HAWKEYE HAS MANY NEW FEATURES

MAGAZINE CONTAINS HUMOR

Review of 1904 Hawkeye—Handsome Cover and Clever Art Work adds to Appearance of New Annual

The much-talked-about and anxiously-awaited Junior Annual will be given to the public next Tuesday. The sale will commence at 8:00 a. m. in room 14-A in the basement of liberal arts hall.

The shape and size of this year's annual is the same as that of last year except that it has a flat back. The number of pages is 340, an increase of twenty over the '03 annual, making it the largest book ever published in the university. The paper is white enamel and is somewhat heavier than what has been previously used. The book is bound in a dark green cloth with a design of the old capitol building on the front cover.

The frontis-piece is a half tone cut of the liberal arts building, followed by the Hawkeye title page, a wash drawing.

The book is dedicated to the UNIVERSITY GYMNASIUM. In the effort to find some building to meet this requirement it was found necessary to accept the track headquarters, located directly east of the athletic field.

Following the prologue is a full page memorial design in memory of Dean Middleton.

After the faculty list, through which are placed cuts of president, deans, and pen drawings characteristic of university life, is the section of oratory and debate. A fitting write-up is given to E. K. Brown, winner of the Northern Oratorical Contest, which is followed by full page cuts of the various forensic societies. It has been the aim of the board to make the entire book of more interest to the professional student. Therefore there has been a very radical change made in the arrangement of their material. Instead of having a 'separate annual' for each department, the poetry and humor of the professional college editors has all been placed together in the "magazine" alongside of that material heretofore placed under the heads of the literary and humorous departments.

The junior pictures are arranged in a very artistic manner. There are five on a page being mounted on a wash design. These designs are not the same all the way through but vary, thus breaking the monotony which has more or less characterized past publications in this respect. The constant aim of the board was to better their book by an increase in the number of illustrations and in this respect they seem to have been successful. "Besides the usual number of society groups the "Hawkeye Magazine" will be found to be very handsomely illustrated. The half tone groups are, as a rule, larger than last year. The drawings as a whole are unusually good. The art department was under the able supervision of L. B. Green who has made it a great success. The engraving was done by an Iowa firm, the Star Engraving Co. of Des Moines and has proved to be very satisfactory.

The bulk of the reading material of the book is incorporated under the head of the "Hawkeye Magazine" and is undoubtedly the newest and best feature of the annual. The magazine is gotten up in true magazine form and contains 112 pages.

It is introduced by a four-colored, designed title page. This is followed by four pages of "book reviews" which are roasts on both faculty and student. Then follows the prize story illustrated with wash drawings. In the magazine will be found the literary, humorous and the material of the professional departments. An interesting new feature will be found in the "Iowa Alphabet." The alphabet is a poem, illustrating each and every letter with silhouettes showing the various phases of university life so far as the letters of the alphabet will reach. Among the other features of interest found in the magazine are several full page designs, "In

WAS A GREAT BALL TEAM

Baseball Team of 1874-5 Did Not Lose in Two Years

Most students of the university think varsity athletics are of modern origin and would be surprised to be told that the university of Iowa had a ball team in 1875 and a great team at that. The facts on which the following account of this first varsity baseball team is based were given the writer by Mr. H. W. Merrill of Ottumwa.

After subjecting cheerfully to a good-sized touch for the athletic debt Mr. Merrill asked "What's the matter with your ball teams up there?" and receiving the reply that they did pretty well he said "There has never been a team since, like the teams of 1874 and 75. We did not lose a game in the two seasons and we played all comers including the St. Louis Reds and a picked team Captain Anson brought out to Iowa City from Chicago."

This team which was for two seasons by all odds the fastest baseball aggregation professional or amateur in the west if not in the country was first organized in the spring of 1874. Fred Sawyer of Iowa City was pitcher and he had a reputation alone which was

IOWA LOSES BY COSTLY ERROR

SCORE U. I. U. 3-IOWA 0

Three Runs in the First Completed the Scoring—Total of Six Hits in Game

Iowa lost to U.I.U. yesterday in a game played at Fayette by a score of 3 to 0.

After the first inning neither side was able to score. After the first inning Upper Iowa did not get credit for a base hit nor was she able to advance a base runner beyond first. Four hits and a costly error account for the three tallies which won the game in its commencement. The first man up was thrown out at first by Cretzmeyer. The next batter picked a nice one and singled. Another single followed filling first and second. A swift one came at Van de Steeg next and meeting no resistance continued out into right field filling the bases. The next batter singled bringing in two runs. A fly-out followed and another hit scored the third runner.

