BIG DEBATE TONIGHT

WISCONSIN'S TEAM VERY STRONG

Every One Must be in the Opera House Before 8 O'clock or He will not be Admitted

Iowa Team
Charles A. Tiggelaar, (first speaker) Junior collegiate, Ely, Iowa.
John C. Spangler, (third speaker) Junior collegiate, St. Paul, Minn.

Henry Graae, (leader and closer) Junior law, Sturgeon Bay, Wis., member of Forum society, Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity and Phi Epsilon Phi national legal fraternity.
A. D. Gillett, (third speaker) Senior academic, a whole lot of things, a Wis., member of Athena society and Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity, represented West Virginia University on International debate 1901.

Edwin W. Bucklin (manager) senior, for academic, Phi Kappa Sigma.

The Wisconsin team arrived in the city last evening and are registered at the St. James hotel. They spent the evening in arranging details of the contest with members of our team. This afternoon they are being entertained on a rally by party by Dean Gregory of the College of Law.

The judges for tonight's debate were selected yesterday afternoon after considerable difficulty and no small amount of expense including a trip to Madison and a forty dollar talk over the telephone by two concise professors. This trip was received as establishes a new record in the sale of university professors. The theory being that if it is worth a dollar for two professors to talk one hour, how much more for one professor to talk by the year. The judges who will decide the contest this evening are Judge J. E. Pollock of Topeka, Kansas, Judge of the Kansas Supreme Court; Professor F. M. Taylor of the University of Michigan and G. E. Goodrich of Chicago.

The debate will be decided on weight of argument alone. It will start at 8 p.m. and it is of the utmost importance that all should be in their places before that time so as not to disturb the opening speaker. Wisconsin will make the question of this debate, this being our first debate of the season.

This is the fourth debate between Wisconsin and Iowa. The former contests being won two years ago by the judges and one by Iowa.

If Morals are a Question of Diet

As is urged by some who have made a study of the subject, it is evident that the grocery merchant occupies a position of no small responsibility, for you depend more or less upon the judgment and conscience of your grocer for the selection of the food you consume.

Barth, the Grocer, takes particular pride in selecting for his trade the cleanest and most wholesome foods to be found anywhere upon the market.

The pan-hellenic baseball games are the cause of furnishing much good material for the first team. Several of the prominent candidates for baseball honors at present were brought out for the first time and played their first ball in the university arena in the pan-hellenic games last season. These teams furnish practically the only feeder of new material for the first team. Since the revival of the pan-hellenic league again this year, several of the professional colleges have taken interest in the sport and organized college and class teams. To all of which the baseball coaches nods with approval and says let the good work go on, the more the better.

Everybody should turn out to the big debate tonight. The debaters on both sides have been preparing for their fifteen minutes appearance for as many weeks and there is no doubt that Iowa's representatives will do their part tonight. The student body should turn out en masse and encourage Iowa's men with hearts and lungs. If every seat in the opera house is not taken and the aisles packed besides, it will show there are many who do not care whether Iowa wins or loses. Iowa never has been beaten in debate on our home platform and this record must not be broken. Turn out and help the debaters win. Let no one think, however, that anything but the greatest courtesy is meant to the Wisconsin team; other treatment would be unworthy of Iowa and care should be taken to avoid even the appearance of unfairness. The duty of the audience is to encourage our debaters with their presence, with applause and cheers. Make them feel that they are carrying the audience with them at every step. Give the college yells before and after the debate and keep enthusiasm high.

Messrs. Kinne, Cowrie and Robinson of the state board of control seem able to obtain thousands from the legislature where the university is given hundreds.

Money to Students

Students desiring good, profitable work for the current or, as their time permits, during the college year, should write to us once for our Good Housekeeping proposition. The regular is the highest order (though only $2 a year) and we are determined to double our enrolment (now 4,000) in the next nine months, as we are giving good men and women an exceedingly liberal commission. Our only requirement is satisfactory references as to the applicant's integrity.

A WEEK is a tax cut for an energetic sort of woman to make. We will send full particulars to all interested if when applying this paper is mentioned. There is no limit to the number of men and women we can employ; as we cover the whole country—particularly in cities of from 10,000 to 25,000. There is a further chance of future permanent salaried positions to those who show special merit in this line of work.

Locals

There is a concerted movement on foot among the Michigan colleges to do away with football.

Chicago will hold no track meet with Notre Dame because of alleged unsportsmanlike treatment by the Catholics.

The paper at Macdonald tomorrow night will be read by Prof. Velben and will be on the subject, "Finger Prints in Heredity."

The Junior prom tonight will be the glitziest event of the year. Those who do not wish to dance can look on from the gallery.

Mr. C. E. Pratt formerly of the colleges of law and also of the repartorial staff of the Citizen left Friday night for parts unknown and has not been heard of since.
