NEBRASKA PROVES EASY

JOHNNIE VOS AND THE VARSITY TRIM UP CORNHUSKERS

Nebraska's Unbeaten Team is Weak at Bat and in the Field—Varsity Plays Star Game

Iowa defeated Nebraska by 7 to 3 on Iowa field yesterday, Nebraska lost because of her inability to find the slants of Captain "Johnnie" Vos, who was in the box for Iowa, and because of Iowa's well bunched hits.

Captain Vos pitched a most brilliant game. Eight Nebraskans struck out before his prowess and many more drew brief pops and weak grounders.

The crisis of the game came in the eighth inning when, with three men on boxes and two men gone, Wilson, he of famed batting ability came to bat. Once he waited and a strike was called, next a ball was called. Then Wilson fanned the air twice and the suspense was over.

Captain Vos was supported finely by his team. Townsend was not treated quite as well by his fielders.

MOCK TRIAL WEDNESDAY

INTERESTING MURDER TRIAL IN AUDITORIUM

Laws and Medics Will Try Former for Murdering Student While Hypnotized by Prof. Flint

On Wednesday evening, May 6, the laws and medics will give a mock trial in the auditorium, hall of liberal arts. The trial is the State of Iowa against John Adamson, charged with the murder of one James Whitney, a medical student. It is alleged by the state that the said John Adamson while passing through the campus on his way home from an exhibition of hypnotism by Prof. Flint, attacked and killed James Whitney.

The defense admits the killing but asserts that Adamson had been a subject for hypnotic exhibition on the stage and that he was still under the influence of Prof. Flint. It appears that Whitney was an enemy of Flint's and resembled one James Orton against whom Adamson held a grudge. It is claimed that Prof. Flint said to Adamson as he was starting home, "as you go through the University campus you will meet a man at the south entrance to the hall of liberal arts who is lying in wait there to rob and kill you. He will kill you unless you kill him first." The defense asserts that the defendant committed the deed, acting on this suggestion while under the influence of hypnotism.

The state will be represented by George Howell and A. L. Hemminger. E. K. Brown and T. J. Ahern will act as council for the defense. Each side of the case will be given an hour and a half to examine witnesses and half an hour for argument. The expert testimony for the state will be represented by Drs. Moon and Chamberlin. For the defense a professional hypnotist and Drs. McCall and Shaffer will testify. Professor E. A. Wilcox will act as judge.

Extensive preparation has been made to have the trial a success. The case will be called promptly at seven o'clock.

During the course of the trial an actual hypnotic exhibition will be given.

The trial will be open to the public.

Debate Date Changed

The Hammond-Forum debate which was to have been held Wednesday night has been changed to Thursday.

The Zets entertained the Heps very delightfully in their hall last night.

Pres. and Mrs. MacLean will receive for the senior laws next Monday.

R. R. Service, a graduate of the University of California, will address the Young Men's meeting at Close Hall next Sunday.

N. O. L. BUSINESS MEETING

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION ADOPTED

Will Now be Only Three Judges Instead of Six—No Marking Before Contest

At the meeting of the Northern Oratorical League in Minneapolis on Saturday an important amendment to the constitution was adopted. This provides that in the future contests there shall be only one set of judges. The oration shall be sent to these judges two weeks before the contest, not for marking but merely that they may become familiar with them. At the contest only one set of marks will be made, thought composition and delivery being all considered together. This will obviate the double set of markings and simplify the figuring of percentages.

Michigan fought this amendment to the finish. Oberlin was opposed to it because it had not been considered and discussed by the home association. The other five colleges were favorable, however and the amendment was adopted.

A graduate council consisting of Chicago alumni of the several universities was instituted. This council shall decide upon who shall be judges in the contest in case there is a tie after each college has voted upon the lists of judges proposed by the others.

The convention was well attended and the discussion was thorough and prolonged, especially on the amendment concerning the judges.

The meeting of the league will be held with the University of Michigan next year. The officers of the league for the ensuing year were elected at the business meeting resulting in the choice of President T. A. Veldey, Minnesota; Secretary J. A. Barnes, Northwestern; Treasurer D. W. Cole, Michigan; 1st Vice President G. R. Brown, Oberlin; 2d Vice President Clifford Pease; 3d Vice President H. G. Walker; 4th Vice President F. A. Fischel, Chicago.

