WINS FIRST GAME

BASKETBALL TEAM DEFEATS WILTON BOYS

Score of 68 to 7 Piled Up by the Varsity Against the Team From Wilton College

The varsity basketball team defeated the team from Wilton college in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium on Saturday by the overwhelming score of 68 to 7. Although Wilton put up a plucky, snappy game and did not let up for a minute, the Iowa team was far too strong for them and played the best game of basketball ever seen in Iowa City. The Iowa team was: Captain Ross and Farrell, forwards, Parsons, center and Schenck and Brock, guards. The Iowa team plays several more games this month.

The team starts on a trip the latter part of the week. On Friday a game is to be played in Des Moines with the Y. M. C. A. Another game may also be played while the team is in the capital city. On the way home the team will stop off at Grinnell and give Iowa College a game on Saturday. Both of these games are with good teams and should be close and interesting. Grinnell was defeated by Minnesota by a rather one-sided score due greatly to the disadvantages of playing on a strange field.

MINNESOTA'S GYM

The Scarlet and Black of Grinnell in referring to their game with Minnesota says:

The floor of the basketball grounds was waxed and was as smooth as glass. Grinnell men were not allowed to use rosin on their shoes and were unable to start quickly or stop when they did get started. Minnesota had been provided with shoes especially adapted to the floor and therefore had a great advantage.

This is an old, old story about conditions at Minnesota and shows what the teams must contend with which go there to play basketball.

Cross Country Men

All men who participated in the cross country runs last fall are requested to meet at Smith's armory at 3:00 o'clock p. m. Saturday, January 31, with their running costumes, for a Hawkeye picture. The committee on permanent organization will also report.

Miss Ethelind Swire, L. A. '04 will entertain at cards on Thursday evening in honor of Misses Grace Jackson of Emmetsburg, and Sue Knott of Davenport.

Saturday evening in addition to the regular program of Forum the freshmen of that society held a special debate. This is the second freshman debate, both being preliminary to the class debate with Hammond law senate next semester.

University Chess Club

Quite a large number of students were present at the meeting called Saturday for the organization of a university chess club. The meeting was enthusiastic and perfected a permanent organization. The following officers were elected: C. W. Rink, president, A. C. Gordon, secretary and treasurer, H. A. Naberhuis, referee. The officers, acting as the executive committee, were empowered to draft a constitution and by-laws and formulate a set of club rules.

The club decided to hold its regular meetings in the tower room of Close Hall on Saturday of each week. All those desirous of joining the club will be welcomed at the next meeting. Members are requested to bring men and boards to the meetings.

SENIOR GIRLS

Mrs. Currier Entertains Co-eds of 1903 Liberal Arts

Mrs. A. N. Currier entertained, Saturday afternoon, the guests being the girls of the senior class of the college of liberal arts.

The afternoon was passed in games, among them being a guessing contest. Cards bearing figurative representation of the recent books were the subjects for the intellectual work. The young ladies showed great skill in determining the names and the competition was very keen Mrs. Aurner and Miss Whitely succeeded in guessing all but two of the forty names. The former was fortunate in the turn of the cards and won the prize, a beautiful Rookwood vase.

Dainty refreshments were served later in the afternoon. Dean Currier graced the reception with his presence for a few moments.

This afternoon Mrs. Currier is giving a luncheon to a few friends in honor of Miss Everts.

I League

There will be a meeting of the "I" League tonight at 7 o'clock at Close Hall.

J. T. Duncan, M. '05, was initiated into Phi Rho Sigma Saturday evening.

Dr. Stewart, class of '00, was here with a patient for Professor Guthrie's clinic this morning.

The physical training classes for the freshman and sophomore girls are not meeting this week.

There has been a question as to the date of the Sophomore Cotillion—it is Friday night, January 30.

Dr. Hill of Des Moines will begin his course of lectures on insanity to the senior medics Thursday morning.

The senior girls' society, the W. O. N. T. S., will initiate several new members at Close Hall this evening at 7:30.

HESPERIANS GIVE FARCES

ZETS AID GIRLS IN MAKING LAUGHTER

Large Audience at St. Brendan's Hall Given Treat by Literary Society Program

The Hesperians presented two farces to a large audience at St. Brendan's hall on Saturday evening. Both were received, as they deserved, with convulsion of laughter and round after round of hearty applause. The Heps, with the aid of the Zets, first presented "A Western Breeze" in most entertaining manner. The second feature of the bill was the presentation of "A Pair of Lunatics" by Miss Anna Gay and C. A. Dykstra. They executed the parts nobly. Those who so ably played the parts in the first farce were Messrs. Kern and Bedford and Misses Young, Miles and Preston.

List of Judges

Those who intend to compete in the home oratorical contest met on Saturday and submitted the following list of judges on thought and composition: Rev. Moore, of Davenport; President Shelton, of Simpson; Senator Healy, of Fort Dodge; Editor Perkins, of the Sioux City Journal; Editor Nealy, of the Burlington Hawkeye; Judge Prouty and Lafe Young, of Des Moines. At the meeting next Saturday three of these men will be chosen to judge the orations. It is not definitely known how many will submit orations but a large number of contestants is expected.

