KNOX PLAYS GOOD GAME

IOWA'S FIRST DEFEAT ON IOWA FIELD

Knox's Hits and Iowa's Fielding and Battery Errors Gave the Knox Team a Large Score

Iowa was defeated 10 to 5 by Knox college on Iowa field yesterday. The game was the first college contest lost on the home field this season. It was a good contest, saving a few errors by the Iowa fielders and some loose pitching by Miles.

Knox hit the ball well and fairly consecutive. She was aided by advantageous bases on balls and by errors by the Iowa outfield.

Essick for Knox pitched an excellent game. Iowa found time for enough hits and errors to have won the game had Knox scores by hits and errors been kept down to a reasonable figure.

The score:

Iowa	R	H	P	A	E

TAKE IMPORTANT STEPS

Y. M. C. A. Hires Physical Director and Chooses General Secretary

Much important business was transacted at the meeting of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet held last Wednesday evening at Close Hall.

The meeting convened promptly at 7:00 p. m. and the budget for the year was at once taken up and approved. It was decided to have a physical director for next year and Ed A. Rule of Des Moines was elected to the position.

The position of general secretary which has been vacant this year, the work devolving on the officers of the cabinet, will be occupied next year by Mr. C. W. Smith, of Beloit College, the contract with him being approved at last night's meeting. Mr. Smith is a senior in Beloit college, is president of the college Y. M. C. A. and was captain of the Beloit football team last fall.

DRAMATIC CLUB

SCORES SUCCESS

ENTHUSIASTICALLY RECEIVED

Esmerelda Very Well Put On—Mr. Baughn and Miss Lynch the Stars—Profits Small

The performance of Esmerelda by the Dramatic Club last night was a great success. It was a success not alone from the standpoint of pleasing the audience and of making a goodly sum for the athletic union treasury but those who are learned in the art of dramatic work pronounce the work of the players last night as of a decidedly superior type.

Marie Lynch in the title role, was excellently adapted to her part and drew forth round after round of applause, being given two curtain calls. Her stage appearance was admirable and her work of the highest order throughout, though perhaps lacking a little force at the climax. Will Baughn as Old Man Rogers could hardly be improved upon. Mr. Baughn's work was such that one forgot the player and thought only of the play, a thing which is rather uncommon in amateur theatricals. If he wishes to take it up there is a stage career waiting for Mr. Baughn in which his success is assured.

Ethel Elliott as Nora Desmond was decidedly pleasing and took the part of a pretty and rather flighty young lady with success. Miss Carolyn Rall in the role of Mrs. Rogers was very good albeit she would seem to be more adapted to a kindly and soft-voiced part rather than that of a strong-willed, strident old woman. Mr. C. A. Dykstra as Mr. Estabrook posed as a young artist in love with Nora Desmond most admirably. Dave Hardy, the mountain lover, was impersonated by Mr. Casper Schenck very satisfactorily. Anna Gay in a minor part was very good and showed capabilities worthy of a much more prominent role. The part of the Marquis de Montessin was taken by L. D. Bedford. His manner and accent were well assumed and a most ferocious mustache and beard added foreignness to his appearance. Certainly no such beard has ever been seen this side of the water. The remaining dramatis personae were Jack Desmond, Frank D. Kern; Drew, Merle Call and the Maid, Carolyn Jarvis.

The scenes in which Mr. Rogers and his daughter Esmerelda were together were very pleasing and effective and the best of the tableaux.

LATER—Manager Dykstra stated to an IOWAN reporter today that the receipts would but little more than pay expenses of the play.

Judge Hayes is in Freeport, Ill., where he was called by the death of a brother. The senior and junior law classes have passed appropriate resolutions of sympathy.

Congratulations

The success of the dramatic club last evening in its initial appearance is most pleasing. The club fills a sphere which is an important part of the student life of many universities and which has been too little cultivated in the past here at Iowa. While farces have been put on occasionally and a cast from the senior class has each year appeared before the footlights at commencement time yet these have been but sporadic and disconnected efforts. The organization of the dramatic club provided a centralizing factor for all lines of student dramatic work and not only looked to improving what we were doing but to at tempting things unattainable before. The complete and remarkable success of last night's play assures the continuation and growth of the dramatic club and the IOWAN predicts for it a rosy future and many coming triumphs on the boards.

Very much of the credit for last night's success is due to Miss Mary Sleight Everts who has given her time and talents to coaching the players and to Mr. Clarence Dykstra who managed the troupe as well as played a part.

There was not a very large faculty representation at Esmerelda last evening. Wonder if the faculty were jealous over the non-materializing of the talked-of faculty play?

The winning streak the baseball men had, seemed to play-out yesterday afternoon.

Tonight Iowa meets Wisconsin on the bloodless battle-field of debate.
