The imprint is by a four-color, designed title page. This is followed by four pages of "book reviews" which are roasts on both faculty and student. Then follows the prize story illustrated with wash drawings. In the magazine will be found the literary, humorous, and the materials of the professional departments. An interesting new feature will be found in the "Iowa Alphabet." The alphabet is a poem, illustrating each letter with silhouettes showing the various phases of university life so far as the letters of the alphabet reach. Among the other features of the annual, the students in the magazine are several full page designs, "in the students eye," a novel write up of the Freshman-sophomore game. The 1904 Hawkeye Board have put forth their best efforts to bring in a picked team and public a publication which will be a credit to their class and they have done their best to perform well that trust which was placed in them by the class of 1904.

Baseball Team of 1905 Did Not Lose in Two Years

Most students of the university think varsity athletics are of modern origin and would be surprised to be told that the University of Iowa had a ball team in 1875 and a great team at that. The facts on which the following account of this first varsity baseball team is based were given the writer by Mr. H. W. Merrill of Ottumwa.

Iowa loses by costly error

Iowa lost to U. I. U. yesterday in a game played at Cedar Rapids by a score of 30 to 10.

After the first inning neither side was able to score. After the first inning Upper Iowa did not get credit for a base hit nor was she able to advance a base runner beyond first. Four hits and a costly error account for the three tallies which won the game in its commencement. The next batter put a nice one and singled. Another single followed filling first and second. A swift one came at Van de Walle's bat and meeting no resistance continued out into right field filling the bases. The next batter singled, bringing in two runs. A fly-out followed and another hit to second and third was scored.

The third out was made at first base. After this inning Miss Van de Walle settled down and pitched winning ball not allowing the Catholics a base hit.

Upper Iowa was fortunate in getting her pitcher this year. His name is Van de Walle and the Hawkeye only got two safe hits during the nine innings. In the sixth Adams Marreied arrived at a base where he died which was the nearest to scoring any of Johnnie Vos' followers came. The game was one of the best and the fastest the varsity aggregation professional bringing in two runs. A fly-out short stop, Arthur Chaffin left field, Louis Lyon center field and Ed Keating right field.

Of these men several are still well known and remembered at the university, notably Louise Lyon of Iowa City, secretary of the Puritas Masonic Co. and Charles Finckbine and Ed Finckbine then of Iowa City but now of the Green Bay Lumber Co. of Des Moines. James Clark is now in Stouer City in the employ of one of the packing plants there, and Ed McIntyre resides at Colorado Springs, Col.

Judges of Sophomores Debate Give Decision to Zetagathians

In the sophomore debate last evening in the liberal arts hall, between the representatives of the Irving and Zetagathian societies, the former went down in hard contested defeat, the Zetagathian debaters gaining the unanimous decision of the judges.

Irving advocated the affirmative of the question, "Resolved that the railway freight rates of the United States should be fixed by Federal authority." The argument was fairly well presented on the other side, Irvine however devoting too little time to the practicability of the measures.

SUMMER SESSION

All students in the college of liberal arts who find it necessary or desirable to shorten the time for completing their course in the interest of an entrance upon professional careers, or for other reasons, or who must do extra work to graduate with their class, are advised and strongly urged to take advantage of the summer session for this purpose. There is reason to believe that the faculty will in the future, more narrowly restrict the allowance of extra hours, especially in view of the opportunities offered by the summer session.
