NORTHWESTERN MEETS IOWA IN CHICAGO

PROFITABLE FOOTBALL GAME WITH THE PURPLE

Northwestern Offers Nov. 14 in Chicago
—Board of Control Authorises Negotiations for Game

The board of athletic control yesterday authorized Manager McClain to open negotiations with Northwestern University for a football game to be played in Chicago, Nov. 14.

The action was taken in response to an offer of that date in Chicago from Northwestern University. The grounds in Chicago where the game is to be played have not yet been selected.

The University of Chicago eleven will play out of Chicago on Nov. 14, which leaves the Iowa-Northwestern game the center of attraction for that date. Northwestern is coming to the front next year with her new coach, Wallie McCormack and the game with her is expected to be quite profitable.

The scheduling of this game is hailed as a step by the board to secure a profitable schedule for next year. The board had been considering scheduling a game for Nov. 14 which involved a wearing trip and a loss of money.

IOWA 10; SIMPSON 2

Iowa defeated Simpson 10 to 2 on Iowa field yesterday. The game was won by hitting Pitcher Middleton hard. White secured a three-bagger and Coad, Burns, and Dye each two base hits.

Vos pitched a good game but Middleton was not up to his last year's form. Score by innings:

UNIVERSITY ASSEMBLY

Supt. Crane, of Marshalltown, Addresses the Students

The address at the assembly this morning was given by Supt. W. I. Crane, of the Marshalltown schools.

The talk was not only instructive but exceedingly interesting throughout. Although enlivened by numerous jokes and quotations Mr. Crane's words were mainly in a serious vein. The principle thought carried through the talk was the inquiry into the characteristics necessary to perfect manhood and womanhood and the means of their attainment.

Mr. Crane's definition of education is certainly a new one and not without merit. It is that "a man's education is the gumption he has when he has forgotten." Another thought that he introduced, was that neither knowledge nor ability to do counts but the doing or will power to do.

This afternoon Mr. Crane gave an address in Room 219 under the auspices of the department of pedagogy.

COLLEGIATE ALUMNAE

Iowa Branch With thirty-four Members Organized

An Iowa branch of the association of collegiate alumnae was organized with 34 charter members May 16, 1903 at a meeting held at the home of W. C. Wilcox. A number of guests from out of town were present in whose honor a luncheon was served at 12 o'clock. This was followed immediately by a business session at which a working constitution was adopted and the following officers were elected.

President, Mrs. Alice A. Baily, B. S. Wisconsin; 1st. Vice-Pres., Miss Bessie Sargeant Smith, B. A. Wellesley; 2nd. Vice-Pres. Miss Della Marquardt, B. A. Vassar; Secretary-treasurer, Mrs. W. C. Wilcox, B. A. Smith; Assistant secretary Miss Mabel Colcord, B. A. Radcliffe. The work of the branch will be along general educational lines. Standing committees on general education, Libraries and child labor were provided for. President MacLean gave a number of helpful suggestions in regard to the activities of the association.

The following members were present at the meeting. Mrs. Caeroll, Cedar Rapids; Miss Bessie Smith, Dubuque; Miss Ruth Grefe, Des Moines; Miss Breckenridge, Decorah; Miss Alice Young, Miss Quaintance, Miss Wood, Miss Case, Miss Colcord, Miss Sawyer, Mrs. W. C. Wilcox, Mrs. Ansley, Miss Schaffner, Miss Budington, Iowa City. President and Mrs. MacLean were also present.

MIDDLETONIAN RECEIVES

Medical Society Entertains at the Armory

The Middletonian Medical Society held their second annual reception last evening at the armory. The evening was opened by Miss Clara Whitmore, who told what Middletonian means and of its future. She was followed by Prof. Jepson, giving some reminiscences of Dean Middleton's life. He was also desirous of having the society and alumni establish a Middletonian lecture-ship in the near future. Dean Guthrie also recited some incidents in the professional career of Dean Middleton which showed the greatness of the man.

