THE NEW COMPACT

Minnesota Substitutes a New Compact For Debate With Iowa

Minnesota has signified her willingness to break with Iowa, and offer us a new compact. They allege that changed conditions make this necessary.

The debating league Friday evening appointed the six preliminary debaters, a committee to investigate the new plans and to report to the league as soon as possible.

Action will probably be taken next Friday night.

The chief features of the new compact will be that the Iowa team is to be held alternately at Iowa and Minnesota. A definite date for the first meeting, the second Friday in February. Each university shall have a board of control, composed of members of both the student body and the faculty. The faculty members, however, having the majority.

When the debate is held here next week the new compact is likely to be in full force. We see it will be from Illinois and when in Minnesota the debate will be from Wisconsin.

Each speaker is allowed twelve minutes, and a closing speech of five minutes, the closing speeches alternate, beginning with the negative.

Forty Men. Out

The cross country runs are becoming more popular every run and the competition for honors bids fair to be hard and close.

Last night the number of participants was 120, and the stern-faced men in every case showed an increasing determination.

"A study of the Pennsylvania coal fields affords a fine object lesson of theegree of protection against pauper labor. A system landed in stump speeches and per C 1700 s, and the result is supposed to increase the state bonds, the size. The men were showing excellent spirit and the resourcefulness of the first few days wears off are setting a lively pace.

The mass needed to be longer and faster. The amount necessary has been almost raised and the committee will soon choose what they think the best for all concerned.

Dr. Jepson is giving the seniors some practical work in surgery. We are all glad to see this, as the only way a person can learn to do thing is to get down and do it, not watch some one else do it, this is what makes one familiar with any line of work and as every year the first patient comes, providing that first patient ever comes, we think the method better for all concerned.

The Wade Club

Pursuant to an announcement two hundred students from all the colleges of the university gathered in the auditorium of the Hall of Liberal Arts last night to organize the Wade Club.

The object of the meeting, the chairman, Mr. Whiting, stated to be simply the expression of the loyalty of the student body to their friend and teacher Judge Wade.

The audience was entertained with several selections by the male quartette and with eloquent extemporaneous speeches by Messrs. Shannon, Clagg, Brown, Burris and Estes. All the speakers eloquently Judge Wade and promised moral and political support regardless of their own party affiliations.

To express the sentiment of the assembly the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, one of the great political parties of the Second Congressional Committee of Iowa has honored Martin J. Wade by nominating him for Congress, "Be it resolved that we a non-partisan assembly of the State University of Iowa in appreciation of his inestimable service to the university and in recognition of his ability as a jurist do hereby tender him our sincere wishes for his success in the coming campaign and election."

The assembly was permanently organized by the election of the following officers:

Pref. Mr. Whiting.
V. Pres. Mr. Clagg.
Sec'y. Mr. Fitzpatrick.
Treas. Mr. McDermott.

The meeting was adjourned after adopting and practicing their will.

Miss Poddle, the Colortina soprano who is singing at the opera house, Oct. 20 is really one of the greatest. She is that most brilliant proof of her art is shown in her rendering of some selections such as the Legenda from Lakine by Delibes, a royal piece in which the composer himself declared he had introduced new and difficult realizations which most coloritna singers find impossible to execute, but which Miss Ross sings with marvelous ease. —Besides Staccato in the most rapid tempo, she holds trills in cresco and decrescendo as high as C. all of which are given with a perfection of phrasing.
