BASKETBALL TRIP

VARSITY WINS ONE OF THREE GAMES PLAYED

Grinnell and Des Moines Y. M. C. A. Won From Iowa by Close Scores

Grinnell and Des Moines Y. M. C. A. won the game 24 to 17. In the latter game Ross was the star.

At Grinnell the game was not only close but it was only with great difficulty that either team captured a basket, so fierce was the battle of the guards.

According to the scarlet and black of Grinnell, Ross played the star game for Iowa, scoring the only field basket which the varsity made. His opponent, Cole, was the crack player for Grinnell. During the second half Parsons received a severe cut and was forced to give way to Stover.

The score was 6 to 3 in favor of Iowa College. The local team entered two field and three foul baskets, while the varsity scored one field and three foul baskets.

The score was: Ross 1; Fillmore 0; Farrell 1; B. Wilson 0; Parsons 0; Clark 0; Nisler 0; Brock 0; Cole 0; Scheneck 0; G. Wilson 0.

EXTRAS

Empire Roy Carter of Muscatine and Iowa and Grinnell will meet again on Saturday afternoon at the university Y. M. C. A. This game will be a good one, an Iowa is looking for revenge.

Mrs. Fred C. McCutchen

Mrs. Fred C. McCutchen, the young wife of the former manager of the Iowa, was present at the day morning at Fort Dodge. She had been in poor health for several years.

The entire student body and faculty will join with the Iowans in expressing the most sincere regret of the misfortune and heartfelt sympathy for manager McCutchen in his bereavement.

ATHLETIC BALL MUSIC

Committee Selects List of Pieces to be Played at the Ball

The following is the list of music which will be rendered at the athletic ball by Meyer's full orchestra. The dances are not arranged in the order in which they will be played.

The committee are determined to avoid the unreasonable delay which so often occurs in the starting of the grand march and request everyone to be present at nine o'clock. To do this it will be necessary to give hack orders for early hours. The committee are determined not to allow anyone to join after the grand march and grand march will be held after nine o'clock.

DEAN ON WASHINGTON

Gregory Speaks before Daughters of American Revolution and Other Societies

Dean Gregory addressed the Daughters of American Revolution and their invited guests, the members of the other patriotic societies at the home of Mrs. Arthur Cox on Sunday evening.

The subject of the address was "The Unconventional Washington," and dealt with the little known side of the character of the Father of His Country.

Dean Gregory also compared the efforts of Cromwell and Napoleon with those of Washington in founding an enduring empire. Prof. Gregory spoke entirely without notes and kept the keen attention of his audience for an hour.

The Class Play
We learn on good authority that the senior class, in rejecting the report of the play committee, did so because of the play chosen and was in no way influenced by the more personal phase of the question—the cast picked to present it.

The cast was undoubtedly chosen carefully and with the best advice of the department of public speaking and probably comprised the greater part of the theatrical talent of the senior class. Were a play to be presented the persons chosen for the several parts were as well fitted to present them as any in the University.

We hope those who were to have had parts in the "Merchant of Venice" will not take the matter personally and be willing to help to the best of their ability in whatever play may be chosen for presentation in June. We are certain that the entire class will now pull together and present a creditable play in spite of this temporary discord.

In the Daily Iowan, of January 21st, is an article showing wherein so many waste their fresh man year by not entering immediately into the society life and becoming interested in the literary and business life of the school. Be anxious for the first opportunity. Then you stand a better chance of making your mark among your fellow students.

—Drake Delphic.

Two Books—Two Cents

The Burlington Route has just issued two publications of great interest to homeseekers. "Nebraska" is the title of a 48-page book descriptive of the great natural resources of the state, profusely illustrated with farm scenes and supplemented with an accurate sectional map. "Big Horn Basin" is an illustrated folder telling all about the rich but undeveloped portion of Northwestern Wyoming. The Big Horn Basin contains wonderful openings for small ranches along good streams, with a million acres of government land open for settlement under the United States land laws.

Both publications will be sent to any address on receipt of two cents in stamps. Address J. Francis, General Passenger Agent, Burlington Route, Omaha.

THE DAILY IOWAN

Oldest College Daily
The Yale Daily News is the oldest college daily. It started in 1878 and was followed in 1879 by Harvard Echo, which was afterward consolidated with the Harvard Crimson under the latter's name. The Cornell Daily Sun was the third college daily, appearing in 1880. The Pennsylvania student was organized in 1876, but did not become a daily for several years. The Pennsylvaniaian started as a weekly in 1885 and became a daily a few years later. Brown University was the next to have a daily as the Brown Herald (originated in 1891).

President MacLean has been asked to serve as a judge on the Iowa Intercollegiate Oratorical association. Delivery is his strong point. The contest will be held in Oskaloosa, on the 2d.

Amusements

Deadwood Dick, the romantic western play, is a thrilling melodrama containing features never before introduced on the stage. Comedy specialties are also a feature. The work of Company B in Fort Meade is very instructive. This exciting production will be presented at the Opera House next Thursday, February 12.

The Cast includes Frank Goldeck, Ned Risler, the Author, Emmett Lanson, Fred Tudor, Mary Tudor, Kohima Williams, and twenty others.

The attractions will be presented at the Opera House on or next Thursday, Feb. 12th.
