PREPARING FOR MICHIGAN FASTER OFFENCE DEVELOPED

Iowa Getting Ready to Give Michigan Her Best Next Saturday—Ames Game—Iowa 12, Ames 6

The varsity is now preparing to give Michigan the best it has in the game at Ann Arbor Saturday. The signal practice on Iowa field last night was fast and showed much improvement over previous practices. Those who have followed the varsity the closest this year expect it to do better in the Michigan game than it has yet done in any game. The material on the team is gradually playing better and will soon play up to its possibilities.

Iowa has no chance to defeat the Michigan team next Saturday. The Wolverines are to be the western champions this year again. But Iowa has excellent chances of winning every other game on its schedule. Dr. Knipe trained the team to win from the Minnesota team but two weeks before that game it was seen the development of the eleven would be retarded by something not to be remedied by a coach at once—the personal disposition of the players. The team now bids fair to round into excellent form the latter part of the season and to defeat Illinois in the Thanksgiving day game by a good score.

Saturday's game with the State Agricultural college was excellent as a dramatic entertainment for the spectators but did not show the strength of the Iowa team as it should have done. Scott of Ames scored in the first half in which Iowa was kept from scoring. In the second half, McGowan of Iowa scored first on line smashes and Griffith ran sixty-five yards for a touchdown from a punt. The game was played principally in Ames territory. Iowa carried the ball 540 yards in the game to Ames' 175 but Ames was fortunate in the first-half with the umpire, receiving 70 yards distance to Iowa's five. The ball was five times taken away from Iowa for alleged holding, three times at critical points. Ames lost the ball twice for the same offense.

Before ten minutes of the game had passed, Umpire Hall compelled Iowa to surrender the ball to Ames for holding on Ames' five yard line. This hard fortune followed Iowa throughout the game. Combined with Iowa's fumbling several punts in the first half, it kept Iowa from scoring although she played in much superior form and kept the play, save for the ten minutes in which Ames scored, in Ames territory.

Ames made her score by pounding Iowa's left tackle and right guard with her tandem, a guard being called back to a position behind the quarterback. The ball was usually given to one of the halfbacks to carry. Occasionally the line man called back would place himself in front of one of the halfbacks, in which case the play would usually go off tackle. Each distance as Ames approached Iowa's goal was made by a hair but the tandem kept on its progress steadily. The cheers of the Ames rooters as Scott made his touchdown were the loudest that could well be made by two hundred enthusiastic rooters. Iowa started out to rush things into Ames territory for the rest of the half but the umpire stepped in to save Ames twice and the Agriculturists held on their ten-yard line once.

In the second half, Iowa went to Ames' three-yard line and fumbled. It took her third approach to Ames' goal to send McGowan over. Griffith made his score after Tener had punted to him from Ames' thirty-yard line. Tellier tackled him on Iowa's 45 yard-line but he broke away with White's aid and, aided by splendid interference by Roy Buckley, White, Briggs and Ochiltree, ran sixty-five yards for the goal. One minute remained to play. Final score, Iowa 12, Ames 6.

Ochiltree tried five place kicks during the game, three in the first-half and two in the second half. Ames bunched her quarterback and guard on Hollenbeck each time and twice succeeded in sending one man through the line to block. The other three trials fell short.

CHANGE OF DATE

Bertha Kunz Baker, November Fifth and Sixth

It is to be hoped that the change of date in Mrs. Baker's case will work no serious hardship. Holders of tickets for the course must be sure and take ticket marked number one to the entertainment on Wednesday evening and the one marked number two on Thursday evening. If anticipation add to the pleasure of an occasion, the delay may not be in vain. One thing is certain that any student who has not yet secured his tickets to hear the distinguished lady may get a taste of her good work by attending the assembly on Wednesday morning. But he or she will have to be on time to get a seat or even standing room on that occasion.

The sale of reserved seats for Mrs. Baker's two entertainments indicates that she will have a good audience and it goes without saying that she will receive a royal welcome.

Octave Thanet

The program of the Octave Thanet society last Saturday night closed with the public initiation of the Misses Caroline Schictl, Eula Doty, Effie Blum and Julia Swanson. After the program a reception was given to the visitors. When all had become acquainted, games were played and everything done to make the participants feel welcome. Light refreshments were served later in the evening.

CLAIM MISTREATMENT

TENNIS MEN WANT APPROPRIATION

Have tournament With Cornell Soon—Courts Unfit for Use—Last Year's Team's Good Record

The tennis team has arranged a tournament with Cornell to be played next Saturday. The Iowa team will be composed of Bailey (Capt.), Engelke and two others to be selected.

