PHI BETA KAPPA MEN BANQUET

BRILLIANT LIST OF TOASTS

Initiatory Exercises Followed by Re-past at Burkley—Many Honor Men Present

The annual Phi Beta Kappa initiatory exercises were held in room 309 liberal arts last evening beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

The initiates from the class of 1903 were: Mrs. Nellie S. Aurner, James G. Berryhill, Jr., Mary L. Eddy, Frances M. Gardner, Carolyn Belle Jarvis, Robert D. Krebs, Eleanor McLaughlin, Helen L. Morton, Julia R. Padmore, Juliette Pierce, Marjorie Quigley, Carolyn R. Rall, Katherine M. Switzer, Gladys Call Whitley. In addition the honor of membership was conferred on Mr. J. C. Monnett L. A. '92.

The Presentation of Initiates was made by Prof. Arthur Fairbanks, Alpha of New Hampshire, 1886. Dean Weld gave the initiates greeting while an historical sketch and explanation of symbols and tokens was made by Prof. Elmer A. Wilcox, Alpha of Rhode Island, 1890.

After the initiation the members of the chapter repaired to the Burkley where an elaborate banquet was served to the assembled members and guests. The list of toasts was as follows:

Prof. J. J. McConnell, Alpha of Iowa 1876, "The Democracy of Culture;" Mrs. Nellie Slayton Aurner, Alpha of Iowa, 1903, "At the Portal;" Miss Myra Bloom, Alpha of Iowa 1900, "Looking Forward;" Mr. M. L. Curtis, Alpha of Iowa 1899, "A Permanent Investment;" Mr. J. C. Monnett Alpha of Iowa 1892, "In After Years;" Prof. C. F. Ansley, Alpha of Nebraska 1890, "English as a Classic;" Prof. Allen Johnson, Beta of Massachusetts 1892, "An Apology for the Non-Elect;" Pres. George E. MacLean, Gamma of Mass. 1871; "Anobium panicum redivivum."

The toasts were well done and to the point, abounding in humor and thought. Prof. McConnell treated the subject of the fellowship of letters and learning in a most felicitous manner. Mrs. Aurner speaking for the new initiates created a very favorable impression.

Mr. Maurice L. Curtis of Knoxville spoke of the value of college work and collegiate honors to man of the world. Mr. Curtis' thoughts were well conceived and expressed in a most happy manner. Pres. MacLean speaking of the revival of the bookworm gave it as his opinion that there was a place in the college world for this much abused individual.

Besides those who have been mentioned, the out-of-town guests in attendance were: Fred Blume, Iowa 1898, of Audubon; Ethel Golden, Iowa 1898, and mother, of Vinton and U. C. Blake, of Cedar Rapids.

NINETEEN HUNDRED STUDENTS AT IOWA

Largest in History of the University

The latest figures from the registrar's office gives the total enrollment for the past year as eighteen hundred seventy-six. This is the enrollment by departments.

Mrs. C. H. Coggsell

Mrs. C. H. Coggsell, wife of Emeritus Professor Coggsell of the homeopathic college of medicine, died yesterday afternoon at her home in Cedar Rapids. The students of the college sent a floral design.

F. S. Merriau '01 of Allison is in the city today and will remain the rest of this week.

Seven hundred and forty copies of the annual has been sold up to noon today. Manager Kunz announces that those who have subscribed must call for their books at once.

Invitations have been issued by the Senior Erodelphians to the other members of the society for an "at home" Saturday afternoon at 528 East College street with Miss Genevieve Murphy.

The girls' physical training classes are taking walks in the country, thus combining pleasure and exercise. This afternoon they started from the Jefferson street bridge, and went up the river being gone a little over an hour. For the rest of the year these strolls will be regular features of the work.

An Iowa City friend of Dr. Leora Johnson is in receipt of a post card from her, dated "London England," April 24. It was written at Lincoln's Inn, where Miss Johnson is staying. This locality is an historic one, it is close to the famous old "Curiosity Shop," where "Little Nell" strangely mature, and yet a mere child, spent so many fateful hours. Dr. Johnson has met with most cordial greetings in Medical circles abroad, and the London papers tell of an unusual invitation (her sex considered) from St. Thomas, the oldest institution of its kind in the kingdom. The authorities bade her visit there whenever she saw fit. Dr. Johnson sends her "kindest regards" to all of her Iowa City friends.

The presidency of DePauw University was accepted by Rev. Edwin H. Hughes, D.D., of Malden, Mass., the work to be assumed by him in June. He is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan.

MAY CHANCE FOOTBALL RULES

Committee Likely to Eliminate Quarterback's Function

American college football bids fair to be revolutionized next fall if the intercollegiate football rules committee carries into effect a regulation which it now has under consideration. This rule provides for nothing less than that the ball has to pass through the hands of only two men before being regarded as in play. At present it is necessary for it to go through the hands of three men.

By the proposed rule the center can snap the ball to any man on the team who may then rush with it. It will be possible, therefore, for the quarterback to carry the ball, an important innovation, and because of the fact that any man may take the pigskin without the quarterback's previous assistance all sorts of puzzling combinations will be feasible.

With this regulation in effect the present evils of mass play, which have aroused such opposition, would, it is believed, largely be done away with and a more open and less dangerous style of play come into effect.

Geneva Delegates

The delegates of the Y. W. C. A. to the Lake Geneva Conference this year are, Nellie Chase, Madge Young, Eva Webber, Pearl Landon, Margaret Pratt, Lou Landers, Lelah Blaine, and Mary Buffum.

