CLASS PLAY TANGLE

NO SUITABLE STAGE

Repairs to be made on the Opera House before the Production of the Class Play this week, and the Class Play this week.

The senior class play is just at present in a precarious condition. Manager Merritt Brackett said this morning that it was doubtful whether there would be any senior class play at all this year. The cause of all the trouble is the serious shortage of funds to be made to the opera house and which will necessitate tearing it up this spring so as to render it impossible to give the play there. For even if a date might be secured in May yet the plans for that time will not be going on effectually prevent any use of the house for rehearsals.

The only alternative is to give the play in the tent and there the obstacles encountered seem insurmountable. In the first place Manager Merritt estimated that it would cost about $400 to fit up a stage that would in any way be satisfactory and the discretion of play selected, and even if that might be done, a $100 raise would spell disaster, with the making of very little too great to warn away a lot with such outlay.

Alumni of the College Hold Annual Meeting Followed by Banquet

On Tuesday, April 4, the sixth annual gathering of the alumni association of the college of pharmacy was held in Close Hall. The morning was given up to the regular order of business. In the afternoon a very enjoyable program was rendered. The officers for the ensuing year were elected: President, A. F. Kick, Amana, Ia.; 1st V. Pres. J. A. Goodell, Iowa City, and V. Pres. C. B. Kirk, Iowa City. Record sec. J. M. Lindly, Winfield, Ia. Corresponding sec. F. L. Wellman, Ia. Treasurer, S. S. Mitchell, Iowa City. Member of the executive board, Miss Z. M. Cooper.

The closing event of the day was the banquet. It was the decision of the alumni association at the Berkeley Imperial. About 200 alumni and friends gathered themselves at 7 o'clock Friday evening in the athletic room, A. Al, of the Liberal Arts, for the banquet, the same auspices as that a report was held in Iowa City. April tenth. The compact does not re

IOWA CITY, IOWA.

Editor John Springer sees a strong resemblance to the University of Iowa in the institution described in the article entitled, "Our State University" appearing in the April number of the Atlantic Monthly and signed "An Athenian."

W. H. Bremner, of Y. L. '94, than whom Iowa has no more loyal alumnus was almost unanimously elected city solicitor of Des Moines, Monday. Nobody rejoices more in "Billy" Bremner's success than the students and faculty of the University.

"We really feel that an apology is due Iowa because Minnesotans have been mean enough to win victories in all the contests in which the two universities have been engaged during the past year. First came tennis, then a track meet, baseball games, football, basketball and finally debate. — Minnesota Daily.

With this issue Dr. Clarence Page severs his connection with the Iowan on account of graduation. Dr. Page was a member of the Vide-Tu-Reporter Board, and continued with the Daily Iowan. On both, his work has been characterized by ability and faithfulness. He leaves Saturday for Onawa, IA, where he will practice medicine, and the best wishes of the Iowan staff go with him. Mr. E. N. Bywater will take up the reporter's work in the homoeopathic medical college laid down by Dr. Page.

Amusements

The stage of the Opera House will swarm the night of Monday night withRussian mili-ary men, ladies of title, and all the myriad of people that tumble into the cak of Russian play. The offering will be the new four act melodrama, For Her Sake, a dramatic tale of love, intrigue and treachery—a play which according to things told in the other cities where it has been seen, contains about as many thrilling and involving every day.

Bushy Bros. grand "dramatic dramatic" of Ten Nights in a Bar Room makes one of the grandest events of this season's theatricals. A play clothed with many new features, new names and new effects makes it the generation of today a new and most entertaining production. It opens house to-morrow night.
