VARSITY DEFENSE BETTER

SECOND TEAM GAINS LITTLE GROUND

Improved Work On Iowa Field In Defense. Offense Good. Reserve Score On a Fake Smash.

The improvement in the varsity defense seen in the practice on Iowa field last night was most encouraging. The reserves were given first down and then more downs to make their distance but failed to gain except on a fake fullback smash. Moffatt of the reserves scored on this after it had been tried a half a dozen times successfully on the varsity. Roos who took Sibert’s place at left end, was fooled on the play repeatedly. After a touchdown Coach Knipe called the ball to his team on the varsity fifteen yard line and told Captain Melzner to try to get the ball past the goal until the play stopped. Moffatt gained five yards once and then the play failed.

Donovan, at left guard, was as usual, the rock of the varsity line, but Captain Holbeck at right guard and Berry at right tackle charged fast and stopped many plays. Right tackle, filled by McGowan, was the weakest spot in the varsity line but McGowan showed improvement and an ability to learn. Briggs at center did some very nice work in charging and leaping over the scrums line. Some handling which he received from the reserves, rescued his temper toward the last of the practice and went up. “Charley Briggs is mad!”

“I’m glad to hear it,” shouted Knipe. “I wish you all could do and some mud fighting.”

The varsity’s right was strengthened by the presence of Coult who was hard, the regular end. Fred Buckley played right half back and White House kicked at left half back. Faulk played part of the time at left half back. His bulk was of advantage to him in resisting the assaults of the reserves but he found difficulty in getting down as low as Coach Knipe desired.

The varsity offense was good. Holes were made for the runner and several men got into the play. Six touchdowns were scored by the varsity in the game. Ochil imposed four goals.

College Presidents.

It is a noticeable fact that dinners being succeeded by specialists along certain lines of knowledge as presidents of American universities, and that the general tendency is for colleges to be non-sectarian. Following is a partial list of college presidents and their specialties: Hadley of Yale, James of Northwestern and Wilson of Princeton, political economists; Eliot of Harvard, and Rensselaer of Johns Hopkins, chemists; Schurman of Cornell and Butler of Columbia, philosophers; Jordan of Stanford, zoologists; Angell of Michigan, a literateur; and Wheeler of California, a philologist. Of clerical college presidents there are Maclean of Iowa, Faunce of Brown, Harper of Chicago, Tucker of Dartmouth, Hyde of Bowdoin, Andrews of Nebraska, Harris of Amherst, Thwing of Western Reserve, the late John Jeffrey Barrows of Oberlin, Haskell of Ohio Wesleyan and Day of Syracuse.
