Calendar for the Week
Nov. 6: Thanksgiving recess begins at 12 m.

Of for Champaign
Dr. Kinpe and the varsity, together with their ever-attending coaches, managers and substitutes, depart for Champaign to-morrow morning to play the Illini on Thursday. Whatever the chances for winning may be, the Iowan hopes that a large crowd will accompany them to cheer the Old Gold on to victory. With the team playing at its best and large crowd of rooters to yell, Illinois will certainly know that Iowa has a football team worthy of the name.

It is undoubtedly the duty of every student who can possibly go to accompany the team and help defeat Illinois on Thursday.

As the editors of the Iowan like other students wish to attend their family reunions and partake of the sweets of the Thanksgiving board, the paper will not be issued during the recess. The Iowan wishes for all a pleasant vacation and hopes the students will return for the second quarter refreshed and rested after a few days at home.

The coaching of the varsity men at the scrub game Saturday was certainly the best heard on Iowa field this year. They knew the yells and understood when to give them and what one to give at the right time. The rest of us should yell that way at the game in Champaign on Turkey day.

The interest which the underclass men take in the cross-country runs seems to promise good track teams in the near future. Oh for a gymnasia to keep up the work in the winter.

The large attendance at the assembly this morning would have convinced any legislator of the need of an assembly hall.

"Rash for Michiganize!"

The trustees of Iowa State College at Ames have decided to build a central building to cost $250,000, following which an agricultural hall will be erected at cost of $800,000. A fireproof addition to the present agricultural hall will be immediately built at cost of $60,000 and $75,000 will be expended in building a central heating plant.

Official Bulletin
The annual Thanksgiving reception at the M. and V. W. C. A. will be held at Close Hall on Friday evening at 8 o'clock.
The following resolutions have been adopted by the faculty of the college of liberal arts:
1. "We indorse the president's suggestion that the university authorities co-operate to the full extent to bring the offenders of last Friday evening under the full penalty of the civil law.
2. "That the president and deans be appointed a special committee to consider these offenses, and report on the same at future meetings of this faculty."

Wm. F. Bushnell, M. 09 enjoyed the visit of his brother over Sunday.

Local
The following physicians were here with patients for the clinics at the University hospital: Dr. Slavata, West Liberty, Dr. Smoot, Newton, Dr. Shearer, Tipton; Dr. Wheat, Ellsworth, S. D.

Sigma Nu has issued "At Home" cards for Thursday, Dec. 4.

Dan Maguire has been called to his home in Dubuque by the serious illness of his brother.

AMUSEMENTS
Perhaps the best show to be given in the opera house this season will be Elmer Walter's new production "La Laurette," which will be at the opera house Monday the 31st of December. Ott Skinner will appear as a star among stars as his whole troupe is made up of established favorites. With the strong cast and with such a从来不 place as "La Laurette," Mr. Skinner will doubtless have a strong hold on the audience that will greet him here Monday night, Dec. 1.

"Lover's Lane" famous through its runs in New York, Boston, Chicago and Philadelphia, will be on at the opera house Saturday night Nov. 29. A wholesome, merry play bubbling over with laughter.

The crowning sensation of the season, Elmer Walter's latest scenic Novelty "A Millionaire Tramp." The greatest dramatic hit of recent years, at the opera house on the afternoon and evening of Nov. 27, 1902.