Don Talcott, '04, responded to the "Senior Middletonians as the juniors see them." He handled the subject in a very able manner.

The grand march was played at 9:30 and was led by Dr. Littig and Miss Ainsworth, '03.

The armory presented a pleasing appearance. It was decorated in the colors of the college of medicine. Refreshments were served in the balcony during the entire evening.

STATE TENNIS MEET

SIX COLLEGES COMPETE HERE THIS WEEK

Iowa Field to Have Tournament Thursday Friday and Saturday, Grinnell Cornell, Penn, Ames, Normal and Iowa

The annual meet of the State Tennis Association will be held on Iowa's courts this week. Teams from six colleges, Grinnell, Cornell, Ames, Normal, Penn and Iowa, will contest for the state championship.

Heretofore the association has comprised only four members, Grinnell, Cornell, Penn and Iowa. During the years that teams from these colleges have met, the contests have been close and the playing fierce. The records for the past few years have been:

Iowa Cornell Grinnell Penn
Singles	5	1	3	2
Doubles	4	6	1	0

Generally there have been two teams in doubles and two men in singles from each college. This year however, with six competing colleges, there will be only one team in each from each of the colleges.

Ed Bailey, who has for several years successfully competed for Iowa, will again uphold the "Old Gold" in the singles. In the doubles Bailey will play with J. C. Monnett of the Graduate College.

The other teams which will compete are:

Grinnell: Singles—Harry Belden or Alex Blatherwick.

Doubles—Belden, and Blatherwick; sub Harris.

Cornell: Singles—Joe Maxwell; sub C. G. Yorán.

Doubles—Maxwell and Elliot, subs Yorán and B. Bush.

Normal: Singles—A. C. Joy. Doubles—J. S. Shearer and Roy Hoats.

Penn: Singles—Thornburg or Malcolm.

Doubles—Malcolm and Thornburg.

Ames: Singles—M. B. Holbrook.

Doubles—Holbrook and Tellier.

All of these teams are composed of fast players, Cornell and Grinnell having especially strong aggregations. The first match will be called at the courts at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. The tournament will continue morning and afternoon until the tournament is decided, the final matches being played on Saturday.

Especial effort has been made by the tennis managers to have the courts in good shape. The courts are in excellent condition and will allow of fast play.

$2.25 to State Meet

All those who intend to avail themselves of the excursion rates to Des Moines of $2.25 for the round trip on the date of the State Meet, Wednesday, May 27, will please sign their names on the lists at the Iowan Office, Smoke House, Wieneke's cigar store, and Parsons & Schneider. Two hundred names are necessary to guarantee the rate and a special train.

LECTURE IN FRENCH

M. Mabileau Speaks in Auditorium on Relations With France

M. Mabileau, the eminent French statesman, scholar, sociologist and professor, lectured in the auditorium last night under the auspices of the department of French and the Alliance-Francaise. Since the lecture was in French the audience was somewhat small.

M. Mabileau in the course of his lecture dealt with the relations between France and the United States. He treated the matter first from the historical standpoint.

He showed the relation between the two countries during the American Revolution. He told of the work of La Fayette and other Frenchmen who came to this country to help out the American because they were the under dog, so to speak. He said that the French were ever ready to proclaim freedom and lend help to the weak.

M. Mabileau asserted that the political relations between the two countries are cordial and becoming more and more so. The French are regaining the prestige which they lost through industrial and commercial troubles. France is now the political ally of the United States.

Economically M. Mabileau expressed a hope that the pending reciprocity treaty between the two countries might be ratified by the U. S. Senate. The relations are commercially very close as each country is dependent for many things on the other.

As regards civilization he found the only fundamental difference. The civilization in America is that of business, the mechanical governing of the powers of nature. The French on the other hand, are masters in understanding the powers of the human soul. Their culture is internal, ours is external.

As regards the literary relations, M. Mabileau said that the American philosophers and great writers follow the French, in style, language, and treatment of subjects, much more than the English.

