SUBSCRIPTIONS COMING IN EIGHT HUNDRED DOLLAR MEN SECURED

Classes will soon be asked to subscribe—Canvassers in each class provided with lists

From the way in which the matter is being taken hold of at its outset, subscriptions sufficient to pay off a good share of the $5,000 seem assured. Every one so far approached has shown a desire to give what he could to the fund. Every one has said that by some figuring he would be able to give something and has endeavored to make that something as large as he could afford.

Subscription blanks are being circulated in the classes of the various colleges today. Each canvasser has a list of about twenty names whom he will solicit to subscribe for the fund.

Lists will be circulated soon among the faculties and townspeople. These have evinced a disposition to do their part toward the deficit. It is desired to obtain a large subscription from among the students before beginning further subscriptions to any great extent, since much of the success of the whole convass will depend upon whether the students show that they are interested in having track teams and football teams in the future, or whether they are ready to have no more athletics.

SOME SUBSCRIPTIONS

Among the subscriptions received so far to the fund are the following:

G. E. MacLean	$100.
J. R. Guthrie	$100.
E. A. Wilcox	$100.
W. R. Whiteis	$100.
R. A. Cook	$100.

Three other subscriptions have also been received, each for $100, but the Iowan has been unable to obtain the names of the subscribers. The Iowan will publish further subscriptions from time to time.

THE WAY AT GRINNELL

"I expect every student will give willingly to the debt subscription," said an old Grinnell student now attending Iowa who has put his name down for a good subscription, this morning. If it's anything like it is at Grinnell, the fellows who are working hard to earn their way through college will be just the ones who give the most to the subscription. Every body wants to do his part for the college and I guess that's what is in the air here too."

No Work Saturdays

The plan of having short holidays at the end of each quarter and holding classes on Saturday to make up, has been abandoned. In the calendar for next year no Saturday work appears and the only holidays are one day at Thanksgiving, two weeks at Christmas and the legal holidays on February 22 and May 30. There is no intermission at the end of the semester.

ZET SLATE BROKEN ONCE

STIRRING JUNIOR ANNUAL ELECTION OF CLASS OF 1905

Zetagathians and their Allies Elect Entire Slate, Save for Literary Editor, Miss Ella Waterbury

The "Zet Slate" triumphed over the "Irving and frat slate" by large majorities yesterday in the junior annual election of the class of '05.

Two printed slips contained the hopes of the Irvings and Zets. Two slates were all there were. Two candidates for one office. No dark horses, no one not passed upon and approved by one of the two machines. And but one man was approved by both factions. Dwight Griffith, football hero, found favored in the eyes of both Zets and Irvings and was played up as a drawing card by the missionaries of both camps.

ZETS NINE AHEAD

Skelly, 62, McAuliff, 53, was the result of the first measuring of strength on the head of the ticket. After this victory by nine votes, the Zetagathian cheers continue throughout the voting, sometimes roused to higher pitch as the South Hall ticket received an endorsement of thirty majority, at others enthusiastic over a victory by one vote. The Irvings died game, losing the last ballot by only two more than they lost the first.

VICTORY FOR THE DEFEATED

Only once were the cohorts of the sockless Zets defeated. Miss Ella Waterbury was the one person on the Irving slate to be elected. Her popularity triumphed over the handicap of her adherents and drew the victory over Miss Nichols by three votes for the third position on the list of honors literary editor. And herewith is connected a warning to future slate-makers. Always have the names of your nominees spelled correctly. Miss Nichols appeared on the Zet slate as Miss Nicholson and herein many workers see their defeat in that many of the floating voters did not recognize Miss Nichols under this name.

THE EDITORS ELECTED

The editors elected, with the votes received, are as follows:

Editor-in-chief, S. E. Skelley, of DeWitt, 62 votes, over Leslie McAuliff, 53 votes.

Business manager—H. C.

Danielson, Lamoni, 61, over B. S. Allen, 49.

Literary editor—Ella Waterbury, Iowa City, 59, over Ethel Nichols, 56.

Art editor—H. R. Morris, Denison, 67, over M. B. Call, 48.

Civics editor—W. C. Stoops, West Liberty, 65, over Max Whitacre, 47.

Athletic editor—Dwight Griffith, Iowa City, named by acclamation.

Alumni editor—Mae Soesbe, Greene, 59, over Edna Boerner, 50.

Humorous editor—D. G. Miller, Guthrie Center, 65, over Marie Lynch, 56.

Department editor—W. C. Wright, Tipton, 70, over E. F. Hennessy, 40.

Military editor—F. E. Snedicor, Cherokee, 63, over E. C. Barrett, 52.

Grinnell Tomorrow

The basket ball team will play Grinnell at Close Hall tomorrow afternoon at 3:30. On account of Grinnell's previous victory by a score of 6 to 5, there is a great deal of interest in the game.

The line-up will be:

Iowa—forwards, Ross and Farrell; center, Parsons; guards, Schenck and Brock.

Grinnell—Forwards, Fillmore and Wiider; center, Clark; guards Wilson and Wilson.

College Men Meet

Representatives of the associated Iowa Colleges are meeting in the faculty room, liberal arts hall today. They constitute the committee of the college section of the state teachers' association on secondary schools.

