UNTRIED CANDIDATES GIVEN A CHANCE

ROCK ISLAND RUNS UP A BIG SCORE

The Fire Literary Societies Form a Permanent Organization and Make a Schedule—Trophy to be Given

The annual meeting of the Athleti-ec Union was held in the north-west room of the old capitol last evening. The meeting was called to order at 7:30. The treasurer of the Athletic ball committee reported that the debt solicitors had drawn the funds in his hands for traveling expenses, as authorized by resolution of the Union at the previous meeting. Detailed accounts of which were submitted. The athletic debt subscription committee reported on the progress of the subscription drive, and a total of $481.50 had been pledged. It was moved, seconded and carried that a committee of the Athletic Union be appointed to audit the books of the debt commit-tee. The committee of the Union on relations with secondary schools reported on the work they were doing.

An amendment to the constitu­tion of the Athletic Union providing for life membership was presented to those who donate $100 to the treasury of the union was pro­posed.

MAY BREAKFAST

The annual May morning breakfast of the W. V. C. A. will be held this year May 2. It will probably be held in the parlors of the Presbyterian church. Each of the girls' literary societies will have a table. ErolphiAnn will be presided over by Carolyn Call; Anna Gay will have charge of the Hesperian; and Margaret Pratt of the Octave Thane. There will also be a sorority table under the care of Ethel Elliot; and a faculty table, superintended by Madal Smith. The decoration and ar-rangement is a secret, but some-thing novel is promised.

The breakfast will be served from 6 to 9. The menu so far as arranged will be: fruit, cream of wheat, beet steak and creamed po-tatoes, waffles, coffee and pick­les. Candles will also be sold.

Pittsburg's Great University

Pittsburg is to have a great university that will rival the big colleges and universities of the country. For its endowment, it is said, the millions of Carnegie, hischew and twenty other wealthy Pittsburgers are pledged. At a private luncheon in honor of a number of educator Pittsburg in connection with the Inte-rcontinental Kindergarten of this city, the announcement was made by Prof. A. J. Bradbeer, who stated that Mr. Carnegie has pledged himself to give liberally to the project, but desired that Mrs. Mac­Lean on their next Tuesday evening.

The senior medics both regular, and homoeopathic are to be receive­d by Prof. Mrs. Asley will en­tertain the English club tomorrow evening.

A half tone of the ladies' draw­ing room at Iowa is to grace the forthcoming California editor's edition of the Daily Palo Alto.

Andrew Carnegie's offer to pay for new first edition of the plant has been accepted by the plant. The cost will be $11,000.

Ignorance or Malice?
The University of Minnesota Daily in last Saturday's issue printed an article claiming that "through a revision of the markings" their contestant Thomas Schmitt had been given first place in the Northern Oratorical contest last year in Chicago. Such a statement unfounded in fact or fancy, makes all who have regard for truth and honor blush with shame. Professor S. H. Clark who holds the chair of public speaking at the University of Chicago indignantly denies any knowledge of the matter. Ed- win K. Brown of the University of Iowa who won the contest in Chicago, was announced as winner by the officers of the league, and awarded the prize, and to the University that shared in the glory of his victory, such a statement is a matter of annoyance only.

We hope the inter-society baseball league may prove a success. It is such organizations as this that tend to widen the scope of athletics, to make it available for all. Besides this, it tends to draw the societies together for the good of all. More it will be a training school for variety men.

The May morning breakfasts of the Y.W.C.A. have always been a success. Coupling with this the fact, that everything the Y.W. has attempted this year has proven a success, we scarcely know what to predict for this year's breakfast.

The smoke of battle has blown away, and the class of 1903 have once more agreed upon a proposition—the class memorial. We only hope that time will stamp with equal approval this act as compared with the past acts of the class.

There are more winners in the N. O. L. now than there will be after the judges hand in their decision May 1.

As sure as spring are marbles and baseball.

The co-eds of Leland Stanford, and Northwestern have both recently issued women's editions. Minnesota has adopted a combined six year medical and liberal arts courses.

Two Books--Two Cents
THE Burlington Route has just issued two publications of great interest to homesekers.

“Nebraska” is the title of a 38-page book descriptive of the agricultural resources of the state, profusely illustrated with farm scenes and supplemented with an accurate sectional map.

“Big Horn Basin” is an illustrated folder telling all about the rich but undeveloped portion of Northwestern Wyoming. The Big Horn Basin contains wonderful developments for small ranches along good streams, with a million acres of government land open for settlement under the United States land laws.

Both publications will be sent to any address on receipt of two cents in stamps. Address J. FRANCIS, General Passenger Agent, Burlington Route, Omaha.

The Cabaret

THE IOWDEN PRIZE

An examination for the Lowden Mathematical prize will be held on Saturday, May 30, 1903, from 9:00 to 12:00 a.m., in room 116, hall of Liberal arts.

Competition is open to all students who are finishing with the current year, the sophomore work in pure mathematics. The prize of fifty dollars ($50.00) may be divided equally between not more than two candidates, or may be withheld if it shall appear that the work of no candidate is of a superior order of merit. The subjects to be covered by the examination are Algebra, Geometry, Plane Trigonometry, Analytical Geometry of two dimensions, Differential and Integral Calculus.

The members of the committee charged with the award are Professors Weld, Veblen and Sims, ex officio, Mr. Lorentz and Mr. Mitchell. The questions submitted in previous examinations will be found upon the bulletin board in the mathematical library.

Those intending to compete are requested to submit their names to Professor Weld at an early date.
