Half Captain.

The results of the Minnesota-Iowa meet will take a great spurt in the next two weeks and that Iowa will spring Colburn, a great spurt in the next two weeks Mile games thus far. Half the team left for Minneapolis at 2:30 last evening. They reached the university at nine o’clock this morning.

The results of yesterday’s games:

A four-year-old son of Dr. Brown, state inspector of the Herbarium, was in the box for yesterday’s meeting of the College of Medicine.

McIlroy, the crack bicycle rider who was expected to win the wheel events in the state meet, is off the team, having flunked in a recent test in Boston. McIlroy, the jumper and discus thrower, is off the team because he has been under the influence of drugs.

McIlroy is one of the many who have been found to be using illegal stimulants to improve their performance. The use of such substances is a violation of the rules of the state meet and is considered unethical.

The Iowa City meet is scheduled for May 25th. It is expected to be a great meet with many excellent athletes competing.

The state meet will be followed by the national meet, which will be held in Des Moines. The national meet is considered the most important meet of the year and attracts athletes from all over the country.

The Iowa City meet will be held at the Iowa State Fairgrounds. The meet will feature track and field events, including running, jumping, and throwing.

The meet will also feature a presentation of new uniforms for the Iowa State track team. The uniforms are designed to be more comfortable and functional for the athletes.

Overall, the meet is expected to be a great event for the athletes, spectators, and fans of track and field.

Matches Played—Chances for

As we go to press the Iowa tennis men bid fair to defeat St. Paul in tennis as badly as the latter did Iowa on the track. The Bally brothers defeated Wyman and Paine in doubles with ease. The Iowa play was the steadiest ever seen on an Iowa court and at no time after the first set was the result of the contest in doubt. The score was 6-6, 6-6, 6-6.

Manager Marsh and Hull played Northrup and Hoyt in the other set of doubles and should have won had Hull have been a little less wild. Manager Marsh played the game of his life and at one time the Iowa men had one set and a score of 40-40 on the second.

In singles Marsh disposed of Hoyt yesterday evening, having coming from him by a score of 6-4, 6-4.

Three other matches of singles will be played. Hull will meet Wyman. J. Bailey will oppose Hoyt this afternoon. It promises to be the game of the day.

The Forum last night elected Messrs F. A. Heald, G. A. Kendere, and B. J. Van Ness to represent them against the Senate in next fall’s preliminary debate.

The annual freshman contest between the Hampton Law Senate and the Forum has been postponed to one week from this evenings, on account of the weather.

The catalogue of the coming summer session will appear early next week, and Prof. Fairbanks, university publisher, will have a new catalogue of the college of liberal arts ready for distribution about May 15th.

Two late additions to the Iowa Historical Library are a set of three volumes on the history of the Mormon church in Iowa, and McClain’s annotated Code of Iowa. This latter work makes the first of the Iowa codes complete, forming a very valuable collection.
