THE LAST PARTY

The Senior Hop will No Doubt Be Better Than Ever before

This senior committee is holding frequent meetings these days in making their final preparations for the commencement party. Following the precedent set by the Junior prom committee that they are obliged to give something new and above the ordinary this year. Every effort is being made to do this and the plans for decorations and entertainment are such that the students will be satisfied both in doing something new and above the ordinary this year.

The plans for the decorations are designed to be memorable and to create a festive atmosphere. It is expected that these plans will be carried out successfully.

The Inter-collegiate Tennis Match

The Bailey Brothers leave tonight for Chicago where they will play in the Washer, Pressers, Calamity Jane, and a game with the Rev. D. L. Scott. The match was held at 10 o'clock on Monday night.

This afternoon although the rain has ceased it was seen that the events could not be pulled off either today or tomorrow on account of the very bad condition of the track. The mud is very thick in many places and a heavy rain is expected for the next week.

The Drake contingent around the hotel are confident that Drake will win the meet and this opinion is held by the most of the Des Moines people. It it practically impossible to find a newspaper man who thinks Iowa can win. The officials here are confident that the meet will be held on Monday, however the Drake-Su Hi track is much more probable date.

Faculty Condenn Shirtwaists

The faculty seem to have taken a decided stand against shirtwaist male students. Yesterday President Angell and Professor Adams each requested the men of their classes to wear coats during the lectures. Dr. Lombard was highly offended by a few Sohumore medics in shirt sleeves a few days ago and refused to lecture until the coats were donned. The sophomores signed an agreement that they would appear in a body in shirt sleeves and will probably carry out that determination.— Michigan Daily News.

Emperor's Gift Stolen

A collection of photographs sent to Harvard University by the German emperor and presented in person by Prince Henry on the occasion of his recent visit to Harvard, is reported to have been stolen. The collection was a faithful reproduction of the class report of German art, which the emperor had prepared for presentation to Harvard. The collection was removed from the Fogg Art Museum. Entrance was gained by breaking the skylight.

The Zetagathian have chosen Messrs. Anderson, McCoy, Hadley, Greene and Rinker to represent them in the preliminary debates of next year.

If Morals are a QUESTION OF DIET

As is urged by some who have made a study of the subject then it is evident that the grocery merchant occupies a position of no small responsibility; for you depend more or less upon the judgment and conscience of your grocer for the selection of the food which you consume.

Barth, the Grocer takes particular pride in selecting for his trade the clearest and most wholesome foods to be found anywhere upon the market.
