing, Woman and Song Company," appearing at the opera house Wednesday, March 18th, for it leads all others in novelty, is better equipped and stronger than ever before. The opening burlesque, "The Vaudeville Cane," an original concert by M. M. Theine, is a decided novelty, impersonating the leading lights of the dramatic world. The vaudeville Olio includes and is headed by the originator ofcoon shouting and the only impersonator of two southern oratorios. Twenty minutes with Uncle Tom's Cabin, French musical eccentricities etc. The closing burlesque, "Mixed Pic-nics," affords the entire company opportunity to display their talents.
