Hesperians Give Farces

University Chess Club

A large number of students were present at the meeting called Saturday for the organization of a university chess club.

The meeting was enthusiastic and perfect a permanent organization. The following officers were elected:

C. W. Rink, president; A. Gordon, secretary, and treasurer, H. A. Naberhaus, referee. The officers, acting as the executive committee, were empowered to draft a constitution and by-laws and formulate a set of club rules.

The club decided to hold its regular meetings in the room in the corner of Close Hall on Saturday of each week. All those desirous of joining the club will be welcome at the next meeting. Members are requested to bring friends and join the meetings.

Senior Girls

Mrs. Carrier Entertains Ce-Eds of 1903

Mrs. A. N. Carrier entertained, Saturday afternoon, the guests being the girls of the senior class of the college of liberal arts.

The afternoon was passed in a guessing contest. Cards bearing figurative representation of the recent events were the subjects for the intellectual work.

The young ladies showed great skill in determining the names and the composition was very keen. Mrs. Arrur and Miss White succeeded in guessing all but two of the forty names. The former was fortunate in the turn of the cards and won the prize, a beautiful Rockwood vase.

Dainty refreshments were served later in the afternoon. Dean Carrier graciously permitted the reception to be held in the college hall, at his presence for a few moments. That afternoon Mrs. Carrier was giving a luncheon to a few friends in honor of Miss Everts.

I League

There will be a meeting of the "I" League tonight at 7 o'clock at Close Hall.

J. T. Duncan, M. '05, was initiated into Phi Rho Sigma Saturday evening.

Dr. Stewart, class of '00, was there with a patient for Professor Guthrie's clinic this morning.

The physical training classes for the freshmen and sophomore girls are not meeting this week.

There has been a question as to the date of the Sophomore Cotillion. It is Friday night, January 30.

Dr. Hill of Des Moines will begin his course of lectures on insanity to the senior medical Thursday morning.

The senior girls' society, the Zetagathian Club, has finished a speech, "My Lady's Ring," a comedy by the same author. The comedy is based on an anonymous story from Temple Bar and cleverly brings in characters of three races, Russian, English and Italian.

Speaks to Engineers

Prof. L. W. Andrews appeared on the program of the Iowa Engineering society at Ames last Thursday. He spoke on the personal observation of the Hesperian system of water supply and purification.

Young ladies of one of the women's dormitories at North-western have been made the victims of persistent thieving during the last few weeks. It is suspected by the police that the work is done by one of their own number.

The engineering department has received from San Francisco an Impulse Water Motor of 12 horse power capacity.

The senior engineers have just finished a speech, T. S. T., which will initiate several new members at Close Hall. It is to be given at 7:30.

Large Audience at St. Brendan's Hall Gives Tribute to Literary Society Program

The Hesperians presented two farces to a large audience at St. Brendan's hall on Saturday evening. Both were received, as they deserved, with convulsion of laughter and round after round of hearty applause. The Hesperians have scored another.

Ten Thouand the cost of admission to the Grand Ball Thursday evening is a part of the revenue and at the same time is a part of the cost of the benefit met with on Saturday evening. The grand band of the school and the Iowa City band are expected to take part in the entertainment.

Catherina M. Mayer, the manager of the Grinnell store, has been on a business trip to Chicago. She is making a special sale of suits, coats, and vests to please the customers.

The Iowa basketball team has met with some success in its games, and the players are working hard to improve their skills. The team is expected to do well in the upcoming tournaments.

Miss Stella Lowman, a senior, who is teaching in a high school in Des Moines, spent Saturday and Sunday in Iowa City.

The ball team may help wipe out the depression of the fall athletics. The interest taken in the work far outstrips the number of men out for winter.”

Two Books--Two Cents
The Burlington Route has just issued two publications of great interest to homeseekers. "Nebraska" is the title of a six-page book descriptive of the agricultural resources of the state, profusely illustrated with farm scenes and supplemented with an accurate sectional map. "Big Horn Basin" is an illustrated folder telling all about the rich but undeveloped portion of Northwestern Wyoming. The Big Horn Basin contains wonderful openings for small ranches along good streams, with a million acres of government land open for settlement under the United States laws. Both publications will be sent to any address on receipt of two cents in stamps. Address J. F. FRANCIS, General Passenger Agent, Burlington Route, Omaha.

Sophomore Cotillion
The Sophomore Cotillion Committee has given the order for decorations into the hands of Mr. Yetter, as he promised a better scheme of decorations and a most lavishing use of materials than any of the other professional decorators.

The list of music has been received from Myers' orchestra includes all of the best and newest pieces, insuring all lovers of music a perfect festival of music unequalled by any of the class parties of preceding years. The decorations will be so arranged as to allow the visitor in the gallery an unobstructed view of the floor. To those who do not dance the balcony affords a dancing lesson equalled only by the dance itself.

Amusements
On next Friday evening, January 30, that charming actress, "Mary Elizabeth Forbes" and her strong supporting company, will appear at the opera house in Clyde Fitch's most enthusiastic play, "Barbara Frietchie," universally described as the most consistent and stirring American war drama ever written, and of which it is said has a record of having played to larger gross receipts than any American play produced during the past ten years.

On Tuesday and Wednesday January 27th and 28th, Miss Katherine Jewell Everts will appear at the opera house in two delightful performances. Those who heard her last year are preparing to hear her again and those who failed to hear her a year ago must not fail to hear her this time. She will give a comedy, "My Lady's Ring" for the first evening and the "Spanish Gypsy" for the second.

The theatre-goer who likes excitement and thrill will have an opportunity to satisfy all his desires in that direction at the opera house next Monday, February 2nd, when Percy Williams' big scene and spectacular production of the New American Comedy melodrama, "Tracy, the Outlaw," will be the attraction. While the play is full of intensely exciting situations, still there is a great amount of pure comedy, strong heart interest and a number of bright specialties, all going to make a play to please all kinds of people.

Those who saw Miss Adelaide Thurst on when she played Lady Bubble in "The Little Minister," several seasons ago, and last year in "Sweet Clover," will remember what a pretty and clever little actress she was. Mr. Colleen has been eagerly awaiting her and her fine company to appear here soon in "A Cozy Corner" which has been making a big hit everywhere they have appeared.

STUDENTS IN THE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

Students in the college of liberal arts who do not wish to pay tuition now and re-register regularly in advance are requested,
in order that registration may be facilitated, to file in the office of the registrar during January a program of their studies for the new winter semester. Cards for this purpose may be obtained at the office. In cases where no change in programs of study is contemplated
students are requested to call and leave notice to that effect.

February 12, in the 13 and 14, preferecence in registration will be given to those who previously arranged programs of study.

Changes in divisions will be allowed only when necessary.

Students will please bear in mind that registration is not completed until tuition is paid; and only when this is certified, is registration in a certain division ac-curred. When word is received that enrolment has regularly registered to make a full division so
one will be allowed thereafter
to register for that section without written permission from the head of the department.

Students who fail in work of the first semester in which beginning classes are offered for the second semester will be required to re-register for the same work.

A record of attendance is kept
from the opening of the semester and though students may not be registered at once they should be regularly in attendance upon classes for which they intend to register.

Programs of second semester
recitations may be obtained either at this office or at the dean's.

Berta Quaintance, Registrar.
