CHORAL DIRECTOR ANALYZES ORATORIO

TELLS STORY OF ELIJAH

Public Rehearsal of Chorus Well Attended—Dr. Gilchrist Analyzes the Music—Chorus Work Pleasing

The gallery of the liberal arts auditorium was well filled to hear the public rehearsal of the Choral Union last night. Prof. Gilchrist leader of the chorus explained the meaning of the oratorio, stating the analysis of each scene briefly before its rendering by the chorus.

There are three schools of oratorio music, the classical school of Handel, the intermediate school represented by Mendelssohn and of which Elijah is a good example and the very modern school of which the work of Gunod is characteristic. Prof. Gilchrist stated that he played the oratorio Elijah the first time it was sung in America in 1857. The oratorio was first sung in 1836. It was rendered in both Boston and Philadelphia in 1857 and Prof. Gilchrist was the organist at the latter concert.

The instrumental introduction to Elijah depicts the feeling of complaint among the Hebrews caused by the long famine. Their mutterings grow louder and finally become almost open revolt. The oratorio is divided into two parts, the first representing the prophecy of Elijah and its fulfillment and the second denoting by its words and music Elijah's persecution and ascension into Heaven.

The scenes of the great musical drama follow closely the biblical story of the life of the prophet beginning with the mutterings among the Hebrews, the incident with the widow of Nain, and the mocking of the priests of Baal and developing his life step by step till his final glorification in the cloud of fire.

The degree of perfection the chorus has attained is indeed very pleasing. The soprano is by far the strongest section of the chorus and the tenors are still somewhat weak but as a whole the work of the singers is remarkably fine.

Prof. Fairbanks gave his Homer class, this week an interesting talk on early Grecian architecture and archaeological research, illustrating his remarks with a number of stereopticon views.

The fifth game in the inter-society series was played yesterday between teams from Hammond and Philomathean. The law debaters had much the best of the argument, the score being 14 to 4.

The Iowa Beta chapter of Pi Beta Phi will be at home to their alumni and the visiting Pi Phis among the P. E. O. delegates at the home of Mrs. B. F. Shambaugh, this afternoon from two until five.

SENATE PARCELS WORK

Faculty Committees on Commencement Arrangements Appointed

The university senate recently appointed the committees of the faculty on commencement arrangements as follows: The program for commencement week was placed in charge of the board or deans. Chairman of the senate committee, Prof. C. E. Seashore; Secretary, Dean Alice Young, committee to receive distinguished guests, Pres. MacLean and Dean A. N. Currier; transportation, Prof. H. S. Richards; printing and invitations, Prof. W. L. Bierring, seating and arrangements, Prof. W. J. Teeters, music Prof. W. L. Bywater.

Although the hotels in the city have recently been enlarged yet it is expected that many of the guests will have to be accommodated in private homes.

Pres. Olinger has received a challenge from Drake sophomores for a game of baseball to be played in Iowa City. The challengers ask a guarantee of expenses.

Miss Dorothy Wickersham '99, of Cedar Rapids will be here over Sunday, the guest of Miss Graff.

TURKS INITIATE

Honor Men Receive the Mysteries of Scimitar and Fez

Last night the Scimitar and Fez initiated the ten honor men, who will have charge of the order next year. Those chosen to receive, this distinctive honor were: H. G. Walker, J. F. Kunz, C. O. Briggs, C. P. Schenck, W. F. Hellberg, L. D. Bedford, F. D. Kern, B. A. Moffat and E. R. Jackson.

After the initiation ceremonies were over, the organization event down the street to the Leland, singing their songs, with now and then a Hawkeye yell. Refreshments were served, and toasts given by the initiates. Ever and anon the various phrases of, "Rocking on the Billows" and other songs dear to the college man's heart were sung. H. G. Walker was selected as the heir apparent to the sultanship, and upon the decease of Murad Drewry will assume the scepter.

Barnard College students recently presented "The Manoeuvres of Jane." It proved to be the most successful play ever given by the undergraduates of Barnard

HOT THINGS IN MINSTREL SHOW

ALL THE GREAT SPECIALTIES

O'Brien Bros. Tumbling Stunt—Holly Mull and Huffy Short in Song and Dance—Good Soloists

The best and funniest thing that has happened will be the university minstrels at the opera house next Wednesday night.

The very naming of the specialties on the program indicates that anyone who does not take precaution is likely to gag himself at the show for it has some warm ones.

Holly Mull and Huffy Short in their own original song and dance act will be remembered from their work at the senior circus and they are better than ever. "Doc" Fordyce has a special picture feature that is the best ever. Fordyce's coon songs are given in good old plantation style and make real Georgia "niggers" turn green with envy. The great attraction of the minstrels is furnished by the work of the end men Humeston and "Biddie" Owen. Humeston and Biddie's twin specialty will certainly make a hit while Owen's skirt dance would give pointers to the best artists on the vaudeville stage. Tildy Ann and a Levy Song will be rendered by the same inimitable performer. O'Brien Bros. in their tumbling stunt will be on the program and will be alone worth the price of admission.

The minstrel ends up with a big levy scene on a southern plantation with singing and dancing, pickaninnies running about, cake walking and a general southern jubilee.

Solos will be rendered by Dick O'Brien "Johnnie" Clark, "Bill" Hall, Shorty Huff, "Smith" Fred Bailey, "Molly" Hull and "Doc" Fordyce.

