STRONG COLLEGE TEAMS

NEXT YEAR'S COACHES AND PROSPECTS

Drake, Ames, and Simpson Will Be Stronger Next Year—Retention of Coaches

From present indications, the state college teams will be stronger next year than this. Few will lose many players and veteran teams will be the rule. Most of this year's coaches will be retained.

Coach Cruit of Grinnell is practicing law in Wisconsin but will continue as coach at Grinnell. Mr. Reid at Coe will probably be retained at the task in hand and actively in- terested. There will be no more assembly in a noisy game played.

Reid will probably be retained at the task in hand and actively in- terested. To develop a team that is an important service to the community and that will return to Grinnell if he is asked to do so, Mr. Grinnell can be induced to come to Iowa Coe another year. He is an old friend of Mr. Cooper of Grinnell.

Martin, of Illinois, and Lane, of Yale, will probably coach Penn State another year. He has excellent success with the team in that city, but again will probably be induced to return to Iowa if it is desirable. Coach C. C. Mitchell of Iowa will probably coach Penn State another year. He is an old friend of Mr. Cooper of Grinnell.

Drake

Coach Ristine of Harvard has had excellent success with the Amsterdam team, but he has had good material and has developed what is probably the strongest state team out side of the university, though Cornell, by defeating Ames 17 to 15, is able to claim a better showing on the face of games played. Ames has a total score of 269, to her opponents' 154, an excellent record especially when considering that when two conference colleges were on Ames' schedule, Ames will endeavor to secure Mr. Ristine in the future.

Cornell college was coached this year by Mr. Cooper, of the university in New York, and played the best punters and place kickers in the west. Coach Lindgren's men had an excellent assortment of players and Captain Miller showed excellent headwork in his use of them. Coach Reid did excellent work at Simpson this year. He took up the work where Captain John Griffith left off and trained the team in excellent form. Mr. Reid is a former Simpson player who was Mr. Sweeney's understudy at Michigan last year. Simpson has a good assortment of plays this year. The trick and delayed pass plays did not succeed against Iowa but against Amos in the last game of the season they worked for two touchdowns. Bert Kennedy, tackle on the Simpson team, is a very good player and defense. Next year will be his fourth at Simpson. Coach Reid will probably continue at Simpson.

The state team rounded out the season in great style by defeating Grinnell 47 to 0. Storv of Drake is a tackle worthy of

CONFERENCE MEETING

PROFESSOR E. A. WILCOX REP. IRENTS IOWA

Delegations from Nine Conference Colleges Meet in Chicago—Nebraska and Notre Dame Denied Admission

Professor E. A. Wilcox was the delegate from Iowa at the meeting of the faculty representatives of the nine conference colleges held in the Victoria Hotel in Chicago on Friday.

The conference added no new rules, but spent the time in the consideration of summer base- ball, track athletics, and the admission of new members of the conference.

A resolution was adopted stating that it was deemed inadmissible to admit any colleges to the conference at the present time.

The reason for this was that any more members would make the meeting unwieldy, and that the colleges should not be further geographically separated than is now the case, and the delegates will coach Coe another year. He is an old friend of Mr. Cooper of Grinnell.

Military Ball

Co. I. 50th Regiment, L. N. G. will give its annual military ball at the armory Friday evening. The ballyards will have become important social events in Iowa City. Many students will attend the dance Friday evening. The Grand march will begin at 9 o'clock.

The patrons and patronesses of Co.'s party are: Col. and Mrs. Gilchrist, Col. and Mrs. Burnett, Col. and Mrs. Harrison, Maj. and Mrs. Grant, Capt. and Mrs. Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Mas dayer, Dr. and Mrs. Brune, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Coast, Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Carson, Judge and Mrs. Wade, H. Geo. W. Knuts, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Schrader.

A party of about twenty-five juniors and seniors in the School of Music of the University of Wisconsin, in- tend to take an eastern trip during the Christmas vacation. They will visit the many of the large commercial and manufacturing houses such as Milwaukee, Chicago, Cleveland, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, New York, and possi- bly Washington.

Maguire, L. 03, has returned to the "C" after being called to East Dubuque to the death of his dying brother Philip Maguire, whose home was in that town.

Michigan's gymnastics is being equipped with a new cork track for runners.

The address at the assembly to- day was given by Dr. James Grant Gilchrist, professor of surgery of the homopathic college and was a strong plea for the oratorio society.

"The University consists of various influences and activities" said Dr. Gilchrist, "yet all inter- rests work to the end that they have a duty to the university. It takes students, faculty, and re- gents combined to give us what we desire. The tendency is to magnify individualism which is good if others are not belittled. It is impossible to follow all so follow your own conscience to the glory of the university."

"You wonder why I am con- nected with music," said Dr. Gilchrist, "but the things I have accomplished in life is the result of much hard work and will be a credit to all musicians. The connection is probably explained by the fact that I am not far from one music society and two others."

The University of Iowa appreciates the fact that certain papers in the state have been furnished with material to kill space in both editorial and news columns. If they would, now and then, devote a paragraph to praising the few worthy things we do; we might better understand their deep-felt interest.

A freshman has evolved a method of preventing freshmen-sophomore scraps. His proposal is, that the sophomore class of next year give the freshmen a banquet. His classmates have seriously taken the matter under advisement.

Comparative scores do not always adorn a tale, but they never lose the point a moral. We must have some place to train our athletes.

Amusements
The engagement of the Grace Cameron company at the opera house on Monday, Dec. 8, promises to be one of the musical events of the season. Reports from all over the country where "A Norman Tvedt's Wedding" has been heard are to the effect that it is, from every point of view, one of the brightest, wittiest and most tuneful comic operas seen in the last ten years.
It is seldom that an attraction can go around the country year after year for ten years and draw crowds houses everywhere. Such however, is the case with "In Old Kentucky," which is announced for early appearance here. The company this season will be bigger and better than ever, for it has been organized for extended engagements in New York, Chicago and Boston. At the opera house tomorrow Thursday December the fourth.
