HAWKEYES WIN IN GOOD MEET

SCORE IOWA 78, GRINNELL 44

Scarlet and Black Team Furnish Good Contests in Track Events—Swift Breaks Discus Record

Saturday's field meet was one which pleases every lover of good sport. The events, particularly on the track, were close, much closer than the score of the meet indicates and they were run clear out to the finish. This was the best part of the meet, the game spirit of the contestants.

Hand's performance in the two mile run was worthy of the hearty cheers which went up for him as he reached the tape and were repeated later as he went to the training shed after the good time for the distance, 10:41, had been announced. Bateman ran a beautiful race in the mile and won in the last fifty yards from Pringle. The Iowa runners in the 440-yd. dash and mile relay did not seem to use as good head work and in both events Evans, of Grinnell, laid back and won by strength at the finish. Swift's performance in the discus throw was of course the most remarkable of the day, though no surprise to those who have watched some of his trial throws. Barring mis-haps he should win his event at Des Moines and at the Conference Meet both.

The records of the meet were good except in the hammer throw where Iowa showed woeful weakness. Five dual records were broken, one was equalled and initial records were established in the mile relay and the two mile run. Two records were better than the existing state records, viz: in the half mile relay and the discus throw. In the latter event Swift also broke the conference record held by himself. The new records were 22 ft. 1/2 in. in the broad jump, 16 2-5 seconds in the high hurdles, 123 ft. 10 in. in the discus throw, 26 2-5 seconds in the low hurdles, 1 min. 33 3-6 seconds in the half mile relay, 3 min. 39 seconds in the mile relay, 10 min. 41 sec. in the two mile run.

The summary of the meet is as follows:

100 Yard Dash—Won by Scarr, Iowa; Bair, Grinnell, 2nd; White, Iowa, 3rd. Time 10 3-5 seconds.

Pole Vault—Won by Weinrich, I.; Wallaser, G.; and Tierney, I.; tied for second. Height, 10 feet.

Class Ball Game

The freshmen medics defeated the freshman lits. in the ninth inning of a game of ball yesterday afternoon. When the medics came to bat the score stood 8 to 5 in favor of the literary men. The tension was a little too much for the liberal arts team however and it loosened up a bit and four good hits did the rest. Four bone-sawers crossed the plate and the medics had won.

The score:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	total
Medic.	0	0	3	0	0	2	0	0	4	9
Lits.	2	0	1	1	3	1	0	0	0	8

Dr. J. W. Harriman met his classes yesterday, the first time in six weeks after a serious illness. His reception from the students upon his return was most enthusiastic.

Dr. J. T. McClintock left yesterday for Sioux City, called there by the serious illness of his father, Rev. J. B. McClintock, pastor of the Presbyterian church of that city.

President MacLean delivered the baccalaureate sermon at Shelby, Iowa, Sunday. Monday evening he delivered the high school commencement address at the Pocahontas high school.

HAHNEMANNIAN BAN- QUET SENIOR HOMEOPS

LAST NIGHT AT IMPERIAL

Last Night at Imperial the First Social Function of the Organization Furnishes an Enjoyable Time

One of the most pleasing events of the season occurred last evening at the Burkley Imperial parlors when the Hahnemannian Society banqueted the Senior Homeopaths. At eight o'clock about sixty guests assembled in the parlors of the Burkley Imperial and after the pleasure of an hour in well wishing and congratulations, the spacious doors of the great dining room were thrown back and an elegantly decorated table in the form of a letter H was in full view. The H representing Hahnemann, Homeopathy, and Hahnemannian. The floral decorations were marguerites giving the society colors white and old gold.

After the guests were seated a dainty six course supper was served, after which the following toasts were announced by E. K. Bond '04 Toastmaster.

"Class of 1903," was responded to by F. R. Lintleman, '04, who pictured the class from freshmen to seniors, in closing he quoted the following, "Go Seniors go, bearing an honor name; And wherever you have went They'll be glad that you have came."

Next "Our College, Its Past, Present and Future," By Prof. Bywater, '97 was greatly appreciated. Dr. J. B. Keaster, '03 then gave the Hahnemannian Society. "The Nurses" was dexteriously handled by O. T. Oberlin, '05. Then last but not least came Fred Alden '06 with "The Rest of Us."

One of the pleasing features of the event was the presence of Professor C. H. Cogswell of Cedar Rapids, who came down to attend the function and to be with "His Boys of '04," and help them enjoy the evening. His presence is always greatly appreciated by the boys.

Another pleasing number was the music rendered by the Iowa Quartette composed of Parsons, Hall, Dunham and Martindale. At 12 o'clock faculty, students, wives and sweethearts said good-night and went home to dream of the many happy functions of the evening.

To the seniors this will remain as a token of respect and esteem for their fellow college mates and the nurses who so kindly remembered them.

Miss Edith Macomber, who has been visiting in this city at the Coast home, left for Chicago yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Swisher expect to return to their home in Waterloo tomorrow. Mr. Swisher has fully recovered from his operation for appendicitis.

