PHILOS VS. ILLINOIS

DEBATE FOR NEXT YEAR ARRANGED BY THEM

The Debating Privileges and Interests of the University, as Discussed—Records and Arguments Made by Both Sides

The Philomathion literary society during the past few months has been enclined to regard their plans for the future. It is to be announced that two years ago this society, because of its youth and lack of experience is not admitted to the debating league of the University, hold a joint debate with one of the literary societies of Grinnell College. Last year the society met in competition with the same university; hence, it has been wondered this year whether the societies would continue their contests. Last night, however, after a meeting of the Philos, it was given out that they had arranged a debate with the University, to be held next year.

The plan for the debate is to be similar to the one which was proposed to the Debating League last year by Minnesota. It calls for a debate to have 15 minutes speeches and then each man to have a short time for rebuttal.

The announcement by the Philos of their arranged contest is interesting to conjecture how many of last night's "celebrities" will be celebrities years hence. It is true that middling geniuses sometimes become "blooming Idiots" and that youths with a brilliant promise of great things are made to "fall make good," but it is usually due to the fact that they fail to cultivate the fruits of their education. It is probable that Iowa is less strenuous and often no more than the average for what they had accomplished.

SUCCESS CAME FROM BEING PREPARED TO SOME PARTICULAR LINE—NORTH RATED HIGH IN THE CLASS ROOM

The Michigan Daily News in speaking of the guests at their "Celebrities Ball," who were made up only of the students of prominence at Michigan has the following to say:

"Guests were chosen solely because of what they had accomplished so far in life. Money didn't count. The university world is truly a small one, but in an institution of 4,000 students it requires considerable ability and energy to get and keep one's head above water."

The rights and contentions of college are no less strenuous and often no less bitter than those of the larger world of affairs. Those present last night were the victims of many fierce athletic, forensic and political contests.

It is interesting to conjecture how many of last night's "celebrities" will be celebrities years hence. The present system is not to the principles and habits which made him a success in early life there is no reason why he shouldn't be a success in later life.

The analogy between a dull association is occupying the time of Judge Deemer's class. They were impressed with the idea that the man who is not a prominent scholar at college, is not a prominent man.

The benefits of a college education to a young man who has to earn his living in commercial pursuits are considered at length in a pamphlet recently issued by R. F. Crane, a prominent Chicago manufacturer. In one place he makes the statement that a college education has a tendency to make a young man conceited and impractical. The statement is made without anything to back it up and it leads us to believe that the author has failed to read the college man correctly. The statement is based upon the exception instead of the rule. For it is a fact that the training received in the large colleges and universities of the land has the opposite effect.

The life in college today is one of broad experience and of democratic impulses. It is peculiarly fitted to take conceit and "Ego" out of a man. The man with "Airs" and to use the term "swell head" has no place in a university, for the eyes of the students are soon to detect him and having done so, they have a pretty sure way of relieving him of his misapprehensions in regard to his importance. The assertion then is without foundation and it is rare indeed that a college train

How About Your Feet

How About Your Feet

HOPe they are not worrying you. No man can develop the better part of his nature while his feet ache. Aside from making imaginable to others he loses considerable of life's sunshine. It gets right by him—he is busy thinking about those feet. Its good business to buy shoes intelligently. The Walk-Over Shoe is the smartest show for men on the market. They wear longest and look best and they feel broken in from the start. They cost $3.50 and $4.00 and are for sale here—can't get them anywhere else in town—come and see them.

NOW COLONEL BURNETT

Governor Cummins will Commission the Commandant a Colonel in the National Guard.

Representative George W. Koonce sends a telegram at noon today that the bill authorizing the Governor to commission Capt. Burnett a colonel passed both houses of the assembly unanimously. This is made to give Capt. Burnett a rank over cadet officers. As it was the major and the captains were of higher rank than was the commandant. Capt. Burnett's rank in the regular army is that of first lieutenant, he having been brevetted captain, however, for bravery and gallantry in action. From now on with the battalion and the National guard he will rank as a colonel with a golden eagle upon his shoulder straps instead of the bars.

Amusements

Unlike all other burlesque companies on the road is M. M. Thel- se's own company, known as the "Wings, Woman and Song Com- pany," appearing at the opera house Wednesday, March 19th, for it leads all others in novelty, is better equipped and stronger than ever before. He opening burlesque, "The Vaudeville Crazee," an original conceit by M. M., is also, a decided novelty, impersonating the leading lights of the dramatic world. The vaud- eville line includes and is headed by the originator of coon shouting, and the only impersonator of two world's crotchetors, twenty minutes with Uncle Tom's Cabin, French musical eccentricities etc. The closing burlesque, "Mixed Picnics," affords the entire com- pany opportunity to display their talents. Miss Caroline Jarvis, C. G., is enjoying a visit from her brother.
