FRESHMAN ATHLETES
Will Challenge the Soph to Meet Them in Track and Field on the Diamond.

The athletically inclined members of the class of 1905 have taken the warpath, and unless the sophomores bestir themselves, the scalps of 1904 are apt to dangle at the belts of the duty-freshmen before many moons. Yesterday afternoon at 4, a man has been called to the auditorium of the liberal arts building choice.

AIlES FACULTY JERED AT AMES

Agricultural college yesterday was the scene of one of the fiercest class scraps and also of the annual freshman banquet which man and sophomore classes of the college yester night. The trouble arose in the agricultural building and he was dragged from his car, one of the men who came to the meeting.

Mr. R. J. Olinger was appointed as a suggestion to all are out, more men of athletic manager and is instructed to take steps toward arranging a dual field meet and baseball game between the fresh man and sophomore classes of the university. A general agreement was arrived at that all present the meeting the show up and try to win points for the class, as the faculty members are to do, but every other prospective athlete does his duty.

The board of control is firm in its determination that there will be no baseball teams and that all tickets are sold to the students. Tickets will have to be sold after the meeting to the faculty and to citizens, but assuranc es already are that there a much larger proportion of tickets will be sold to the instructional corps than to the students.

The board is also that the matter of subscribing for the tickets shall be purely optional with every student, provided they are willing to get them.

The agricultural college has been through the baseball season tickets is reported. More men of the baseball season is to be held in Margaret Hall last night. Among the numbers was one of the students who were only jeered at by the students and faculty members attending.

THE CHINESE PROBLEM

The prominent lecturer, the Reverend Mr. F. H. Taylor, who is making a tour of the United States platform, will speak twice in Iowa City tomorrow. Mr. Taylor is making these lectures under the auspices of the Student Volunteer movement and is stopping only at the large schools and especially state universities. He was one of the speakers at the Iowa City YMCA.

Mr. Taylor's life has been an interesting one and is full of a broad and varied experience. His father was an Englishman, a pioneer in the missionary work in China and it was there that the lecturer was born and there that he has spent the money he has gained.

His home has always been in China with the exception of a few years which was spent in his education in the universities of England. Mr. Taylor has been and still is a member of the board of governors in China having been through the baseball season tickets is reported. More men of the baseball season is to be held in Margaret Hall last night. Among the numbers was one of the students who were only jeered at by the students and faculty members attending.

This page appears to be a mixture of text and advertisements. The main body of the text seems to be discussing educational topics, including a section on educational legislation. The advertisements are varied, including a book about diet, a mention of a new spring style suit, and a promotion for the Daily Iowan. The layout is dense with text and images, typical of a newspaper format.

CHASE & LISTER

Chase & Lister, the same company that played here a year ago, will open a week's engagement at the opera house next Monday the 24. This company was de- scribed as one of the most popular last year and with an entirely new line of plays they should be even more so this season. Among the new plays which they will probably put on here are the "Men of Mystery," "A Man of Mystery," "Wicked London," "The Octo- ber Moon," "Mente Christo" and "The Belle of Virginia.
