INTERESTING LECTURES ON

POPULAR SUBJECTS

Series of Popular Lectures upon Anarchism and Socialism Given by an Alumnus of the University

Mr. Edward M. Nealy, of Barlington, is giving, during the current week, a series of five public lectures on Anarchism and Socialism given by an Alumnus of the University, School of Political and Social Science.

Mr. Nealy is a student of the School of Political and Social Science at the University of Iowa, is teaching a course of lectures on Anarchism and Socialism.

In his lectures, he is discussing the theories of Anarchism and Socialism, as they relate to politics, economics, and philosophy.

The lectures are open to the public,

and admission is free.

FRATERNITY VERSUS VARSITY

The conflicting interests of fraternity and varsity baseball are brought to a head by the upcoming game between the

Sigma Nu and Phi Delta fraternities. The game will be played on Thursday, May 2.

The game is anticipated as a showdown between the two clubs, with the winner likely to be invited to play in the upcoming state tournament.

The game promises to be a tense and exciting contest, with both teams vying for victory.

The Sigma Nu and Phi Delta fraternities have a long history of rivalry, and this game will likely be a key event in the season.

On account of the inclement weather on Friday, the game was postponed until Saturday.

university band is a good thing. It is needed on many occasions but also it is dependent upon volunteer work; which the men say they should be paid for. If their line of argument were held to, there wouldn’t be a student volunteer organization, with public purpose, in the university. The many things which are done for the good of the university would go undone. Everyone that turned their band would be demanding a salary, but no, this isn’t the spirit that governs in the many things; in athletics and in all lines, which are done in order that the university should make a proper showing. They are done through a spirit of loyalty and pride. A little public spirit and loyalty is what is demanded by the men who could compose a band. With a little of the proper spirit we have the material which would make a band of which we could be proud. Don’t demand pay for a little service for the university. Let us have a band.

THE NICETIES OF ENGRAVING
MANIFEST themselves when one is amazed at the engraving on the price tag, the engraving on the paper and the engraving on the finished product. The engraver is the man who can present in picture form the very essence of the material on which he works, the very natural thing the material is capable of being if left to its own devices.

If Morals are a QUESTION OF DIET
As is argued by some who have made a study of the subject then it is evident that the grocery merchant occupies a position of no small responsibility, for you depend more or less upon the judgment and conscience of your grocer for the selection of the food which you consume.

Barth, the grocer, takes particular pride in selecting for his trade the cleanest and most wholesome foods to be found anywhere upon the market.

If you desire to make a special order, come to Barth’s next time you are in the direction of the new store.

All the Public Spirit Demanded

At the bottom of this trouble we are having over a band? Why is it that the band first dwindled down to a small remnant and then to be disbanded altogether? The fact of the matter is that the players first refused to come out to practice and finally also failed to show up when needed. Upon investigating, we find as a reason for this that the band men thought it was too much work for them to get together, two or three times a week. Now that the band is in second year, it is evident that the players are bound to come out to practice so as to keep in shape and have something of a band. The men say that they cannot play in a university band without remuneration.
