TO PRACTICE WITH SCRUBS ON IOWA FIELD TOMORROW

All Students Asked to Cheer - Admission Free

Portway Features of the Game

Dr. Knipe will line up the target against the reserve team for two thirty minute halves on Iowa turf tomorrow afternoon.

The game is designed to give the varisty an opportunity to regain confidence in its own ability and evey student should be present to yell himself hoarse in encouraging the team.

The larger the score the better it will be, and the looter the yelling the more will the to be the score of the game be accompanied, pushed forward to be face to all. The only thing that will be let the offense all and fill the grandstand and field off the field.

The varsity schedule is well guarded to give the team a chance to round up the season in improved form. The Washington game Saturday is the easiest of the three remaining games on the Missouri game the week following is a little harder and the Illinois game the day after that is the hardest of all. Dr. Knipe has not given up hope of a turn in the ability of his team and it will work the rest of the season without let-up, doing the very best he can with the candidates for the team.

The Iowa feels sure that every student will support him loyally. More men at the open practices, more students where that they care deep down, the success of the team, is the way to help the coach and the university. The opportunity is now greater than ever.

MICHIGAN'S GREAT MATERIAL

The University of Michigan has gathered about Couch Yost the greatest collection of material ever collected in the west. Stars of the first magnitude are as numerous as they are rare at Iowa.

The Hawkeyes have had but one star, Clyde White, and Michigan has five players on her team.

Heston, Herstein, Weeks, Sweetly and Maddock, who were light and shifty on their feet as Clyde Williams was. Michigan's offense is the greatest machine ever seen in the west. It is superior to that of Iowa's Champions of '99 and '00, though the Hawkeye defease of those years was better than Michigan's of today. The Iowa team entered the game Sat-day facing great odds and the difficulties under which they labored might well have appalled the stoutest heart among them.

There was Maddock, tearing down the field like a wild automobile, who was stopped and turned back by the Iowa line with such power tbat he is now greater than ever.

MINNESOTA SPY CAUGHT
SAW PRACTICE AT UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

Gopher Track Athlete Caught Spying on Badger Football Practice and

Ducked in the Lake

A Madison dispatch in this morning's Record-Herald tells of the ill-fortune which attended a Minnesota track athlete during a visit to Wisconsin. Many Iowa students will remember Robertson who ran the middle distances for the Gophers in last spring's dual meet.

It seems that Mr. Robertson was sent to Madison to learn what might be of the style of play, signals, etc., of the Wisconsin football team. His interest in pure athletics was such a rent over looking the football-practice field and make himself otherwise conspicuous.

He was captured on the field by men who noticed the great interest in the practice.

On being recognized and called by name he was given a turn in the Missouri game. Thank sgiv-ing day this year Iowa and Minnesota will meet and Robertson was expected to witness the affair.

He was taken into custody by several substitutes until after practice and then given a thrashing in the game.

The incident will add to the minds of many of the older students the similar experience with Mr. Caldwell of St. Paul who was caught by the opposite of Iowa as long as that aw-some score remains in Hawkeye memories.

There were others who did bravely for Iowa too. The score was very, very black but it was not all dark for Iowa on Ferry field. Every one of the Iowa players who came from the field at the end of the awful slaughter had done some good work, had played at times in a manner to merit praise and to save his record from zero. The Iowa's track men, who were close behind Maddock in the Dairyman's track race, made a good showing.

The league proposed by Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin which Illinois plans to enter with Iowa, Wisconsin and Indiana, is a cornered debate league which is turned down by the debating league, at least, on their meeting last week, universal sentiment seemed to be that such a league would lower the standard of debate. They are afraid, however, are anxious for new fields to conquer in the debating world.

Last night they ordered the secretary to send a challenge to Michigan.

POWERS TOMORROW

Lord Chambly, Monsieur Beaussier, the Gambler, Afternoon and Evening

Powers is an American and an artist of the first rank. He has the power of reaching the heart, to arouse the imagination, to excite laughter, and to paint his pictures with such power that he is forgotten and his auditors live in the world of the artist's making.

One of the best things in his whole repertoire is Lord Chambly and Miss Helen Leavitt who are anxious for new fields to conquer in the debating world.

The marriage of Byron J. Lambert and Miss Helen Leavitt took place Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents in Waterloo. The groom is a well known member of the faculty of the civil engineering school. He and his bride will be at home in the Dr. Johnson flats at 24 N. Clinton street.

