The records made by candidates for the varsity nine in the three games played last week do not disclose any remarkable percentages that can be remembered for their excellence. Too great similarity of material is lacking in the plate and too little regard for the placing of hits gives a record wherein only two men place more than one game have percentages over .200. Little encouragement can be gleaned from the batting averages beyond DuBois, the work of the first baseman, Van der Steeg's good work at second. THE HESPERIAN PARCELS

Freshman Girls of Hesperia Produce two Parcels in a Delightful Manner

The freshman girls of the Hesperian society made their debut in the theatrical world Saturday night, April eleventh, at St. Brandon's hall.

They presented the two farces, "The Monocletrap" and "My Wife's Relations" assisted by some of their Zetagahian brothers in a way clearly showing that Hesperian has added some talented members to her ranks this fall. Miss Mary Garcia, as the leading lady of the first farce showed wonderful compose, until the house scourch overtook her and Misses Donna Whitney, Grace Griffith, Edith Merritt, Lenore Martin and Lida Hodge in the roles of Mary's sisters and friends and her maid added much to the well-executed take-off of Miss Garcia's bravery. From the masculine standpoint, Frank Kern as Mr. Willis Campbell took six part very naturally and showed no little ability, assumed or otherwise in rescuing the fair sea brave.

In the second farce all the impersonation was very well done, especially that of Misses Cecile Long and Nellie Sebesten as the old maid aunties, Fred Stockdon as the typical "tin" soldier and Ray Files as Uncle Dobson.

The action was quick and the local hits aplenty. Miss Mary Soms and Frank Stadig took the chief parts very creditably and Miss Bertha Beachamp, Miss Eta Williams, Miss Mabel Mikes and Mr. Clarence Lambert made the supporting cast a strong one.

One of the finest features of the entertainment was the music furnished by the Zetagahian Quartette. Their selections were much appreciated by the audi-tence and they rendered traigly to their many enthusiastic encores.

The sophomore-freshman class at Grinnell resulted in a tie score. Miss Bonnie Bannister, ex-93, was married to Dr. G. C. Brandt, of New York, April 16.

Drake defeated Simpson at Des Moines, Saturday, by the score of 1 to 3.

Western College defeated Cornell on the latter's diamond Saturday by a score of 9 to 3.

Grinnell and Washburn will hold an inter-collegiate debate at Grinnell on April 30.

Emett Barrier, '02, has left school to accept a position on the St. P. & O. R. at Sioux City.

Prof. T. H. Maclachley will lecture on "A Student of Botany in the Emperor's University" in the general lecture room of the hall of liberal arts this evening at 7:30. The lecture is given un-

The college world will watch with no little interest Professor Harlan's success in shaping the element of sportsmanship in the youthful convict's case, has labored hard and long for him this freedom. It is to be hoped that young Elkins will prove himself worthy of the benevolence shown him and in no way can be done this better than by leading an honest and upright life. Life for him will certainly be a problem for a few years but under the kindly guardianship of no good as a man as Professor Harlan he will probably be able to overcome opposing difficulties in a manner creditable to one with more knowledge of worldly things and affairs.

If Highland Park school will show that it is ready her intention to eliminate the element of "professionalism" from athletics the colleges of the state will be only too glad to lend their support to such an end. But there are a bad case of this same type lingering about that institute which it will be necessary for Coach Lane to separate his craft from, before much credit attaches to the report he has just sent out.

Tickets to the May-Hughes-Le-Roux lecture, May 1, are now on sale at the office of Prof. Van Steenderen, Room 120, liberal arts building.

By the courtesy of Senator Allman, the Iowa State Historical Society has just been presented with one hundred and thirty-six bound volumes of the congressional records.

Prof. Monaghan, of the university of Wisconsin School of Commerce, will deliver three public lectures on the consular service in the liberal arts auditorium on April 23, 24, and 25 at 4:15 p.m.

The Betas and Alpha Chi Rhos crossed bats in another of the Pan-Hellenic games Saturday morning at Iowa Field, and further favored the Alphas in a score of 22 to 6.

Homeopathic Happenings
Dr. W. L. Byrwer was called to Traer and Toledo, Iowa, this week on professional business.

Dr. C. V. Page, ’03, located in Onawa, Iowa, with Dr. Battin, of that city.

Dr. G. H. Alden, ’02, has located at Indianapolis. The field was open for a homoeopathic physician as an old practitioner of that school had recently died leaving a large practice.

Dr. A. E. Crum, ’03, located at Oelwein. He made an excellent choice.

Dr. A. B. Clapp, ’02, will locate in Muscatine in the near future.

The Junior class according to their motto, “Similia Similibus Curentur,” are this week making a proving of a remedy. The work is under the auspices of the O. O. and L. society and the proving will be made by a thousand provers.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kaufman entertained the Freshman class of the college of homoeopathic medicines at a six o’clock dinner on last Saturday evening, at their home on South Clark street.

The table was laden with dainties such as Mrs. Kaufman’s trained hand is capable of preparing and the expressions of, “This is like being home Christmas time,” told Mrs. Kaufman the appreciation of the boys of ’03. After the dinner they repaired to the parlor where songs and games were indulged in until a late hour.

“The Wrong Mr. Wright” is a rollicking, refined entertainment that will surelyresco metempsychosizes faces with smiles, and chase the blues back to indigo. At opera house Wednesday night, April 23, “Laughter is the tonic of the soul that drives away Barker’s cloud and rests the mind. For this valuable prescription see Harry Beresford as Seymour Sites in Broadhurst’s funniest farce, “The Wrong Mr. Wright.”
