The University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois
The Burlington Route has just issued two publications of great interest to homeseekers. "Nebraska" is the title of a 48-page book descriptive of the agricultural resources of the state, profusely illustrated with farm scenes and supplemented with an accurate sectional map. "Big Horn Basin" is an illustrated folder telling all about the rich but undeveloped portion of Northwestern Wyoming. The Big Horn Basin contains wonderful openings for small ranches along good streams, with a million acres of government land open for settlement under the United States land laws. Both publications will be sent to any address on receipt of two cents in stamps. Address J. FRANCIS, General Passenger Agent, Burlington Route, Omaha.

SUMMER SESSION ENGLISH

In view of the increased attention given to the subject of English in the high schools, the State University is making special endeavor to give instruction which will add teachers in the high schools in this work. Two specialists in high school English have been secured to give courses in the summer session. Professor Huber Gray Buehler, English master in the famous Hotchkiss school of Lakeville, Connecticut, will give two courses daily during the last three weeks of the session. Professor Buehler has gained great distinction among the eastern colleges and universities through the studies of the students and is prepared in English. He is also an author of wide reputation and a pleasing public speaker. He will be available for one public address during the summer session. Miss Ida M. Street, of the East Division High School, Milwaukee Wisconsin, a former teacher in Oskaloosa, and at one time head of the department of English in the Ann Arbor, Michigan, high school, will offer two courses daily during the first three weeks. Miss Street is also an author who has published many articles in important magazines and has one book. The courses offered by these two instructors are as follows:

Rates for Commencement

A rate of one fare and one third has been secured for the commencement exercises on all railroads. A certificate must be obtained at the time the ticket is purchased and filed later at Iowa City to entitle the holder to the reduced rates.