Local

Delta Gamma initiated Saturday evening at the home of Miss Clark, where a little dinner and a banquet was enjoyed. The initiates were Ruth Fleming, '04, of Omaha, Nebr., Ronnet L. Bolinger, '06, of Council Bluffs, and Ethel Elliott, '02, of Marshalltown, Iowa.

Cleveland Kingsbury, ex-'04, who is engaged in business in Newton, spent Sunday at his home in this city.

The Whitney society met on Monday evening at 7:30 p. m. in the Latin lecture room. Prof. Sturm read a paper on "The Use of the Voice in Modern German Poetry."

President MacLean is in Payette Iowa today attending the inauguration ceremonies of Pres.

Bassett.

Roy Downing, M. '03, spent Sunday with his parents at Wel-lowa, Iowa.

Tomorrow evening the senior band will give their annual bi-weekly thesis reading.

Dr. Winters, H. M. '01, of Wilton Junction, was in the city

Wednesday with a patient for Dr.

Johnson's clinic.

W. P. Condon Ex. '92, who recently returned from the University last year, has received a scholarship at Georgetown.

C. I. Lambert M. '03 left for Montana last week on account of his professional engagements at the wedding of his brother Prof. Byron Lambert.

Don't Knock

During his occasional visits to the campus since Saturday the editor of the Iowan has been astonished to hear considerable knocking on Dr. A. A. Knipe.

Certainly it is hard enough for a coach to see his team give up during a big game without having the blame and ignominy of that defeat heaped upon his own head.

If blame there is, it is certainly not with Coach Knipe who has worked upbrightly throughout the season to develop the team which shall at least do credit to the university.

By following the tactics of 1898

Dr. Knipe may yet bring out a team which will be, as in that year, the winner on Thanksgiving Day.

If Iowa is to do anything in the way of football the remainder of the season it will be necessary for the student body to turn out at practice and by encouragement rather than knocking, help Dr. Knipe to develop the team.

Week of Prayer

The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. are this week observing the annual week of prayer for colleges and college students throughout the United States. The two local Christian associations are holding daily prayer at 6:30 p.m.
Monday evening Miss Blaine had charge of the meeting for all girls of the university. Tonight at 6:30 the members in each class will hold joint meetings.

A Retrospect

During Dr. Knipe's first year as coach at Iowa several thorough shake-ups in the varsity were necessary before winning a team, the nucleus of the teams of 1899 and 1900 was developed. The defeat by the State Normal School in that year was followed by a shake-up in the varsity which sent to the first team Clyde Williams, Joe Warner, Jim Brockway, Emmett Burrier, Buck Morton, and Mark Baker.

At the close of the season of 1898 ten of the afterward champonship team of 1899 had found places on the varsity. Scarcely three of these had been in the games early in the season.
THE CAPITAL CITY COMMERCIAL COLLEGE
G. F. C. Hall, Des Moines, Iowa is the largest and most successful commercial school in the state. Nearly one thousand men and women learned to earn their living through the study of this character similar to that of Princess, Harvard and Yale among the leading colleges and universities. Its successful record throughout the western states is reason for the thorough work it is doing in the way of fitting young men and women for active commercial pursuits. Hundreds of its graduates are today occupying responsible positions in the principal cities and towns of the state. Call for our largest new catalogue. TO PRACTICE WITH SCRUBS

The quality most needed by the novice player is a fierce determination not to have the novelty lose and the students of the university aid in cultivating this by everyone taking an intense interest in the university's success. More spirit, much more spirit is needed. A great love for the university, a desire to work their hardest and fiercest that Iowa might not lose made Iowa's great team of 19 and 90. The university never had the stars that Michigan has, but it has had men who loved their alma mater and who would work like everything for her. It is more and more of these men that are needed in Iowa.

The university can forgive and forget to a great extent. It will not give up. Coach Krieger, whose ability and fitness for the hard task he has at Iowa has many times been tried and proven, will keep working away until the last moment of the football season, trying to make a team out of the candidates which are given him. To the football player who quits now, little sympathy or consideration can be extended and the man who knocks on the coach is in the same boat. But the Iowa do not believe that any Harvard player will quit or knock. Everyday for the rest of the season, it is up to the Iowa students to support the team with hearty interest and to make a spirited demand for good playing by the team.

Owing to the muddy and impassable condition of the roads as far as runners are concerned, the run of the Cross Country club set for today at 4:30 p.m. has been postponed till Thursday at 4:30 p.m.
