BASKETBALL GAMES

SEASON BEGINS WITH GAME HERE JANUARY 24

Several Games Scheduled—More to Come—Team is Strong This Year

Practice Again Tuesday and Wednesday

The basketball team is now practicing regularly for the games it is to play this winter. The season will open a week from Saturday with a game at Close Hall with Wilton college. The schedule, so far as completed, the Grinnell game being still in state of negotiation, is: Jan. 24—Wilton college at Close Hall. Jan. 26—Des Moines college at Des Moines. Jan. 31—Grinnell at Grinnell. Feb. 5—Kansas at Close Hall. The schedule will be consider- ably lengthened by games to be scheduled. Among these will be Grinnell and Mollmouth colleges of Chicago and Minnesota and Minnesota Agricultural college at Minneapolis.

This team is practicing regularly Tuesday and Wednesday nights and Saturday afternoons. Among these will be Stover, Brown, D. Griffith, Negus, and Stover, Brown, D. Griffith, Negus, and S. Griffith. The team as at present organized will be considerably stronger than it was last year. The strength and the cleverness of these players are fast and clever and should make an even better record than last year's good team.

The second team has been formed and has played one or two games since the first team began the work last term. The second team men are: Stover, Brown, D. Griffith, Negus, and Schuberry.

Coach Bailey is much encouraged over the form of the men as shown by the practice this last week.

"The team will be considerably stronger than it was last year," said Mr. Bailey this morning. "The men are playing with more snap and skill than ever. They are fast and clever and should make an even better record than last year's good team."

Sophomore medics began dis- section Monday.

The University of Iowa should and doubtless will be, represented in the near future by appointees to one or more of the very desirable positions at the Carnegie Institution.

Basketball has gradually become a more important factor in winter sports, since its admission to the university. This year's schedule is due to the earnest effort of those in charge. They have worked for love of the game and without pay. We predict success for this year's basketball team at Iowa.

The Cornellian got so enthusiastic over an announcement of the executive committee that Cornell was to have $11,500 additional funds that they issued a special edition. We dislike to promise so far ahead; but we believe if we were to get a new assembly hall, we would print a red, white, and blue edition.
