WISCONSIN DEFEATS IOWA IN DEBATE

(Text of Daily Iowan.)

Wisconsin won the joint debate with Iowa last night. Her orators winning the decision of the judges by a vote of 2 to 1. This is the fifth annual meeting between the two universities and it was Wisconsin's turn to win. The records shows that each university has won in alternate years and as Iowa captured the decision last year, it is the turn of Wisconsin this year.

The contest was sharp and close and both teams conducted themselves very creditably. The Wisconsin orators on the affirmative favoring the continuance of the protective tariff won out by driving home strongly the argument that the negative had a purely theoretical, visionary and untried scheme that had proven of so much practical benefit. The protection of American industry and the defense of the American laboring man was kept on a plane above that of European economics.

The negative maintained that the need of the high tariff system with whom Iowa played did not obtain. The negative argued that the handicap be lifted.

The approval of the university senate given to this university rule in February by an Iowa joined the Big Nine conference has been called in question, discussed and again approved has been given by the rule. Reconsideration of the rule was desired by persons who wished to call on Clyde Williams, Edward G. Yates and "Fink" Stroey, members of the varsity nine in non-conference games.

Williams, Stroey and Yates are barred from playing by the conference rules. By the rules governing all the other college teams in Iowa and other colleges which the varsity plays, they are not barred.

The approval of the university rule that conference rules shall govern in all university games was given by the senate because the conference rules are the embodiment of purity in athletics, presenting the efforts of those desiring the highest and best in intercollegiate sport, to which it is desired to bring in time the acquiescence of these colleges which are not now on this high plane of intercollegiate endeavor.

SENATE SAYS CONFERENCE RULES GOVERN ALL ATHLETIC GAMES AGAIN ENFORCES HIGHEST STANDARDS FOR IOWA'S ATHLETICS

University Senate Calls up Resolution Approving Conference Rules for all Intercollegiate Contests and Unanimously Votes Down Proposition to Reject the Rule

Conference rules govern Iowa in all intercollegiate contests, whether with conference or non-conference colleges.

The approval of the university senate given to this university rule in February by an Iowa joined the Big Nine conference has been called in question, discussed and again approved has been given by the rule. Reconsideration of the rule was desired by persons who wished to call on Clyde Williams, Edward G. Yates and "Fink" Stroey, members of the varsity nine in non-conference games.

William, Stroey and Yates are barred from playing by the conference rules. By the rules governing all the other college teams in Iowa and other colleges which the varsity plays, they are not barred.

The approval of the university rule that conference rules shall govern in all university games was given by the senate because the conference rules are the embodiment of purity in athletics, presenting the efforts of those desiring the highest and best in intercollegiate sport, to which it is desired to bring in time the acquiescence of these colleges which are not now on this high plane of intercollegiate endeavor.

Those who called up the resolution of the senate for reconsideration urged that other colleges in Iowa play do not observe the conference rules, that they are playing on their teams men ineligible under conference rules, and that in these non-conference games, Iowa should be allowed the same latitude. They argued that Iowa should not be put under an evident disadvantage in these contests, and asked that the handicap be lifted.

would bring professionalism

In opposition to this view, it was argued that the rejection of the conference rule-opened the field for considerable professionalism in Iowa's athletics. It was presented that the winning of contests was not the important thing, but that the entire object of athletics was at stake whether the university was reproducing her athletes upon the highest plane, with the best safeguards against lapses in gentlemanlike manner standing, and in other features apt to tempt participants in athletics.

Prof. E. A. Wilcox, president of the board of athletic control brought the matter up by request. Upon moving a reconsideration of the rule in order to bring it before the senate, Professor Wilcox said that he was not in favor of the rejection of the rule, as it would mean, when judged by the highest standards, the admission of professionalism into Iowa's athletics, allowing even judged professionals under conference rules to compete with non-conference colleges. That non-conference colleges were playing professionals he did not think sufficient answer. Iowa, he said, should keep her own record right.

The Senate of the University of Iowa meets Monday morning, the joint debate followed and was decided on a vote of 2 to 1. The affirmative or Wisconsin side was favored by the judges.

IOWA 7; CORNELL 5

The varsity defeated Cornell college 7 to 3 at Mt. Vernon yesterday. Captain W. A. Robinson was pitched for Iowa an excellent game and was well supported by the team.

In opening up the game, Dye and Hamilton were credited for Iowa. Cornell then hit the ball regularly until five scores had been tallied. Switzer's ake was sprung by a Cornell player's throwing his weight upon it. Coad then took third and White went in at center field, where he played a star game.

The game was Iowa's first in the silver bat series. The standing of the teams now is:

MURDER TRIAL

John Anderson Convicted of Murder in

In the mock court trial last night the jury found John Anderson guilty of the murder of Jas. Whitney.

The defense set up hypnotism as a defense but failed to show the accused was in that state at the time the death was committed.

The attorneys for the state were A. L. Heminger and Geo. H. Howell for the prosecution, Timothy A. Ahern and E. K. Brown. The attorneys did some fine work in the defense. Prof. E. A. Wilcox was judge.

Two Books--Two Cents

THE Burlington Route has just issued two publications of great interest to homeseekers.

"Nebraska," is the title of a 98-page book descriptive of the agricultural resources of the state, profusely illustrated with farm scenes and supplemented with an accurate sectional map.

"Big Horn Basin" is an illustrated folder telling all about the rich but undeveloped portion of Northwestern Wyoming. The Big Horn Basin contains wonderful openings for small ranches along good streams, with a million acres of government land open for settlement under the United States land laws.

Both publications will be sent to any address on receipt of two cents in stamps. Address J. FRANCIS, General Passenger Agent, Burlington Route, Omaha.
