Rate for Minnesota Game

A rate of $1 for the round trip to Cedar Rapids for the Minnesota-Iowa baseball game on Friday, Decoration day, has been granted by the B. C. R. & N.

The tickets will be good going north at 6:20 and 10:50 in the morning and on any train turning up to 9:45 in the evening. This is the last championship ship game which Iowa will play this year. There is no reason why it should not be won and a good showing made by the rogers, who came up to help bettering Iowa's standing.

Alumnus Honored

The report comes to the university today that Fred T. Hol-land, who was recently tendered the presidency of Graceland College at Lamoni, Iowa, Mr. Hol-land is a senior in the Yale law school this year and it is not yet known whether or not he will accept the position.

If the protests and rumors of protests continue to increase, we surmise that the result of the meeting will hardly be of interest to the game itself.

The varsity track team will certainly have no trouble in capturing as many points in the conference meet as has been allotted them by the Chicago sporting editors.

Strangely enough the eastern college editors neglected to copy John P. Young's article on college dailies.

And again we are privileged to record honor and victory for the men who had early training.
