YESTERDAY'S PRACTICE

NEARLY FIFTY MEN OUT.

A New Set of Signals Being Learned, Briggs Will Probably Play Center First Scrimmage Monday

Nearly fifty men were at Iowa field yesterday afternoon attired in their regular football regalia. Many of the new men are showing up well and at present there is promise of a good team for this year, although the glittering hope is expressed by none for a wrought iron aggregation like that upheld the honored football fame of Iowa in 1900. A forecast of the reputation that may come to a football team is as hard to make as to pick a winner at a county fair horse race; and there may be now dark "hosses" in the field, that will bring this year's team to such a standard that the champions of 1900 will be easily distanced.

The practice yesterday consisted mainly of running down on punts, and playing the games of Lea and three deep. The former game is a new one to Iowa this year, but the men find it a great factor in helping their wind and their agility in passing the ball.

Durkee, a prominent member of the scrub team of 1900 is showing up well in punting as also is Jones.

The squad has been divided into three teams, the first and second teams doing practically the same work, the third being initiated into the rudiments of the game. A set of new signals have been arranged and were used by the men for the first time last night. These were somewhat confusing to the men at first but the newness will shortly wear off.

Signal practice was indulged in for a time with the following line-up.

Cent. Duncan; Guards, Donovan and Atchinson; Tackles, Buckley Coulthard and Berry, Ends, Hollenbeck and Seiberts; Quarter, Jones, Halves, Durkee, Briggs, Griffith and Howell, Full back, Ochiltree.

The team that will play the State Normal next Saturday will probably be selected from the above named men.

Some changes are being talked of that of changing Briggs back to his old position at Center being the most probable one. He held his place down in good shape last year and with experience should be better than ever this year.

White, who has showed up so well at half was not out yesterday. It is reported his eligibility is questioned on account of his taking part in the game last year, but as he played with the Ames Academy team and not the College team, it would seem that the matter is rather trivial. The first line-up for scrimmage work will be on Monday.

The IOWAN is in receipt of a copy of "Columbia" "A New National Song," "Dedicated by permission to Governor Cummins of Iowa," written and set to music by C. Jay Smith. The song is tastily gotten up in a neat folder 12mo. size with an attractive first page in colors. There is a fine ring and movement to the stanzas. The whole is offered at a price which places it within the reach of all.

A. Whitney Carr Scholarships

Eleven A. Whitney Carr scholarships have been awarded to the following persons: Julia Padmore, Agnes M. Crane, Lou. C. Dankers, E. H. Haskins, H. G. D. Nutting, Victor Neander and C. S. Bartholow.

GOLF AND TENNIS

Iowa Men Appeared in the Big National Tournaments During Summer Months

The names of Hawkeye athletes occasionally illuminated the pages of the daily press during the summer months in the reports of the national amateur championship contests in golf and tennis.

Bailey Bros. of the University of Iowa entered in both doubles and singles at the annual Western Championship tournament held at the Kenwood County club, Chicago, beginning July 19. Edgar Bailey stayed in the contest till the third round of the singles losing to Nat Emerson in straight sets 6-3, 6-1. In the doubles the Baileys played into the semi-finals.

It was gratifying to college men to see the way the student golfers showed up in the national amateur Championship Tournament which took place on the Glen View Links, Chicago, from July 15 to 20. E. M. Byers the Yale champion defeated the before invincible Travis, while Frank O. Rheinhart a Princeton freshman got into the semi-finals. H. Chandler Egan, of Harvard, was defeated by Byers of Yale in the fourth round of the match. Other college men who showed up well in the tournament were Percy R. Pyne of Princeton and Dr. L. L. Harban of Columbia. R. H. Finkbine of the "U" represented the Golf and Country Club of Des Moines at the tournament but failed to qualify.

A Large Reception.

The joint reception given by the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. of the university last evening at Close Hall was a success in every way, the affair being the largest of the kind ever tendered to the students of U. of I. Over 500 were present, largely composed of freshmen from the different colleges.

The early part of the evening was spent in conversation and becoming acquainted, and as usual at these receptions all present wore cards indicating their names and colleges, which made the affair less formal and saved many a self-conscious freshman from much embarrassment.

After all had become more or less acquainted, the entire assemblage repaired to the gallery of the gymnasium where they were entertained by the O'Brien Bros. of Senior Circus fame. During the evening frappe was served and all were presented with a fitting souvenir of the joyful occasion.

Fraternities Change Halls

The medical fraternity of Phi Rho Sigma has changed its halls from the Koza block on College street to the old Woodmen halls on the corner of Washington and Clinton streets. Phi Delta Phi has the halls formerly occupied by the Phi Rho Sigma.

Invitations are out for a reception to be given by Irving institute in their halls at Close Hall on Monday evening.

REGISTRATION

Not as Heavy as Expected, Will Not Exceed 1600

An official statement shows that the enrollment including that of the summer session which was about 160, is 1130 to date. This would make the fall registration so far a little less than 1000.