Tomorrow a committee from the secondary schools will meet with this committee in joint conference.

Indo-European Languages

Prof. Potter spoke in the auditorium last night upon the subject of "The Indo-European Family of Languages." The lecture was a discussion of the historical development of the European languages; and their relation to the Asiatic languages.

The senior play committee, who resigned; and whose resignation the class accepted with readiness, have been reappointed by President Greene.

ANN ARBOR CONFERENCE

SCHOOL OF COMMERCE AND BUSINESS

Prof. Loos in Attendance—Many Practical and Vital Questions Discussed

The convention of educators and business men held last week in Ann Arbor at which Prof. I. A. Loos of the department of economics was in attendance, marks a great advancement in this branch of collegiate education.

There were present not only such men as Professor W. A. Scott, director of the School of Commerce, University of Wisconsin, Dr. George M. Fisk of the School of Commerce, of Illinois, Dr. Hatfield of that of Chicago, Professor Loos and other educators of the northwest, but also a contingent from the east. Harvard and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology were represented.

Such topics were discussed as the need of commercial education in the college course and its efficiency as a culture give.

President Hill said that the college man was made unfit for business and lived in a mist as far as commerce was concerned. But it was shown that college men took leading places in the world of commerce. As regards the place of a commercial education in a university course, it seems to be the consensus of opinion that it should not be specialized upon till the third and fourth years. Even the Wisconsin School of Commerce which matriculates freshmen and sophomores into its courses only allows them to take part in their work in commercial lines; only enough in fact to keep them in touch with the work.

Discussion was also extensively engaged in, upon the effect of the commercial branches upon the general culture of the student. It is advanced that while the school of commerce did not disparage the studying of the dead languages, yet the demand was more and more for more modern, and practical courses. The development of the school of commerce follows the course which the school of engineering took and also those of mining. In the end the schools of commerce bid fair to occupy the same important and distinctive place in our educational system as the former named technical schools do now. It is also possible for a student to obtain genuine culture in a technical school such as any of these.

Prof. Loos who attended and participated in this conference and who is director of the Iowa school of political and social science, will report to the university body on the work of the convention. This report will take the form of a university lecture and will be given in the auditorium on Tuesday, February 24, at 7:00 p. m.

For sweet charity—The Athletic Ball.

Opportunity For Loyalty

A call is being made upon every Iowan to rally to the support of athletics. For the first time in five years the student body is asked to contribute to the athletic fund. Keep in mind that what is dearest to us next to the university, is threatened. Reflect that, if though our pusillanimity in this matter, we are unable to have teams this spring, that if we should again attempt to enter the field, Iowa would be handicapped by thus dropping out. You, who think some things could have been done better in athletic management, consider that a debt rests upon Iowa which it is dishonor to longer postpone, and that the way to improve things is by paying this off. Every Iowan has now the opportunity to show his loyalty and love for the varsity by making a sacrifice for her.

The Scimiter and Fez has come to life. It will be gladly welcomed in senior circles. A permanent senior society can be of much use as well as pleasure. Last year's class started it. It rests with this class to perpetuate it. That it be made permanent is the main desideratum. Let the details take care of themselves until the necessary time.

W. K. Herrick L. '04, lost his Masonic charm. He inserted a notice of the fact in the Iowan Tuesday. Wednesday afternoon Mr. Ries of the Iowa Book store having read the "ad" brought in the charm. Mr. Herrick is now possessed of his charm and of the knowledge that advertising in the Iowan pays.

Amusements

The Elmira Telegram, speaking of Adelaide Thurston, who will appear here at the opera house, Saturday night, February 14, is quoted as follows: "The stage does not contain a more lovable character or a more gifted ingenue than sweet little Adelaide Thurston. Those who witnessed Miss Thurston's superb portrayal, and they numbered nearly 2,000 people at both performances, were not only attracted to her by her admirable acting, but her sweet unaffected charm of manner as well."

"Foxy Grandpa" will be one of the high class attractions which William A. Brady offers to Iowa City patrons next Monday. The scenery and costumes will be entirely new for the engagement next week. The inimitable "Foxy Grandpa" sketches appeal to the keen humorous appreciation of children and their elders. The stage version is a gay mosaic of funny situations, catchy music and brilliant stage effects.

The attraction at the opera house on next Wednesday will be one of the most successful romantic dramas, "The Power Behind the Throne," with Miss Katherine Willard in the star part of "Aria." Miss Willard has a strong supporting company of twenty-five carefully selected artists, of which Wright Lorimer is the leading man.

THE CAPITAL CITY COMMERCIAL COLLEGE
r. M. C. A. Building, Des Moines, Iowa
IS the largest and most successful commercial school in the west. Nearly one thousand students attend it each year. There are sixteen members in the faculty. The school has a national reputation and is everywhere regarded as a leader among business training schools. It occupies a position among institutions of this character similar to that of Princeton, Harvard and Yale among the leading colleges and universities. It has become famous throughout the western states by reason of the thorough work it is doing in the way of fitting young men and women for active commercial pursuits. Hundreds of our graduates are today occupying responsible positions in the principal cities and towns of the west. Call for our elegant new catalogue. It contains detailed information relative to the work of the various departments. Address, W. H. McCauley, Pres., Des Moines, Ia.
