The announcement was made public yesterday that the Sigma Chi fraternity will re-enter the University of Iowa. Professor G. F. Gordon, president of English, who was a member of the chapter at Northwestern, and Mr. H. B. Leffingwell, assistant in the college of pharmacy, who joined the order at Beloit college, were instrumental in securing a second charter at Iowa.

The installation of this chapter, which was planned to take place tomorrow, was followed by a banquet and reunion of the chapter members.

The new chapter, Alpha Eta, will begin its career with eleven charter members, of whom three are members of the instruction corps and eight undergraduates. The petitioners are S. H. Boyd, B. A. Hyde, and P. F. Harvard, of the department of English. J. G. Freeman, superintendent of English, signed in the college of pharmacy, who joined the order at Beloit college, were instrumental in securing a second charter at Iowa.