The same statement forecasts "the enrollment for the year will not exceed 1600 students," and further states, "the enrollment of our graduate college, which last year numbered 127, is from the nature of the case not yet made up, so the reports really are only for the college of liberal arts and the five professional colleges. The increased standards of admission, particularly in the professional colleges, have been maintained at the expense of numbers."

Board of Athletic Control Meeting

The board of control held their first meeting of the year this morning. The new members on the board were Col. Geo. R. Burnett, who takes the place of Dr. Westfall and H. E. Spangler who fills the vacancy left by L. M. Butler.

Prof. E. A. Wilcox was unanimously re-elected president of the board for the ensuing year. A vote was passed thanking Prof. Wilcox for his painstaking services in behalf of athletics of the past year as president of the board. Col. Burnett was elected secretary. The regular routine business was gone through with.

Meeting of Regents.

The executive committee has called a meeting of the board of regents for October 3, at 10 a. m.

John H. Fellingham, C. 1900 will address the young men of the University this evening at 6:30 at Close Hall. While a student of S. U. I., Mr. Fellingham was very active in Y. M. C. A. work, at present is State Secretary of the College Y. M. C. A. of Iowa and also secretary for the R. R. Asso. at Marshalltown.

Ross Miller, Dent '03, of Greenfield, Ia., fell a victim on the altar of Hymen last month, when he married Miss Naomi Broadfort, of Atlantic, Ia. The couple are at present living at Chicago where Mr. Miller expects to graduate from the Chicago College of Dentistry next June.

E. M. Jones, C '03 will not be in the university this year. He is engaged in the real estate business in the state of Washington.

Purdue's enrollment has reached 1200, the largest number in her history.

F. H. Luhman, C '02, of Postville, is visiting fraternity friends, in the city.

T. Spurgeon, L '04 entered Northwestern university this fall.

The Lecture Course

The lecture course offered under the supervision of department of the public speaking affords a remarkable number of the high class entertainments for a nominal admission fee. Professor Gordon is to be felicitated upon successfully completing arrangements for so strong a list of speakers and readers, and the public congratulates in the opportunity thereby given it.

The character of the course is one that cannot fail to appeal to university people and the IOWAN predicts that it will receive their hearty indorsement.

It is probable that the auditorium will be unable to accommodate all who will wish to hear the entertainments. Such a course as this, modest as it is, in its claims, is eminently more fitted to the university than the lyceum courses that lecture bureau used to serve up to us.

Prospects Good

The prospects for a winning football team are bright this fall. With as good a coaching staff as could be asked and eight of last year's men back, we have a pretty good start. Add to this the fact that a large number of candidates are appearing for practice and among them several who are players of experience and in every way qualified to take a place on a first class eleven and the outlook is such as to hush the croaker. It might not be amiss to say that no one can do better than go down to practice as the presence of a large number of spectators is always an inspiration to the players.

A passenger agent of the Big Four railway was in town today on business relative to the excursion rates to Champaign, Ill. on Turkey day, which should remind every student to lay aside a few coins with which to travel to Champaign on that joyous date and help take the mighty Jake Stahl and his aggregation into camp.

The "sophs and fresh" seem to be trying to find something with which to work up a good old time class scrap. Class spirit is a good thing but it is no child of rowdiness and care has to be taken to keep class scraps from degenerating into rowdiness.

The campus looks better for the removal of the old fence which lost its usefulness years ago and which never was a thing of beauty.

THE CAPITAL CITY COMMERCIAL COLLEGE

Y. M. C. A. Building, Des Moines, Iowa

It is the largest and most successful commercial school in the west. Nearly one thousand students attend it each year. There are sixteen members in the faculty. The school has a national reputation and is everywhere regarded as a leader among business training schools. It occupies a position among institutions of this character similar to that of Princeton, Harvard and Yale among the leading colleges and universities. It has become famous throughout the western states by reason of the thorough work it is doing in the way of fitting young men and women for active commercial pursuits. Hundreds of our graduates are today occupying responsible positions in the principal cities and towns of the west. Call for our elegant new catalogue. It contains detailed information relative to the work of the various departments. Address, W. H. McCauley, Pres., Des Moines, Ia.

Sophomore Meeting

Ex-president Lambert called the Sophomore class to order at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and proceeded at once to the election of new officers.

Considerable excitement was shown in the balloting and society preferences were apparent.

After the dust of battle had rolled away and all the votes of the numerous ballots had been counted it was found that the Irvings had come out second best and the Zets succeeded in electing their candidates for president and treasurer.

The officers elected were Pres., R. J. Olinger; Vice Pres., Irving Barker; Secretary, Miss Secret; Treasurer, A. C. Donalson; "Skeeter" Burbank received a plurality of the votes on the ballot for treasurer but modesty kept him from accepting the office.