The third out was made at first base. After this inning Critzmeyer settled down and pitched winning ball not allowing the Methodists a safe hit.

Upper Iowa was fortunate in getting her pitcher this year. His name is Coates and the Hawkeyes only got two safe hits during the nine innings. In the sixth Adams arrived at second base where he died which was the nearest to scoring any of Johnnie Vos' followers came. The game was one of the best and fastest the varsity has put up this year and was lost in the same fatal first that lost the Luther game. It was played through in the remarkably short time of one hour and twenty-five minutes.

The score:

Judges of Sophomore Debate Give Decision to Zetagathians

In the sophomore debate last evening in the liberal arts hall, between the representatives of the Irving and Zetagathian societies, the former went down in hard contested defeat, the Zetagathian debaters gaining the unanimous decision of the judges.

Irving advocated the affirmative and Zetagathian the negative of the question, "Resolved that the railway freight rates of the United States should be fixed by Federal authority." The argument was fairly well brought out by either side, Irving however devoting too little time to the practicability of the meas-

President and Mrs. MacLean will receive the senior laws next Monday evening at their home on College hill.

Tomorrow Zets and Hammond Law Senate will play the second game of the Inter-society series at Iowa field.

The meeting of the sophomore class which was called for Wednesday did not materialize, not a sufficient number being present to constitute a quorum. The class intends to give a social in the near future.

almost as good as a victory. H. W. Merrill of Ottumwa was at the receiving end of the battery and in those days it was not every man who would stand up and take em off the bat without mask or chest protector. But this Merrill did for two seasons in the course of which he was twice knocked senseless by foul tips. The other members of the team were James Clark, first base, Charles Finckbine second base, Ed Finckbine third base, Ed McIntyre short stop, Arthur Chalfant left field, Louis Lyon center field and Ed Keating right field.

Of these men several are still well known and remembered at the university, notably Louis Lyon of Iowa City, secretary of the Puritan Manufacturing Co. and Charles Finckbine and Ed Finckbine then of Iowa City but now of the Green Bay Lumber Co. of Des Moines. James Clark is now in Sioux City in the employ of one of the packing plants there, and Ed McIntyre resides at Colorado Springs, Col.

Delta Gamma held an informal spread Wed. evening at the rooms of Miss Edith Evans, in honor of Miss Louise Brockett of Des Moines and Mrs. Dr. Breene and Miss Clem Ashley of this city. The affair was in the nature of a farewell party to the two latter ladies who leave shortly for the Pacific coast.

Honor to Whom Honor is Due

Three debaters and an orator will appear on the forensic platform this evening as the belted champions of Iowa. As we approach the time of the contests it seems as if we cannot but win both and yet win or lose, all honor to the contestants. The men who will debate the Gophers have been working and training for months for their short appearance before the judges this evening. If they should speak all they have learned and studied on the debated subject, the contest would last till morning. The orator who represents Iowa in the N. O. L. contest has been working and preparing for this occasion, literally for years. Brown the winner of last year's contest had worked on his oration for four years previous to its delivery in Chicago. Such service is given the university, not alone from selfish ends of glory or experience but must be inspired by nothing short of lofty loyalty to such men it is sufficient reward to be allowed the privilege of representing their university in an inter-collegiate contest; but in addition the whole institution honors them for their loyalty and industry whether they win or lose. And they can honor their university even in defeat by representing her ably and in the manner of perfect gentlemen, notwithstanding that in the eyes of the public there is no honor except in victory.

A baseball game, an inter-collegiate debate and a contest of the N. O. L. make today a memorable one on the calendar of the year.

It is peculiar that two of the judges on delivery at the N. O. L. contest tonight officiated in the same capacity at the N. O. L. contest two years ago.

It is with keenest pleasure that the IOWAN notes the success achieved in the actual affairs of life by the graduates and ex-students of the university.

Judge Emlin McClain left for Lincoln Nebr. at noon yesterday where he will act as judge tonight in the debate between the universities of Missouri of Nebraska.

Clarence Brown, D. '03, goes to What Cheer tonight where he will serve as starter in the field meet of Keokuk county high schools.

President and Mrs. Mac Lean tendered a reception last evening to the candidates for graduation in the colleges of pharmacy and dentistry.

Madge Young will go as delegate from Tau Chapter of Delta Gamma to the national convention of the sorority in Madison, Wis., next month. She will be accompanied by Miss Harriett Holt.

Irving maintained the fixing of rates by Federal authority is a practicable and not a drastic plan and is necessary to eradicate discrimination, prevent extortionate rates and procure uniform rates.
