SIMPSON IN MINNESOTA DEBATE

PROPOSED COMPACT BETWEEN TWO UNIVERSITY DEBATES TO BE HELD IN FEBRUARY

Iowa-Minnesota Debate

CONSTITUTION FOR LEAGUE

The following is the proposed constitution for the Iowa-Minnesota Debate League. This constitution is that advocated by Minnesota and for the most part accepted by Iowa.

ARTICLE I: OBJECT

It shall be the object of this league to foster interest in debate by holding an annual contest on the second Friday in February.

ARTICLE II: DEBATING BOARDS

Each University shall select a Debating Board, the majority of whom shall be members of the Faculty. The members of this Board shall be chosen annually by the college authorities; the host university may deem wise. The Debating Board shall pass upon the eligibility of all judges and shall conduct or superintend all of the giving of any debate.

ARTICLE III: QUESTIONS

The entertaining University shall submit the question, or questions, not later than the twentieth day of April preceding the debate, and choice of sides shall be made by the opponents within fifteen days of receipt of the question.

If choice of sides be not made

Within fifteen days, it shall be accorded to the entertaining University, which university shall at once announce its choice.

If the entertaining University fails to submit a question on the above date its opponent may honoratorily terminate the league.

ARTICLE IV: TIME AND ORDER OF COUNCIL

Each debater shall have seventeen minutes; twelve minutes for opening speech, five minutes for rebuttal. The first speech in the affirmative shall be made by the negative.

ARTICLE V: JUDGES

Not later than the third Friday in November preceding the contest the entertaining University shall submit to its opponent the names of thirty men and the visiting University the names of fifteen men for judges; all names to be chosen from the publication, "Who's Who in America" of 1909 to 1910 or some subsequent edition.

Not later than the third Friday in December the entertaining University shall select one judge and the visiting University two judges, each from the list submitted to it. If it be surprised Dr. Kennedy will not be a judge.

In the case of the contest to be held in Iowa, each University notifying its opponent promptly of its choice.

When the contest is to be held in Minnesota the judges shall be chosen from Illinois.

The Universities making the recommendations shall always hold the power to hold the contest in the following research.

The University of Minnesota shall submit the question for the year 1902-1903 and the University of Iowa 1903-1904. If choice of sides be not made fifteen days it shall be accorded to the opposing University which university shall at once announce its choice.

If the University of Minnesota fails to submit a question on the above date its opponent may honorably terminate the league.

This article becomes null and void upon the holding of this contest and article III shall thereafter be in force.

ARTICLE XII: QUESTIONS

The university of Minnesota shall submit the question for the year 1902-1903 and the University of Iowa 1903-1904. If choice of sides be not made fifteen days it shall be accorded to the opposing University which university shall at once announce its choice.

If the University of Minnesota fails to submit a question on the above date its opponent may honorably terminate the league.

This article becomes null and void upon the holding of this contest and article III shall thereafter be in force.

One of the judges for each side shall be chosen from the faculty of the university of the contest. Each university shall have the privilege of picking a judge from the faculty of the opposing university.

Each university shall have the privilege of picking a judge from the faculty of the opposing university.
