PAT O'DEA EXPECTS TO WIN

SAYS MISSOURI WILL HOLD THE SCORE DOWN

Missouri Team's Hard Luck at Grinnell!—Team in Good Shape—Coaching in South Hard

Missouri 6, Iowa 0

"We expect to hold the score down today," said Pat O'Dea, the famous Wisconsin captain and kicker, now coach of the Missouri football team, this noon. "We are not in the best of condition, however, for a game. We stopped over at Grinnell last night, getting there at eleven o'clock. Really now, we had an awful time up in the little third story rooms which were the only rooms we could get. I didn't sleep a wink and few of the players did."

"Our men are physically sound and fit for the game. Kick, the regular fullback is the only man out of the game on account of injury."

"It is hard work coaching teams in the south. I have seen fellows holler and bellow on account of assumed injuries in practice when I knew they were not hurt. Once I sent a fellow from the field for taking on so but it did not have the effect I expected. At Wisconsin a fellow would work a whole lot harder after being ordered from the field but at Missouri they seem glad to be sent away. The candidates for the team are showing possibly a little more desire to work every year but it will take much time before our men will work for their places as they do at the conference universities."

THE CONFERENCE RULES

"The conference rules are becoming more and more popular in the state of Missouri," said Dr. Hettington, physical director of Missouri. Even the Kirksville doctors and the Kansas City Medic are observing them somewhat. The rules are observed very strictly at the University of Missouri and the students approve of this course heartily. Missouri will not apply for admission to the conference this fall. I do not believe that Nebraska will be admitted.

Nebraska's game against us showed that she is not much stronger than we are and we know that we can't compete with such fast company as the conference colleges. Nebraska played the hardest and fiercest game against us that she was capable of."

"But don't you think that Nebraska has as good claim to the western championship?" Dr. Hettington was asked.

The Missouri physical director smiled and shook his head.

HETTINGTON'S GREAT WORK.

Dr. Hettington has accomplished wonders for amateur athletics in the state of Missouri. When he went to M. S. U. athletics were in bad shape in the state. The present high regard for purity in athletics throughout the state of Missouri is due to Director Hettington's efforts. Great credit for his labors is given Dr. Hettington wherever the cause of pure amateur athletics is esteemed.

Reserves Vs. Lenox.

Manager McClain has scheduled a game between the Reserves and Lenox college of Hopkinton to be played on Iowa field Saturday afternoon. The Lenox team defeated the reserves early in the season 24 to 10 on their home grounds. Lenox has also beaten Wisconsin Normal 59 to 0 and tied Upper Iowa 0 to 0. The game will be the last football to be played on Iowa field this season. It will give the reserves an opportunity to defeat one of their rivals and to show the improvement they have made in the past few weeks. The game will be quite as interesting from a spectacular point of view as a varsity game. It will be one that the students will turn out to see.

Delta Gamma will entertain the 1902 football team, Saturday evening at the home of Miss Ann Bollinger. It has been the custom of the sorority to entertain the team annually for the last three years.

Sigma Nu will entertain this evening at their chapter house in honor of visiting fraters on the Missouri team.

Carl G. W. Almquist, an engineering student at the University of Wisconsin, was shot and seriously injured by the manager of the student club of which he was steward.

Simpson defeated State Normal Tuesday in a game played at Indianola by the score of 29 to 5.

Maude Lewis of LeMars is visiting Grace Padmore.

Marguerite Ragnuet spent Sunday at her home in Davenport.

Ivy Lane will entertain its members at an informal dance Friday night.

Miss Louise Brown of Ottumwa is visiting Miss Mae Rex.

Elenora Hayes and Alice Clapp visited in Davenport Saturday.

One hundred and thirty-one students from standard colleges in Iowa are enrolled in the university.

P. J. Klinker C. '00 L. '01, the former manager of the Quill is visiting university friends.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

NEW VARSITY YELL SELECTED BY STUDENTS

Speeches by the Old Favorites—Judge Wade Says We are Handicapped Without Gymnasium

The mass meeting was half an hour late in opening last night owing to the failure to appear of Pres. MacLean who was billed for the first speech on the program. Meanwhile the crowd amused itself with guying the late arrivals and giving abortive yells. When Pres. Spangler took the platform and secured peace and order, he introduced Judge Wade who was greeted with great enthusiasm. The judge prophesied that we would win today and that after that a victory over Illinois would follow. Continuing he said, "We should be proud of what we have been able to do so far in track athletics, baseball and football for we are handicapped and always will be until we get a gymnasium as other universities have."

E. K. Brown who was introduced as one who had defeated all the Conference Colleges made a few remarks along the line of college spirit saying that Iowa has the proper college spirit and lots of it.

