STATE NORMAL GAMES

BIG EXCITEMENT COMING TOMORROW

State Normal Team Will Bring Many Rooters

The State Normal team will bring many rooters with it tomorrow. An Excursion will be run from Cedar Falls and Water- l00. More excursionsists will join the train at Cedar Rapids, and another excursion will be run from Davenport.

The State Normal team is reported as much encouraged over the prospects Saturday because of Iowa's low score against Co. It is shown that the game tomorrow will be played at the fair ground as it will be impossible to get Iowa field in shape for the game. At present the field is a sea of mire and will require several warm days to put it into even fair conditions.

FOOTBALL NOTES

Now's the Ballot.

The young fellow bushy as to hair and clothed in armour not unlike the men out of school ages, besides other harness, has the call from this time on to Thanksgiving day.

What strenuous, it is fine sport, is football.

Your football player must have a well developed body capable of quick movements and long end- urance. His mind must be alert. His soul must be full of enthusiasm and loyalty to his side. And all these qualities of his being make him a valuable ob- tience. His discipline is severe as well as stern.

True, there's a spice of danger.

But the football player is fairly warranted in a suspended sentence. Of the rules is to limit the chances of unnecessary danger. The rules of 1908 provide for more open work and less mass plays. It is those same mass plays that usually do the mischief. You cannot pile flesh and bones into a wriggling pyramid without the chance of bruising flesh or break- ing bones.

When the game is fairly played and is devoid of bulldoing and unnecessary roughness it is con- ductive of good results. It gives the bulldozer vent to surplus vitality. It develops the good qualities of citizenship.

"The battle of Waterloo was fought there," said the Iowa Duke, pointing to a college crick- et field.

Who knows how many battles for good citizenship are fought within the enclosure of a football fence?" (Des Moines News)

The team last night went through a light workout which consisted for the most part of drill on defensive work, in which the team has been weak, in the first games.

The average weight of the Illinois team, in their first game was 179 pounds, with 170 averages about 100.

Atkinson the giant sub guard of last years team appeared at practice in uniform last night, the first time this season.

Gibbs the promising candidate for full, who has been laid up with a lame shoulder, is able to be put at out practice again.

The team spent an hour at sig- nal practice, in the Armoury last evening.

The rooters were somewhat surprised at the scores in the match between Northern and the Chicago, Monmouth games. The former was 112 to 0, the latter 90 to 6. This makes it look as if these two teams might figure as candidates for the championship of the Big Nine.

The Ames people still seem to feel that they have been slighted by the presence of some talented men, who, for the most part, are in the first line, and is devoid of bulldozing. The discipline is as severe as stern. The band is usually experienced men. It goes well, because of the presence of some talented men, who, for the most part, are in the first line, and is devoid of bulldozing. The discipline is as severe as stern. The band is usually experienced men.

When the band makes its first appearance at the Iowa game Thursday, the band has exceptional ability shown by its good work performance of last year. Chief Musician F. R. Malbeke was trained in military work in a three years enlistment in the 1st U. S. Cavalry under Walker and Grubb. The band is of the type where he secures their discipline. Chief Musician F. R. Malbeke was trained in military work in a three years enlistment in the 1st U. S. Cavalry under Walker and Grubb. The band is of the type where he secures their discipline.

The band is materially helped by a man of some talent and by some men who have experience.

Non music has been ordered. It will be the intention to make it a parade band. Some new men have wanted particularly a snare drum.

Conflict of classes still hinder some from attending but this week will soon be rumbled.

Laws of '05 Kicked

The junior laws hold an exciting election this morning. Electioneering has been lively all the week. But the ticket elected was a strong man. MAc- son captured the presidency, A. D. Hornsby is chosen vice- president, and R. R. Rameen secretary and treasury. The delegation to the President MacLean of C. W. Benson, and the law editor of the 1904 Hawkeye is Dr. W. Rich.

To Honor Beardshear

Prof. A. A. Loos will go to Des Moines tonight to attend a meet- ing of the friends of the late Dr. Beardshear of Ames. The meeting will be at the home of L. S. Johnson, Librarian Johnson Brigham, and the proposition of the erection of a memorial will be considered.

College Men Not Lazy

At the present time there is a labor contest on in the city of Minneapolis. The laborers in the four mills made demands which the employers refused to grant. To enforce their demands the laborers struck. The union men were strong enough to keep out non-union labor and the strikers seemed to promise success.

The mill owners offered two dollars for a six hour day's work. But the union was so strong that none dared work. Then several students went to the University of Minnesota and offered their services. The strikers accepted it, and the union men were strong enough to keep out non-union labor and strike seemed to promise success.

DAILY IOWAN.

IOWA CITY, IA., Oct. 8, 1903.

DEAR FATHER AND SISTER:

Everything is so new and strange to me, that I almost feel as if a rat in a strange garret! However, I am sure I am going to like it here. Some of the fellows who have been here some time, look at me with a look that seems to say, “Why are you on earth?” and I overheard a couple of the fellows remarking that it would be a good plan to use a lawn mower over me as I had too much color. Don’t know just what they meant by it, but I may have occasion to practice boxing or give leg ball. Hav’t decided which I will do if I am put to the test.

Expenses pile up so fast that I hate to ask for anything more, but you know I have no Fountain Pen. Shall I use a steel pen or buy a cheap Fountain, or get a good one? A lot of the fellows have the Parker Pen, or the “Lucky Curve,” as the boys call them, and a few have the Waterman. The older fellows say, “Buy a Lucky Curve,” for it is a little better and cleaner than the other kind, and besides, if you break it, it is repaired free of charge.” They are sold by Irwin & Elyson. As I am spending my money I may do as you say. Please let me know at once.

Love to Sister. See that old Bill is well groomed. I miss him much.

Your affectionate son

JOHN P. WILLIAMS.