A member of the tennis team complained bitterly to an Iowan man that those in charge of the athletic treasury have shown niggardly treatment toward the tennis team. He said that when the club was independent it was always self supporting, that it had joined its interests with the athletic union at the solicitation of the union, and that since that time the Board of Athletic Control had displayed a feeling adverse to tennis and had finally ended by refusing to spend a cent upon it this year. He said that he and two other players had personally cleaned the weeds off of two of the courts this fall and the other four were still rough and impossible to use. "The back nets," he continued "are down in places and full of holes and there are no court nets at all except those purchased with the private funds of the members. The tennis team last year made a better showing for the university than any other athletic team, winning both singles and doubles in the state tournament, tying Minnesota in a dual meet, playing into the finals at the Conference College meet and into the semi-finals at the Western Championship tournament. The State meet is to be held with Iowa next spring and the courts are in no shape for it nor for our players to prepare for it. When given a chance tennis is the most popular sport in the university as shown by the fact that last fall when the courts were in shape there were over sixty players regularly using them."

Prof. Littig left last night for the western part of the state on professional business.

Will Wolverton, M. '05, is progressing nicely after his recent operation.

Prof. Dean has commenced lecturing to the senior medical class in sections upon ear, nose and throat.

Dr. Crawford will begin demonstrations on the anaesthetized dog to the juniors next Friday. C. C. Hetzel, '03, P. H. Schroeder, '04, Ray Kulp, '04, and P. J. Krouse '04 will assist him.

Ames defeated the State Normal in a debate held at Cedar Falls, Friday. The decision was unanimous for the State College debaters.

FIVE DOLLARS REWARD

IOWAN OFFERS PRIZE FOR NEW YELL

Everybody Urged to Take Part in Contest, Decision to be Made in Mass Meeting

In the hope of stimulating those who can do such things to get to work, and thus cause them to do a service to their alma mater, the DAILY IOWAN is prompted to offer a prize of $5.00 in cash for the best original, Iowa football yell. Yells written out legibly with the name of the author on a separate sheet may be placed in the hands of the editor of the IOWAN any time prior to November 19. The yells will be given by the yellmasters at the next mass meeting and that one taking best with the students as evidenced by vote of the meeting will be awarded the prize.

It is to be hoped that this will be taken up and will result in providing greater variety in our rooting, the need of which is felt by all. The contributing of a good yell for the university is sufficient reward in itself and the monetary consideration is added only to get the thing started.

Debating League Meets

A called meeting of the University Debating League was held in Irving hall at noon today, President C. T. Kemmerer presiding.

After some discussion the slight amendments which Minnesota suggested in the compact for the joint debate were adopted. A board of control for the University Debating League was elected as follows; Professor Gordon, Professor Loos, Dean Currier, C. T. Kemmerer and F. E. Snedcor, the latter two being chosen ex-officio members as president and secretary of the league.

The Iowa reserves were defeated 24 to 10 by Lenox College at Hopkinton, Saturday

Phi Kappa Psi initiated Hall Willis, Iowa City, Ray Mason of Albia, and Will Thornburg of Atlantic, Saturday evening.

On October the 25th, A. Shrubbs ran four miles on the Brighton Eng., track in 19 minutes, 31 2-5 seconds, lowering the amateur record by 2 1-5 seconds.

At Northwestern the men have been ordered to sit on one side the center aisle at chapel and the women on the other.

Registration returns from the University of Illinois show that 2,026 students are registered in the university proper, against 1,763 last year. The gain is 236, a little over 16 per cent. There are 550 women in this registration against 457 last year. The men last year numbered 1,306, and this fall 1,367. The returns from the Chicago branches will swell this total to over 3,500.

Cross Country Cups

THE IOWAN wishes to compliment those who have brought the cross country runs to their present condition, whether they urged on the movement, entered the competition or merely gave their little donation to the cup fund. The cups are excellent but none too good for those men who are doing all in their power to make up for the lack of a proper gymnasium by beginning early to train for spring athletics. Certainly the results of the cross country runs should be noticeable on the track next spring.

Back up the Team

The varsity leaves for Ann Arbor on Thursday evening. Everyone who can possibly do so should be at the last practice Thursday afternoon to give the boys a good send off. Let the team start for this, the hardest game of the season, with the feeling that every student is with them heart and soul, whether in victory or defeat.

New Historical Work

Dr. Benj. F. Shambaugh has just sent to the printer the "Messages and Proclamations of the Governors of Iowa" a work which will be published in four volumes of about 500 pages. The whole is carefully edited and brief biographical sketches of the governors are inserted by the editor. The State Historical Society of Iowa publishes the work and the Iowa State Press does the printing.

Cross Country Prizes

The Handsome Prize Cups for the Cross Country Club on Display at the Iowan Office

The seven silver Cups, prizes for the Cross Country runs, are on display in the window of The Iowan office. There are five fine silver tankards for the individual scores, an Inter Class Cup and a loving cup for the Freshman who makes the largest score.

The five individual cups are unique in design, being more on the plan of a stein than the usual prize cup. Their uniqueness only adds to their value and lucky is the man who is speedy enough to win one of them. The inter class prize is a cup on the usual design, graceful and altogether beautiful. The freshman cup is likewise of the loving cup pattern and is deserving of a close fight among the freshmen.

Adrian college fraternity and sorority students are up in arms against a recent action of the faculty, which declares that their organizations shall cease to exist. If this be the case, the Alpha Tau Omega and Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternities, and Kappa Kappa Gamma and Delta Delta Delta sororities must give up their charters.