SECOND MAY FESTIVAL

Chorus Does Good Work—Orchestra Pleasing—Director Loses His Hat

The second annual Festival of music was held at the armory on Saturday afternoon and evening.

The Chicago Symphony Orchestra with a corps of noted soloists rendered a beautiful musical treat in the afternoon and in the evening the orchestra soloists, and the choral society presented the Oratorio Elijah. The festival was as marked a success as the first one from a musical stand point. The chorus did even better work. Nothing but praise and admiration were heard for the perfection with which the seventy voices blended in the difficult music of Mendelssohn's greatest oratorio.

The audience were somewhat dissatisfied at the omission of nearly all the overture to the oratorio by the orchestra and also at the skipping of two of the best choruses in the oratorio. Mr. Seeboeck director of the orchestra left, much disgusted at Iowa City from the fact that someone purloined his hat during the concert. No one knows who did the deed but until the guilty party is found it will be presumed it was a student.

The receipts from the two concerts lacked $100 of paying expenses but as there was that much surplus from last year the choral union is about even. Arrangements are being made for a continuation of the choral society next year and the festival will be given next May. It is probable two preliminary concerts of the chorus will be given in the fall to obtain a fund with which to guarantee expenses of the May festival.

Oscar R. Young

Oscar R. Young died Sunday morning at 11:20 o'clock at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Young of Summit street. He has been ill for several months and was brought home from Salt Lake City five weeks ago. Mr. Young graduated from the engineering department of the university of Iowa with the class of 1886 and since that time has been very successful in his chosen profession. He was a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. His death brings sorrow to a large circle of friends. The funeral services were held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Summit street residence. The services were conducted by Rev. George Luther Cady of the Congregational church. The interment will take place tomorrow at Durant, Iowa.

Mr. J. P. Huggett, '03, delivered the baccalaureate for the Columbus Junction high school Sunday.

Miss Carolyn Jarvis has accepted a position as teacher of languages at Graceland College, Lamoni.

Iowa Honors The Track Team

Iowa is proud of the 1903 track team. It is a good team and a game team. Greater than the victory Saturday, more pleasing than the records made which were splendid, was the true Hawkeye spirit which prevailed the team. Every man fought his event out to the finish whether winning or losing. It is this kind of spirit that not only wins meets but makes every Iowan respect and honor the contestants.

The university is honored in having such a team representing her.

Tennis to the Front

And now tennis will occupy the center of the stage for a few days. The tennis men have been working hard and will put up a game fight for the state championship. There is no better sport as far as exercise goes than tennis, and none, in which Iowa has more consistently held up her end. We have repeatedly won the state championship in both singles and doubles, have defeated Wisconsin and broke even with Northwestern in tournaments in the last few years. Last year Iowa men won in the semi-finals in the conference tennis tournament.

The thanks of the university are due to the choral union for the very high class music festival that they put within reach of the University public. It is to be hoped that another year more favorable conditions will make a the festival more of a financial success.

Coaches Bush and Eastman have done much toward developing the track squad. They have had entire charge of the work and training of the men. To them belongs much of the credit and glory won by the team.

Players Banquet

The members of the Dramatic Club enjoyed a seven-course banquet at the Burkley Imperial yesterday at five o'clock, in honor of Miss Mary Everts and her sister, Mrs. Green. The following toasts were responded to, George Hill acting as toast master: Marie Lynch, "We Cannot thank You"; Henry Walker, "Before the Footlights"; Miss Everts, "The Years to Come"; Ethel Elliott, "Together."

Miss Ethel Golden '98 of Vinton was an over Sunday visitor in the city.

"Nebraska" is the title of a 48-accurate sectional map.

"Big Horn Basin" is an illustrated folder telling all about the Hammond victorious.

Last evening occurred the junior Hammond-Forum debate of the Law Debating League. The question, "Resolved that the merger of railway corporations in the United States should be prohibited," was affirmed by W. E. Ridgeway, B. W. Humphrey and W. S.
Genung and denied by A. A.
Brown, S. D. Whiting and J. K.
Meighen. The debaters showed great originality and careful research. The Hammond Law Senate in the affirmative showed the discriminations and rate wars which must follow a merger and the stimulus to commerce and the early settlement of our country which was due to healthy competition. The Forum in denial showed the natural monopoly with the lessening of cost of transportation.

The argument of the teams
was well balanced and to an outsider the result was in doubt until the decision of the judges, Prof.
Macbride, Judge Hayes and W.
P. Coast, was announced as two for the affirmative.

All students in the college of liberal arts who find it necessary or desirable to shorten the time for completing their course in the interest of an entrance upon professional courses, or for other reasons, or who must do extra work to graduate with their class, are advised and strongly urged to take advantage of the summer session for this purpose. There is reason to believe that the faculty will in the future, more narrowly restrict the allowance of extra hours, especially in view of the opportunities offered by the summer session.