May Debate Cornell

Prof. H. E. Gordon has received a letter from Cornell University offering to debate with Iowa next year.

The letter is from Mr. Will L. Ranson of the Cornell debating union. It states that the Cornell debating union is desirous to know whether Iowa's debating schedule is so arranged for next year that we could consider taking a debate with them. No definite preparation is made for a debate and none probably will be until Iowa signifies a willingness to enter into negotiations. The matter has not yet been presented to the debating league and it is not known what action that body will take on the proposition.

State Tennis Meet

The tournament of the Iowa State Tennis Association calls for the support of every loyal student. Iowa should win the matches, but the loyal support of the student body would do much towards turning it from a probability into a certainty. All students with the Iowa spirit should be on the courts as often as possible during the next four days. There is not one of us who cannot afford the time to attend at least one meeting of the tournament. And aside from attending from loyalty, the love of a closely-fought, fast game of tennis should, and of course will, draw large crowds to the matches. The teams which will compete in this meet are all composed of good men. Many of the players are men of experience and some have competed in state tournaments before. The matches will, for the most part, be closely contested sets of fast tennis.

Every student with any leisure time should attend the tournament either through love of the game or from a spirit of loyalty in supporting Iowa's athletic teams.

Chas. H. Clarke, L. A. '84, is visiting at the Beta house for a few days.

Miss Ethel Golden '98 of Vinton was an over Sunday visitor in the city.

The Kappas are enjoying a spread at the home of Miss Grace Padmore this afternoon.

Sigma Chi will give a supper and dance at the Country Club Thursday evening.

Lewis Taylor, L. A. '06, is confined to his room with a sprained knee, the result of two much informal athletics.

At the Hahnemann Medical association which meets at Des Moines tomorrow, Drs. Bywater, Newberry, Becker, Gilchrist, and Hazard, Iowa City, are on the program. Dean Royal will reply to the toast "Our University" at their banquet tomorrow evening.

The inter-society baseball league has ordered a $50 trophy for the winning team. The prize will be a very handsome silver loving cup. It will be a prize well worth the efforts the several teams have put forth. The cup is expected to arrive in a few days.

Phi Rho Sigma held an informal smoker Monday evening. Prof. Jenson talked to the fraternity on the history of surgery. Prof. Guthrie responded with a few stories and emphasis upon the importance of the early history of medicine and surgery to the student of medicine today.

THE Burlington Route has just issued two publications of great interest to homeseekers.

"Nebraska" is the title of a 48-page book descriptive of the agricultural resources of the state, profusely illustrated with farm scenes and supplemented with an accurate sectional map.

"Big Horn Basin" is an illustrated folder telling all about the rich but undeveloped portion of Northwestern Wyoming. The Big Horn Basin contains wonderful openings for small ranches along good streams, with a million acres of government land open for settlement under the United States land laws.

Both publications will be sent to any address on receipt of two cents in stamps. Address J. FRANCIS, General Passenger Agent, Burlington Route, Omaha

Profits of Military

Colonel Geo. R. Burnett and the committee of officers in charge of the Military Ball, held last Friday night, report that the net profits were $52. Considering the heavy expenses of the party, the profits indicate an exceptionally large attendance. The proceeds will be turned over to the Athletic Union.

Ero. Special

The freshman girls of Erodolphian Monday night presented the farce "A Detective in Petticoats." Virginia Haldeman as the detective made a decided hit. In the minor part of the maid, Sadie Jacobs rendered the part like a trained actress, while Pearl Stone as leading lady sustained a difficult part with ease.

After a recent game some miscreant stole a new mask and protector from the athletic park. The outfit was the property of the inter-society league.

All students in the college of liberal arts who find it necessary or desirable to shorten the time for completing their course in the interest of an entrance upon professional courses, or for other reasons, or who must do extra work to graduate with their class, are advised and strongly urged to take advantage of the summer session for this purpose. There is reason to believe that the faculty will in the future, more narrowly restrict the allowance of extra hours, especially in view of the opportunities offered by the summer session.