It was announced in Saturday's issue that E. J. Shannahan of Iowa won four place in the N. O. L. contest Friday evening. Technically this was correct as on the basis of places, Shannahan tied with Merriam of Chicago, Iowa's orator getting a three in thought and composition and a five in delivery and Chicago's representative getting four in both making the total of each eight. But figuring on the basis of percentages Mr. Merriam stood three points ahead thus giving Chicago the place. We bow to you Chicago and apologize for unintentional error.

On account of a dispute between the captains the ball game between Illinois and Wisconsin last Thursday was called to Illinois by a score of 9 to 0.

New History Courses

Several changes have been made in the courses of study offered in the department of history for next year as compared with those of this year. These changes are briefly adverted to below:

1. The outline course in English History of juniors will be conducted by Prof. Plum. This will be the case henceforth.

2. A course of lectures for advanced students in English History will be offered by Prof. W. C. Wilcox. The title will be The History of England under the House of Hanover.

3. The courses of the French Revolution will be given again. It has not been offered during the current year. The same thing is true for the course on the Napoleonic Era.

4. An entirely new course for students of contemporary politics will be given next semester. It is a course of 38 lectures on the Eastern question.

Helen Gordon

Helen, the fifteen year old daughter of Professor and Mrs. H. E. Gordon, died at the home of her parents on North Capitol street Saturday night. Miss Gordon had been ill for only a very short time and was not considered dangerously sick until Saturday afternoon when congestion of the brain set in. The funeral was held from the home Monday afternoon, Rev. G. L. Cady officiating.

The IOWAN and the entire University sympathizes deeply with Professor and Mrs. Gordon in their sudden and sad bereavement.

Second Volume Out

The second volume of The Messages and Proclamations of the Governors of Iowa has been issued from the press. The editor, Prof. Benj. F. Shambaugh, includes in this volume the state papers of three governors, James W. Grimes, Ralph P. Lowe, and Samuel J. Kirkwood.

Miss Elizabeth Cronin has been elected to the position of teacher of mathematics in the Creston High School.

The Dental Dancing Society was entertained at the Burkley Imperial Saturday night. Dancing, games and refreshments were features of the evening.

The Iowa City alumni will give a reception in the woman's drawing room, hall of liberal arts, Friday evening. All graduates in Iowa City and the seniors and faculty have been invited.

Zetagathians defeated Hammond Law Senate at baseball on Saturday by the score of 21 to 18. Harned, one of the law team, broke his shoulder in a collision with Beal who tried to block him off from second base. Today Hammond is crossing bats with Irving.

N. O. L. Amendment

At the recent meeting of the Northern Oratorical League an amendment to the constitution, much needed and for years urged by Iowa, was adopted. This provides that the judges shall, on the night of the contest, mark each contestant on thought, composition and delivery together. This does away with the old method of having the orations graded on the first two counts before the contest.

Now the contestants can write their orations considering mainly how they will sound on the platform, and will not need to pay attention to how they will look in print. It is a noticeable fact that the orations which appear well on paper and secure good markings on thought and composition, are generally very difficult of delivery, because of the long and involved sentence structure. It is very commonly the case that an oration which carries the audience and makes an impression does not win because of its lack of correct construction. An oration to be effective must be written to be heard and not to be read. The league is certainly to be praised for making this amendment, which will, we are confident, do much towards making the oratorical contests more practicable.

Last Year's Decision

The University of Minnesota Daily has again editorially made the statement that Mr. Scholl of Minnesota really won the oratorical contest a year ago. That paper states that, Minnesota "was given second; but it now appears that this was the result of a mere clerical error in figuring the percentages."

Such a statement is absolutely without foundation. Prof. McDermott, in charge of oratory at Minnesota, in a recent conversation with one of Iowa's representatives at the N. O. L. meeting, said that these assertions were entirely false. He expressed great disgust with the action of the Daily and said that it was merely an attempt to secure cheap notoriety for Mr. Schall.

Such a policy on the part of a college daily is to be condemned by everyone. The fact that Prof. McDermott does not approve this action shows that those in a position to know the circumstances do not accredit the victory to anyone but E. K. Brown of Iowa.
