IOWA'S CONTESTANT

SKETCH OF IOWA'S ORATOR FOR THE N.O.L. CONTEST

Michigan and Northwestern Have also Picked their Men—Contest to be a Close One Edwin Joseph Shannahan, who on St. Patrick's night, won the honors in the oratorical contest, and thereby the right to represent Iowa at the N.O.L. contest, was born in Muscatine, Iowa in 1881. His parents soon moved to Chicago, where he graduated from the high school, and entered the College of Liberal Arts in 1899.

In 1902, he represented the Zetagathian Literary and the Newman society for a filing case. He has just received a bachelor of science degree from Princeton University, for which he was graduated in 1904. His parents soon moved to Muscatine, Iowa, where he was educated.

In 1910, he entered the University of Michigan, where he has spent considerable time on the late platform. His delivery was an adornment of the orators fire, which promises to make him a leader of the colored people of the country, as he is now a leader of the colored students here.

JUDGE WADE INVENTOR

Ex-Judge Farmor Law Professor and

Low Democrat Congressman from

Iowa a Rival of Edison

Few people but his intimate friends, know that Judge Wade is an inventor. Several months ago he was awarded a patent at the International Fair of Chicago for a filing case. He has just received a patent in France, for a filing case, which gives him the English rights. The case has been favorably received everywhere.

The device is undoubtedly one of the best of its kind yet invented. It is very neat, simple, convenient and complete, and altogether superior to the useable cases produced everywhere.

The condition of the athletic department of the school at present is such as could be desired by the Iowa at noon was:

The athletic fund is growing steadily. The efforts of every student, alumna, professor and the friends of the university united toward the raising of the fund will accomplish it by the end of the week.

The solicitors are asked to see all the students on their lists this week. The meeting of solicitors to make a final report on the amounts subscribed will be Saturday evening.

Phil Beta Kappa

The faculty committee on Phi Beta Kappa report the following fourteen from the senior college class as elected to the society.

M. Nellie Stewart Arntz, James Guest Berryhill, Jr., Mary Louise Eddy, Frances Maud Gardner, Carolyn Belle Jarvis, Robert D. Kirch, Eleanor McLaughlin, Helen Louise Morrison, Julia Rachel Padmore, Juliette Pierce, Mayeier Quigley, Evelyn Louisa Rall, Katherine May Switzer and Gladys Call Whaley.

Word has been received in the city that the report of Miss Libbie Lodwick's illness is false. She has returned from her trip to the sick of newspaper notoriety, and nothing else.

Asst. Prof. Cadly will deliver a lecture in Geneseo, Illinois, on Friday evening, March 27. His subject will be "Perils of Prosperity."
and suggesting freshmen for a novel varsity pin. The amount of this may stop the jewelers selling long intervals the barbed wire will give.

There is no charity in buying the Women’s Edition. While the profits, if any, go to the Y. W. C. A., you will more than get your money’s worth.

Iowa expects much of her orator. She will receive his best. Few of her contestants have been more enthusiastic, or better fighters.

And now the famous state’s attorney, who prosecuted Harriet, is to blossom out as a minstrel; and to run in opposition to Hi Henry.

Meanwhile do not forget the athletic subscription paper. The debt is yours.

Buy a copy of the Women’s Edition and send to your mother, sister, or sweetheart.

W. J. McDonald, L. ’01, is a candidate for city solicitor of Iowa City on the Democratic ticket. Mr. McDonald is a member of the firm of Ewing and McDonald, and has made many able appearances in court.

Full dress suits made to order; silk lined, at $40. perfection in fit and style guaranteed. Bloom & Mayer.

We are making full dress suit; silk lined throughout at $40. Bloom & Mayer.

CALENDAR FOR THE WEEK.
March 25—Lecture by Prof. Paul Shorey, Auditorium, 8:30 P.M.
March 30—Lecture, Miss Harriet Wood, Auditorium.

At last the senior class have adopted the I pin. We hope succeeding classes will do the same with less wrangling. It is one more link towards the establishing of the permanent senior pin. It may stop the jewelers selling their left-over senior pins to unsuspecting freshmen for a novel varsity pin. The amount of this abuse in recent years has been hard for the grads to bear.

The value of Senator Allison’s gift is not measured in dollars and cents, but in the pleasure it will give. It is something for all, for not for any college, or department. Those, who have seen at long intervals the barbed wire fence and the black palings disappear, can appreciate this rapid stride. But in this attempt for beauty, there can be no place for those foot-paths from the dental building.

At the last regular business meeting, Miss Nellie A. Chase and Mr. G. H. Conlin hard were elected to membership on the Iowa Board. The staff is undoubtedly strengthened by this addition to its membership.

Few would take jovial Judge Wade for an inventor. He lacks the dreamy far-away look. Besides he is too much alive, and living in the present.

Michigan believes that a black skin and brains can go together. If Iowa should lose, we know of no one to whom we would rather lose than Maxwell of Michigan.
