BROWN COMES TO HIS OWN

E. K. Brown Greeted on His Return
From the Northern Oratorical League
Contest by List of Enthusiastic Students

Who, wah, wah! Who, wah, wah! Who, wah, wah, wah! BROWN!

Hundreds of enthusiastic students shouting the victory yell with tiger for Brown, greeted Ed. Winslow Brown, in the Northern Oratorical League contest by list of enthusiastic students.

"John Bull at Work and at Play"

Several students will be interested in the lecture by Rev. J. W. Weddell, D. D., of Davenport, at the first Baptist church, Wednesday evening, May 8, at 7 o’clock. As "Whose East End of London? or John Bull at Work and at Play." Dr. Weddell discusses the scenes and events made familiar through Bent's "All Sorts and Conditions of Men," and through No. 5, "John Street." No admission will be charged but a silver collection will be taken. Dr. Weddell has made extensive study on the ground for this lecture.

THREE RECORDS BROKEN

ANDERSON, SWIFT AND ROSS

THE STARS

Three home records were beaten in the annual home meet held on the Iowa field Saturday, May 11. The names of the freshmen Medics Won Chantland Cup. Minutes Hand & Meet Results

The records made at the Minnesota home meet Saturday were very fast, particularly in the broad jump. The broad jump is the only event in which the Minnesota team was a match for ours. Captain Anderson demolished the record of 14 feet 10 inches in the high jump held by S. Bayan since October, 1891, by making the distance of 16 feet 9 inches. Smith, the undisputed metaphysicist with the discuss who throws in ordinary exhibitions, threw the discus 135 feet, breaking the record held by E. C. Hall by 6 feet 6 inches. The standing record held by Channing Smith, Ross, the broad jump hero on our team, is 7 feet 4 inches from the most recent record made by the late T. Chantland. Now an attorney at Fort Decatur and donor of the Chantland cup, in the meet, May 19th, set the home record for the broad jump at 20 feet 2 inches, 1 inch, a mark that stood until Saturday.

The 120 yard hurdles were expected to be one of the closest events of the day. Captain Anderson and Chong both having good records in the event and this being the first time they had met. Anderson led from the start however and finished with out any crowding at the last hurdle. Chong followed in a close second with Parsons who led until the last hurdle was reached, when Chong made a dash to the tape second in the race. Better work was expected of Wyatt in the distance events of the day, but the half mile, mile and 220 yard hurdles which the team tied the record made in the conference meet last year. Iowa excelled in the records in two events, the discuss throw and the broad jump. Captain Ross, our two mile runner who has frequently gone the two mile in exhibition running in less than 10 minutes. The Minnesota time but the two mile is excluded from the list of events in Minnesota-Iowa meet next Saturday.

The Minnesota records:

100 yard dash—Boekman, 10.5 seconds.
220 yard dash—Fierce, 23.34 seconds.
440 yard dash—Richards, 51.45 seconds.
Half mile run—Murphy, 2:13.
Two mile run—Richardson, 11:59.12.
120 yard hurdles—Boekman, 17.23 seconds.
220 yard hurdles—Boekman, 27.14 seconds.
220 yard hurdles—McPherson, 5 feet 6 inches.

DOE IS OFF THE NINE

PITCHE.R CUT CLASSES AFTER MAKING THE TEAM

Frey Family Plays Coe Tomorrow and Then Starts on Ten Day Trip—DuBois—Team "Not So Good" and Very Bad

We expect the Frey family to leave from Iowa, the dear, the old. We sometimes can’t bat, we often can’t field and we sure can’t do our best.

And we don’t always play as we

But we’re not so bad as we might be and that’s pretty good, you see.

—Chorus of the Variety Nine.

The disqualification of Doe, the best batter and pitcher on the team because of deficiency in class standing has cast a deeper gloom over the baseball prospects than has yet enveloped them. Doe’s deficiency was not intended laboratory work in the dental college to such an extent that he became discouraged and refused to play. The Frey family at the dental college shows that Doe has not been able to play this term. His term this year has cut very regularly since making the baseball team. It’s possible, if he is a good mechanic, to make up the deficiency before the end of the spring term by hard work.

After playing Nebraska today and Iowa city tomorrow, the Frey family will leave on its ten day trip to the north and east.

The team which represents Iowa on this trip is neither very good nor very bad. It will win some victories and, barring miracles, will meet with some defeats. It has days when few of the batters are able to win hits. In about every game, some individual who is supposed to go to pieces. Some of the players are bound to sub in for the better and the more highly respected Deans of colleges as their representatives. There are several students of the university that there is not a brain-work in baseball. But on the whole, the team is pretty one and if no further accidents happen to it, bids fair to become a fine one before the season is out.

The batting averages of the eligible players on the nine to date are:

DuBois 10 40 250
Story 8 34 5 7 206
Van Steger 10 39 9 134
Barnes 5 17 13 79
Miles 5 7 3 148
Rice 10 40 6 153
Voss 7 19 4 125
Rice 8 16 1 50
Harvey, Scarr, Putnam, Redmond and Moss have averages of .000.

The fielding averages:

Outfield—Moss, Voss, Brown 5,000, Barnes, 843, Dyke, 786, Coe 881.
Infielders—Sheaug, 1b, 933; Van de Steger, 2b, 930; Coe, 3b.

In the recent oratorical contest Chicago showed herself to be the same hard loser that she ever was and when Iowa and Minnesota filed past her in the race for honors she could not refrain from displaying her bad temper and her hissing propensities. We recognize that these same propensities have had ample occasion for exercise during the past few years but it would seem that after having been beaten so regularly in the various fields of battle that she would have learned to steel herself against such unseasonable outbreaks of the moment when judgment is pronounced against her.

Iowa Oratory

The University of Iowa for the first time in its history, won first place in the oratorical contest of the Northern Oratorical League last Friday at Chicago. This victory is important as chronicling a new era in Iowa oratory. It shows that football is not the only game that Iowans can play. It demonstrates a perfect equilibrium between brains and brawn, without which there can be no great success.

The universities in Friday's contest were Iowa, Michigan, Chicago, Wisconsin, Northwestern, Oberlin and Minnesota. This array of universities signifies the excellence of Mr. Brown's victory. Nearly all of these universities have special trainers in forensics, making Iowa's achievement no less a testimony to the state's instructors in that subject than to the winner.

In general, college oratory has made great strides in the past fifteen years. In that time the intercollegiate contests both in oratory and debate, have had their growth and full bloom. In that time professors of oratory have found a place in all the larger universities. Students are receiving superb training in these lines. Directness of speech and sanity of thought are insisted upon.

George W. Maxey who was Michigan's representative at the N. O. L. contest this year is also the editor of the Michigan Daily News and on the eve of the contest he handed out this bit of editorial balm to be applied to the wounded feelings of his constituents in case he met defeat.

"The decisions in oratorical contests are often a matter of personal opinion of the judges and the best man is not always the winner. Whatever the decisions may be tonight, everyone will be satisfied to see that Mr. Maxey has done his best for Michigan."

The balm was certainly timely and all that for the same evening Mr. Maxey failed to get a place on the contest but it is a question as to whether or not the men who have preceded him and won eight out of eleven contests for Michigan would subscribe very readily to each and every part of such a theory.

Battalion Inspection

Major John McClintock, U. S.

Army, Acting Inspector general of the Department of the Platte, will,

by the direction of the Honorable Secretary of War, inspect the State Military battalion today at 2 p.m. This is the regular official inspection of the