The Wisconsin baseball team has refused to play the second game on their schedule at Illinois field on account of the mix-up at the former game.

The senior class of Chicago University will leave three benches on the campus as a class memorial. The cost of the benches will be $3075.

Two very important changes have recently been made in the Yale curriculum. The elective system is to be extended into the freshman year and Greek is no longer required for admission.

The request that members of the women's tennis team at Stanford be granted sweaters with the official "S" has been refused by the athletic committee. Their swearers will have the word "Tennis" on them.

At Cornell all but five fever patients have been discharged from the care of university health authorities, and the infirmary annex in Stimson Hall is about to be abandoned. There are but five patients in the infirmary, and all are convalescent.

MILITARY BALL TONIGHT

Laws Debate Merger

The juniors in the law societies will hold a joint debate Monday evening on the question "Resolved, That the merger of railroads should be prohibited." This question will be affirmed for Hammond by P. H. Humphrey, N. S. Genung and W. S. Ridgeway. Forum has the negative and is represented by S. D. Whiting, A. A. Brown, and J. L. Meighen. The judges selected are Samuel Hayes, T. H. Macbride and M. J. Wade.

Prof. R. D. George, left last night for a two weeks trip in British Columbia.

The freshman Erodolphians will present the farce "A Detective in Petticoats" at St. Brendan's hall Monday evening.

The senior tax at Princeton is $16.

An oil well has been discovered at the University of California.

Henry C. King was installed as president of Oberlin College on May 12.

The Princeton Gun Club recently defeated the University of Pennsylvania team by a score of 220 to 211.

Fitting Memorial

Michigan seniors will turn the class memorial money into the hands of trustees to be loaned to needy students.

A bi-annual tax of 25 cents was levied for the expenses of keeping the records of the class after graduation.

Spring football practice began last week at the University of Nebraska.

Half a million dollars has been appropriated for dormitories at Cornell.

The intercollegiate golf championship tournament will be held next fall at the Garden City Golf Club, October 20-24.

About thirty men are coming out regularly for rowing practice at Stanford University and are making rapid progress.

Yale has revived an old custom. Twice a week in the spring the university glee club sings college songs at the Senior Fence.

The financiers of the University of Minnesota are in no very good condition according to the Minnesota Daily. With only $5,000 in the fund there are vouchers in the state auditor's hands amounting to $60,000.

A Word to the Wise

The announcements of the various colleges of the university for 1903-'04 can now be obtained at the executive office. Their appearance reminds one that the year is fast drawing to a close and that the foresighted student is beginning to lay plans for next year. College work being the primary thing in the minds of all, with all else subsidiary, the thing of first importance to the student planning for next year is his classroom schedule. The most popular courses and sections are always soonest filled and late comers are compelled to take the sections that remain unfilled. These are usually the afternoon sections which many avoid. In many cases special arrangements with the professors at the head of departments are necessary to permit of making certain schedules. Such arrangements can always be more easily made at this time when both professor and student have more leisure time than during the rush and hurry attendant upon registration week in the fall. The wise student will arrange and scheme out his course long before the September days begin to call him back to the campus.

It is unfortunate that the meet with Grinnell occurs at the same time as the afternoon concert of the May Festival. Both will be interesting, both the athletic games and the festival will be good in their lines. Both are in need of and merit support of the university public. It will have to be a matter largely of personal preference, which one to go to.

Some days are crowded full of events. As much transpires in their short compass of twenty-four hours as occurs in the length of whole months at other times. During the next twenty-four we have an armory party, a league ball game, a dual track meet, and the May Festival.

The only contest field meet on the home grounds occurs tomorrow.

Prof. Loos was in Cedar Rapids last night as judge on the Cedar Rapids-Ottumwa high school debate.

Roy A. Cook left for Independence today to attend the inspection of Company L, Fifty-third Iowa, of which he is first sergeant.

Prof. Allen Johnson who occupies the chair of history at Iowa College will speak before the members of the graduate club in the liberal arts auditorium next Thursday evening May 21. His topic will be Douglas and Lincoln.

Irvings crossed bats with the freshmen lit. ball team yesterday afternoon, the tally at the end of six innings standing 6 to 9 in favor of the class team.

The score was tied at the end of the fifth and in the first half of the sixth, Irving brought in two scores, but the freshies woke up in their half of the inning and fell upon Hutchinson's delivery in a way that made it look sick and sent six men across the plate. The Score:

Irving	0	1	1	0	2	2	6
Freshmen lit.	0	2	2	0	0	5	9

All students in the college of liberal arts who find it necessary or desirable to shorten the time for completing their course in the interest of an entrance upon professional courses, or for other reasons, or who must do extra work to graduate with their class, are advised and strongly urged to take advantage of the summer session for this purpose. There is reason to believe that the faculty will in the future, more narrowly restrict the allowance of extra hours, especially in view of the opportunities offered by the summer session.

At a meeting of the association of American Medical Colleges in New Orleans a new standard of admission to medical colleges was adopted. The report as adopted requires four full years of work in the high schools, or its equivalent for eligibility to admission. This is a victory for the northern medical institutions, which are mostly endowed schools. This is believed to mean the final exclusion from admission in the medical colleges of all applicants who have not had a college education.