Prof. A. A. Veblen left Sunday morning for Minneapolis and St. Paul where he will visit his parents before returning, his mother having suffered a severe injury within the last few days. He is expected back next Thursday. Mr. Lorenz and Mr. Boehm had charge of the elementary physics class this morning.

Speaks to Engineers

Prof. L. W. Andrews appeared on the program of the Iowa Engineering society at Ames last Thursday. He spoke on his personal observation of the Budapest system of water supply and purification.

Young lady inmates of one of the women's dormitories at Northwestern have been made the victims of persistent thieving during the last few weeks. It is suspected by the co-eds that the work is done by one of their own number.

The engineering department has received from San Francisco an Impulse Water Motor of 12 horse power capacity.

The senior engineers have just finished a survey of an extensive timber tract in the northern part of the county.

Total	11,400,000
The Congressional library at Washington contains about 1,000,000 volumes.

OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT

Katherine Jewell Everts Gives Dramatic Readings Tonight and Tomorrow Night

Miss Everts is the last of the series of distinguished readers in the university lecture course. She came here for the first time last year and won a great triumph. It is safe to predict that she will score another.

She brings us an unusual treat in a comedy as yet unpublished and written especially for her. She has already given it several times this season and has been given an enthusiastic welcome. Tonight will be the opportunity to hear this play. Tomorrow evening she will give that marvelous tragedy the "Spanish Gypsy."

The program for tonight is "Her Letters" a monologue by Alice Brown and "My Lady's Ring" a comedy by the same author. The comedy is based on an anonymous story from Temple Bar and cleverly brings in characters of three races, Russian, English and Italian.

Prof. Schurig Here

Prof. F. Schurig, who was in Iowa City last winter and with whom many university people became favorably acquainted, will be here again soon.

Polygon will meet Wednesday evening with Miss Jacobs.

Miss Edith Berge, '06, is pledged to Delta Gamma.

Dr. Puleston, class of '01, is in the city shaking hands with old friends.

Iowa Zeta of Pi Beta Phi has issued invitations for an armory party on February 13.

Miss Loise Brockett, Ex. '05, of Des Moines will arrive in a few days to be the guest of Miss Blanch Spinney.

The Zetagathians entertained the Hesperians at a dancing party at the halls of the Athena Club last night.

We are sorry to see the comment of the Scarlet and Black on the treatment of the Grinnell basketball team at Minneapolis for it shows that a fair test of the strength of the Gophers cannot be made in their own armory. They have every advantage over a team which is used to the ordinary "gym" floor. We hope that when the Iowa team goes to Minneapolis they will go prepared for the waxed dance floor.

It is certainly very encouraging to notice that within the last week the number of men out for winter training has nearly doubled, while the interest taken in the work far exceeds that of the first practice. We hope that another week will bring forth even greater increase in numbers and spirit.

The Iowa basketball team certainly showed on Saturday that it really deserved admission to the athletic union and recognition as a varsity team. The basketball team may help wipe out the bad record of the fall athletics.

Octave Thanet entertained Philo at Close Hall Saturday evening. The time was passed with games and delightful refreshments.

Miss Stella Lowman, L. A. '02, who is teaching in the high school at Tipton, spent Saturday and Sunday in Iowa City.

Sophomore Cotillion

The Sophomore Cotillion Committee has given the order for decorations into the hands of Mr. Yetter, as he promised a better scheme of decorations and a more lavish use of materials than any of the other professional decorators.

The list of music has been received from Myers' orchestra and includes all of the best and newest pieces, insuring all lovers of music a perfect festival of music unequalled by any of the class parties of preceding years.

The decorations will be so arranged as to allow the visitors in the gallery an unobstructed view of the floor. To those who do not dance the balcony affords a dancing lesson equalled only by the dance itself.

Amusements

On next Friday evening, January 30, that charming actress, "Mary Elizabeth Forbes" and her strong supporting company, will appear at the opera house in Clyde Fitch's most enthusiastic play, "Barbara Frietchie," universally described as the most consistent and stirring American war drama ever written, and of which it is said has a record of having played to larger gross receipts than any American play produced during the past ten years.

On Tuesday and Wednesday January 27 and 28, Miss Katherine Jewell Everts will appear at the opera house in two delightful performances. Those who heard her last year are preparing to hear her again and those who failed to hear her a year ago must not fail to hear her this time. She will give a comedy, "My Lady's Ring" for the first evening and the "Spanish Gypsy" for the second.

The theatre-goer who likes excitement and thrill will have an opportunity to satisfy all his desires in that direction at the opera house next Monday, February 2, when Percy Williams' big scenic and spectacular production of the New American Comedy melodrama, "Tracy, the Outlaw," will be the attraction. While the play is full of intensely exciting situations, still there is a great amount of pure comedy, strong heart interest and a number of bright specialties, all going to make a play to please all kinds of people.

Those who saw Miss Adelaide Thurston when she played Lady Babbie in "The Little Minister" several seasons ago, and last year in "Sweet Clover," will remember what a pretty and clever little actress she was. Mr. Coldren has arranged with her and her fine company to appear here soon in "A Cozy Corner" which has been making a big hit everywhere they have appeared.