Prof. Isaac A. Loos had to leave on account of an engagement, but he stayed long enough to speak a few ringing words to the rooters and the football men.

President Wilcox of the board of control was called upon to address the meeting while the votes were being taken up and he responded with a few well timed thoughts. The vote on the yells to decide the winner of the Iowan prize was next taken. Slips containing the six yells which had been selected by the yellmasters as the best of those handed in were passed to each one present, the yells were then given by yellmasters to illustrate their effectiveness and each one was asked to cross out his choice on the slip. The slips were collected and sorted resulting in the choice of the first yell on the slip, by a large plurality, the last received the second largest vote and the second, the third largest. The author of the winning yell is Wylie W. Fay, C. '05, W. I. Atkinson C. '04, writing the one securing second place and H. G. Walker, C. '04 third.

DISTINGUISHED SPEAKERS

NINE COLLEGE PRESIDENTS AT ASSEMBLY

Various College Yells Give Life to the Occasion--Presidents Will Attend Game

Six hundred students crowded and jammed into the general lecture room to hear the presidents of the colleges of Iowa, as many more were turned away at the door.

After the crowd had got in the best way they could the procession of college presidents filed upon the platform and were seated. They were in order of their seating: Pres. MacLean, University of Iowa; Pres. W. F. King, of Cornell; Pres. T. J. Bassett, U. I. U.; Pres. E. R. Shelton, Simpson; Pres. Jno. Gordon, Tabor; Pres. Absalom Rosenberger Penn; Pres. D. Bradley, Iowa College; Chancellor A. G. Bell, Drake; Pres. E. W. Stanton, Iowa State College, and Pres. S. B. McCormick, Coe.

The meeting opened with the singing of the doxology after which President T. J. Bassett offered the invocation and Pres. W. F. King read from the scriptures Psalms 34, then Dr. MacLean stated that nine of the presidents of the standard colleges of Iowa were here to confer together, and that three more of the fourteen who were eligible were intending to come but were detained at the last minute. In the letter of invitation to the presidents they were informed they would be called upon to make a three minute speech and to demonstrate that a college president could make a point in three minutes.

Pres. E. R. Shelton was first introduced who imparted the thought that concentration was great and good quality to cultivate both in college and after ward.

President John Gordon "told a story, gave a quotation and spoke a commonplace. The quotation was "I hold it a small matter whether your jewel be one of pure water, whether it a rose diamond be or a white but whether it dazzles with life."

President Absalom Rosenberger left the thought of perseverance in careful pains-taking preparation for your life work and advised all to stick to their work and not to try the short cuts to rapids success.

Pres. Dan F. Bradley uttered among other things the following which brought out rousing cheers "We are all here to root today, for we are all for the university when it comes to anything from outside."

Acting Chancellor H. G. Bell of Drake spoke of the good feeling existing in the official relations of the Iowa colleges and of the good this fraternity of education was doing.

A Neglected Field

When a person feels that Smoky Mokes or selections of a similar character are among the best he has heard, or when he feels that a music box has given satisfaction to his musical taste, he should begin to learn the art of listening to music. As long as the state is not more liberal toward the university we cannot deprive the existing department of their support in order to establish new ones. Yet, it is evident that our graduates should have their musical taste developed beyond the average if their education is to be broad. In the four years they spend here they should at least be given an opportunity to hear the best there is in music. We need more entertainments like the one given by Eugene Cowles and his company.

Here's to the "Girl's Rooters Club," may its days be an inverse ratio to that of the Boys Club.

Taking Up an Old Friend

This is the first time a Missouri football team has appeared on Iowa field in seven years; this as the result of the mobbing of Iowa's '96 team in Columbia. Meanwhile athletics have assumed a different tone at Missouri and there is no school in the southwest which has done so much for the cause of purity in athletics as our neighbor to the south. It is sincerely to be hoped that nothing will occur today or in the future to mar the pleasant feeling with which we resume athletics with the Missourians.

Prof. G. T. W. Patrick who is now in Berlin doing special advanced research work in psychology under one year's leave of absence from the university has written a very interesting account of a German football game which will be published in tomorrow's IOWAN.

While cheering the team give nine rahs for the reserves. They deserve that and more too.

The enthusiasm of Iowa girls and their good, consistent rooting at the games are worth one touchdown any day.

May Not Be Played

Minnesota and Michigan are now engaged in a wrangle as to whether their Thanksgiving day game shall be played in Ann Arbor or Detroit, Coach Williams insisting on placing it in the latter city. It would seem from the contract between the two schools that the Wolverines had the right to play the game in either place as they pleased. It is possible the game will not be played at all as matters have gone so far that one of the two must back squarely down in order to get together on any place.
