NEARLY FIFTY MEN OUT.

A New Set of Signals Being Learned.

Briggs will give the first practice this Monday evening.

Nearly fifty men were at Iowa field yesterday afternoon attired in their regular football practices. Many of the new men are familiar with the game of football,

and there is promise of a good team

that will play Iowa City this year, although the men are tired in their regular football

Sophomore Meeting
Ex-president Lambert called the Sophomore class to order at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and proceeded at once to the election of new officers.

Considerable excitement was shown in the balloting and societ y preferences were apparent.

After the dust of battle had rolled away and all the votes of the numerous ballots had been counted it was found that the Irvin's had come out second best and the Zeta's succeeded in electing their candidates for president and treasurer.

The officers elected were: Pres., R. J. Oliger; Vice Pres., Irving Barker; Secretary, Miss Secrest; Treasurer, A. C. Donalson; "Skeeter" Burbank received a plurality of the votes on the bal lot for treasurer but modesty kept him from accepting the office.

THE CAPITAL CITY COMMERCIAL COLLEGE

121 W. S. & J. Building. Des Moines, Iowa.

This is the largest and most successful com
mecial school in the west. Nearly one thousand students attend it each year. There are sixteen members in the faculty.

The school has national reputation and is everywhere regarded as a leader among business training schools.

It accepts a position among institutions of this character similar to that of Princeton, Harvard and Yale among the leading colleges and universities. It has become famous throughout the western states by reason of the thorough work it is doing in the way of fitting young men and women for active com mercial pursuits. Hundreds of our students are today occupying responsible positions in the principal cities and towns of the west. If you want a first class course, it contains detailed in formation relative to the work of the various departments.
