A FABLE FOR FRESHMEN

Tale of his Career at the University and the Great Success he Achieved at Sawing Wood

Once there was a young man of stature and fleetness who broke into the university. He was of great prep renown and when he appeared on the gridiron for practice, the Correspondents of the big city and the telegraph boy.

He was not in the line-up of first game, but he did not inform his friends that the Coach had it for him nor did he quit suddenly as he couldn't get along with the Coach.

He worked harder than ever and, though he did not have a place on the team to the Hotel, he didn't play the folks at home that season.

He has now become a Varsity player. The Correspondents of the Iowa City Press have given him a column in their paper for home games. He is now in charge of the Iowa City Boosters. He is the best of our backfield and never gives up a yard but takes the ball every time working hard on what the Coach tells him to do. He is the best of the bunch.

He tried in the winter for the basketball team and gained speed and quickness, though he did not meet the Team.

In the spring he was sub on the Track team but he didn't say the coach was no good because he was not manufactured into a Star that year.

The next fall he made the eleven as a formidable back, and the varsity was defeated that year.

The university was to be proud of; the university had made a star out of him. The varsity was defeated that year, but this young man worked hard and wrote the folks at home that he wasn't Manufactured into a Star by Sawing Wood.

The Illini heads its story of the debate between the Philomatheans and Illinois as follows: "Illinois defeats Iowa." It is impossible to make the people understand it in any other way than that the University of Illinois defeated the University of Iowa last Friday night. This is the evil of the present debating system.

There is great opportunity offered to Iowa students today in being allowed to hear the man who lectures to the greatest graduate school in the country on public speaking, give the principal landmarks in that subject.

THE Burlington Route has just issued two publications of great interest to homemakers.

"Nebraska" is the title of a 48-page book descriptive of the agricultural, cultural resources of the state, profusely illustrated with farm scenes and supplemented with an accurate sectional map.

"Big Horn Basin" is an illustrated folder telling all about the rich but undeveloped portion of Northwestern Wyoming. The Big Horn Basin contains wonderful openings for small ranches along good streams, with a million acres of government land open for settlement under the land laws. Both publications will be sent to any address on receipt of two cents in stamps. Address J. FRANCIS, General Passenger Agent, Burlington Route, Omaha.

The Political Science club at its annual business meeting elected the following officers: Pres. Dr. R. E. Shambaugh; Secretary, Dr. F. B. Bolton, Drs. Horack, Perce and Grafken were elected members of the society.

All candidates for the track team, members of the Cross Country Association and men interested in spring athletics, are requested to be present at a meeting in the northwest room, central building, Thursday evening, January 23 at 7:00 o'clock p. m.

Amusements

A play that will satisfy to the utmost the demands of all classes of theatre goers is "The Prisoner of Zenda" which is booked at the opera house tonight.

The production of Holden Bros., Denver expresses promises a few genuine surprises in theatrical achievements, both mechanically and artistically. One critic who witnessed the first production in New York wrote this tersely of it: "A great deal of laughter, a tear or two, a thrill and a vision of human nature that touches the heart and sends you away in pleasant thoughts." Denver Express will be at the opera house Monday, January 26.

Official Bulletin

STUDENTS IN ALL COLLEGES

Students may pay tuition and re-register for the second semester from now until Saturday, February 11, except that from February 6 to February 11, inclusive. The office will be regularly open for registration purposes for new students only. This is necessitated by the reason that semester reports must be collated.

After Saturday, February 11, students not properly registered are not entitled to be in attendance upon classes.

Students who are reported to this office as failed, or conditionally passed at 6 only, or as having unfinished work, for the first semester, will be notified to this effect as soon as the semester reports are collated. Students not receiving such a notice will understand their work has been satisfactory. Except for purposes of registration no other reports with regard to standing will be given out.

Four days after the close of the semester are allowed to instructors in which to make returns to this office. It is expected that within a week or ten days from the close of the semester all students may know definitely whether their work for the first semester has been reported to this office as complete or not.

STUDENTS in THE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

Students in the college of liberal arts who do not wish to pay tuition now and re-register regularly in advance are requested, in order that registration may be facilitated, to file in the office of the registrar during January a program of their studies for the second semester. Cards for this purpose may be obtained at the office. In cases where no change in program is contemplated students are requested to call and leave notice to that effect.

February 12, 13, and 14, preference in registration will be given to those who have previously arranged programs of study.

Changes in divisions will be allowed only when necessary.

Students will please bear in mind that registration is not completed, until tuition is paid; and only when this is certified, is registration in a certain division secured. When a student is required to make a full division no one will be allowed thereafter to register for that section without the written permission from the head of the department.

Students who fail in work of the first semester in which beginning classes are offered for the second semester will be required to re-register for full time during February 14.

A record of attendance is kept from the opening of the semester and though students may not be registered at once they should be regularly in attendance upon classes for which they intend to register.

Programs of second semester recitations may be obtained either at this office, or the dean's.