The conference for this year will be held the last two weeks of August. Formerly the city and student conferences were held at the same time, but this year the conferences of the city Y. W. C. A. will meet first, thus making it a more distinct student gathering.

Merrit Brackett, L. '04 has returned from a business trip to Des Moines.

In yesterday's inter-society baseball game Hammond defeated Irving by a score of 8 to 6.

Miss Estella Paddock, state secretary of the Y. W. C. A. is visiting Miss Lela Blaine, L. A. '04.

Philomathian and Octave Thanet gave a joint program in their hall Saturday evening, a farce being the special feature.

Dr. Eleanor Gordon former pastor of the Unitarian church in this city is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Shambaugh.

C. O. Wright, '03 has left school to accept a position with the LaFayette Construction Co. at Uniontown, Pa.

Saturday evening, May 9, the freshman Heps will give two farces entitled "Betsy Baker" and the "Cool Collegians" at St. Brendan's hall. Admission will be fifteen cents.

More Careful Living

Prof. DeMotte gave a very interesting lecture last evening at the Presbyterian church on the subject "A Plea for Posterity." His lecture was illustrated by excellent stereopticon views. He dwelt upon the three factors that determine character; 'heredity,' 'function' and 'the press of external circumstances' also of the strenuous life that people are living in this terrific age.

He plead not for more institutions for the insane and more institutions for reform but for more careful living.

This is the last number of the Y. M. C. A. lecture course.

Junior Debate

The annual junior debate, between the Irvings and Zetagathian literary societies will be held on the evening of May 22 in the auditorium. The question to be debated is; Resolved, "that Senator Hoar's plan is preferable to entire federal control of corporations." Irving, represented by O. R. Davis, J. G. Berryhill, and D. H. Fitzpatrick, will affirm this proposition. A. W. Lauer, U. G. Hayden, and H. L. Bryson, will deny it for Zetagathian.

Esmeralda Popular

The large sale of seats this early indicates that Esmeralda is popular, and will be greeted by a large audience. The costumes are all at hand, and several complete rehearsals have already been had. Katherine Jewell Everts is here and is acting as stage manager and superintending the final drills of the cast.

The editors of the Hawkeye can have free tuition blanks, for our School of Proof Reading, at this office.

The introduction of President Roosevelt by Mayor Williams of Oskaloosa "Ladies and Gentlemen the president" should become a classic for the study of all presiding officers.

The sale of season baseball tickets accomplished two things. It made spring athletics solvent; and it filled the grand stand at the games. This latter has been of great benefit to the team, giving them the cheers and attendance that goes to make winning teams.

Tomorrow night the dramatic club will make its initial bow to the public. It is a new enterprise here. It is something the university needs to keep pace with sister schools. The only attempt at dramatics has been the senior class play. This while good does not give the training and practice necessary to make the play art the most successful. The club should be patronized and praised for their good points and any possible fault overlooked. They have put faithful, conscientious work upon Esmeralda and those who attend will receive their money's worth.

Did you get roasted in the Hawkeye? If you didn't you are not popular. Those who get roasted the most are those who do the most. But then they are all good natured digs. If some hurt, forget it. We got put on the fire, but we forgive. The Hawkeye contains a lot of good material. We can overlook the typographical errors—the proof-reader had probably jumped two classes and didn't dare jump a third for fear of flunking. The student publisher leads a strenuous life—and that with no pay and little honor. The editors of the IOWAN extends to the editors of The Hawkeye the right hand of comradeship and congratulate them on the success of the 1904 annual.

Phi Delta Theta
Annual Letter

The Iowa Beta Chapter of the Phi Delta Theta are about to send out the annual letter, which is customary for the sixty-eight chapters of the Phi Delta Theta to exchange with one another and send to their alumni. The letter will have a halftone of the chapter, a short sketch of university progress, and athletics and of fraternities generally and especially of Phi Delta Theta. It will contain the roll of members, and the present address of all the alumni of the chapter. It will be eleven page and will have a bronze and brown cover.

The object of this letter is to keep the various chapters in touch with one another. The committee, who had charge of this years letter are C. E. Loizeaux, E. K. Brown, and Oliver Longueville.

Miss Augusta Brown, L. A. '06 of Wall Lake Iowa, was called home Saturday by the death of her grandmother.

Miss Call gave a very interesting report of the late Biennial Convention of the Y. W. C. A. at WilkesBarre, Pa. at the Y. W. meeting Sunday morning.

After much debate the bill to prohibit the playing of football in South Dakota has passed the legislature of the state. By this South Dakota has shown herself to be the only state in the union which was willing to consider the proportion as anything beyond a joke. Bills to prohibit football have been introduced in the legislature of at least ten states during the past six months, but in most cases they have been the subject of ridicule. At Madison one jolly legislator got up before the assembly and moved to amend the bill to include ping-pong, croquet and golf.

Two Books--
Two Cents

THE Burlington Route has just issued two publications of great interest to homeseekers.

"Nebraska" is the title of a 48-page book descriptive of the agricultural resources of the state, profusely illustrated with farm scenes and supplemented with an accurate sectional map.

"Big Horn Basin" is an illustrated folder telling all about the rich but undeveloped portion of Northwestern Wyoming. The Big Horn Basin contains wonderful openings for small ranches along good streams, with a million acres of government land open for settlement under the United States land laws.

Both publications will be sent to any address on receipt of two cents in stamps. Address J. FRANCIS, General Passenger Agent, Burlington Route, Omaha.
