ELDER DAUGHTERS

ORGANIZATION HOLDS ANNUAL WINTER PICNIC

Meeting of Popular Alumni Society was held at Mrs. Minor Muns home.

The annual winter picnic of the Elder Daughters of the university was held yesterday at the home of the president of the society, Mrs. Milton Remley of Davenport street. The session was purely social and was one of the most pleasant gatherings of the season. The time was set at 11 o'clock and at 12 a picnic dinner was served.

The society of Elder Daughters of the university was organized in the fall of 1900 and the first meeting was held at Minnehaha hotel. The organization at first, men were present, but out of 150 alumni soon applied for admission and now the society, the popularity of which is ever increasing, includes alumni from all over the country.

Unlike the 6. A. R., the society, its membership increases annual and each year is different. To become an Elder Daughter one must have been a student of Iowa University thirty years prior to current date. This year the class of 1873 is ad-mited to membership. The soicity at present has about sixty members, whose object is, to keep ever green the memories of the Old University. The annual meeting is the source of greatest pleasure, to the members, and the tales of the pranks of the students of the 60's and 70's afford much amusement.

The present officers of the society are Mrs. Milton Remley, president; Mrs. Adeline Hershaw, vice-president; Mrs. Kate Rogers, treasurer Miss Dodder, recording secretary; Mrs. Jennie Williams Hardy, custodian. These officers, with Mrs. W. J. Haddick, form the executive committee.

COLONIAL PARTY MONDAY NIGHT

Senior Girls Society Receives the Men of '03 as its Guests in Olden Days

The W. O. N. T. S. entertained the men of the senior class at a very enjoyable colonial social in the halls of the literary societies Monday evening. Each man was presented with a photograph of himself mounted upon a body supposed to characterize him, as in the eyes of the co-eds. The favors were candy hatchets, appropriate to the day.

The halls were beautifully dec-nored in the colonial style and varity colors and the splendor of the scene was much enchanted by the gorgeous colonial costumes worn by the young ladies. The evening passed quickly amid gaiety and laughter, many amusing games being entered into heartily by all. Sumptuous refreshments were served later in the evening.

C. T. Kemmerer, during the evening, happened in solution of the meaning of the mystic letters, W. O. N. T. S.: "We own no tender sweethearts."

Amusements

The Christian, Hall Caine's famous play, is strong and most notable and lasting successes given to the public of recent years, and in the forthcoming presentation at the opera house on next Thursday night. Liebler and company the original producers offer an excellent cast, together with fine stage settings and detail of perfection which has characterized the former engagements and the occasion is one that will doubtless prove of more than usual interest to our theatre goers.
