DEFEAT FOR GOPHERS

IOWA SHOULD WIN AT MINNEAPOLIS

Showing of Varsity Against Drake Makes Iowa Possible Victor—Drake Strong

Iowa 12, Minnesota 6, or something like that. It looks awfully good, and it's likely to happen Saturday on Northrup field. Iowa showed the greatest advance of her weeks of steady improvement in the Drake game Saturday.

Iowa's Championship team of 1900 defeated Drake 26 to 0 the week before the Chicago game. The team which Drake brought to Iowa field this year was the strongest team Drake has yet played against Iowa. It was evenly balanced, very large and fast.

Iowa's showing of superiority over the strong Drake eleven was conclusive. Still unexperienced in some of the finer points of the game, the Iowa team showed its admirers and its opponents and all who were on Iowa field to see, Saturday that Iowa has a strong team this year.

Manager Spangler could not have arranged a better game for the week before Minnesota than the Drake game. The Christians were big, overweighing Iowa twenty pounds to the man at least, just about the overweight that Minnesota will put against Iowa. Their backs were fast, just as Minnesota's backs are said by careful watchers to be this year.

At the beginning of the season, it was not hoped that Coach Chalmers would be able to build up a team this year that would defeat the Gophers, with the green material with which he started. It was hoped that he would be able to develop a team that would win the state games and be a nucleus that would be able to do things to Minnesota next year when the Gophers come to Iowa field.

But the present stage of play by the Hawkeyes renders necessary a revision of expectations.

A CHANGE OF HEART

Drake University will probably be the last State team to come to Iowa field this year relying on Coach Lindgren's statement "Almost any minor team could defeat Iowa this year." There is no doubt but the Christians were very confident and that the change from their feelings at the beginning of the game and at the close was most noticeable.

STORIES OF THE GAME

The first half ended Iowa 6, Drake 6, Fred Buckley having made the first touchdown after five minutes of play and Jordan of Drake having run 35 yards on Iowa's right end while Waters was playing too wide.

In the second half, Magowan scored two touchdowns and Fred Buckley one. Drake's giants began to retire toward the end of the second 35 minute half, but other giants continued to replace them.

Despite the fact that the score does not show it, Iowa played better football in the first half than in the second. Frequent penalties by the umpire kept Iowa from making her good work count.

Mr. Graham was possible justified in the penalties he inflicted on Iowa and it was an excellent thing for the Hawkeyes to have their faults forceably pointed out, but for a game that is close, an Iowan would prefer to have an umpire equally able to see the faults of Iowa's opponents. Mr. Lindgren of Cornell, who by some chance was agreed upon as head linesman, was another man who saw Drake's tripping and fouls but did not penalize. At one time he Lindgren had his whistle to his lips as Waters was tripped but concluded to of veterans, and often helped the man for five yards more after he was off his feet. This helping spirit and the fine physical condition of the men did much toward winning the game.

Manager Spangler wants 500 of the blanks printed in another column filled out and returned to him.

The Delta Tau Delta's gave a very delightful party Friday night at their chapter house on Burlington street.

The North Eastern Iowa Teachers' Association will meet at Mason City Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Professors F. E. Bolton and J. F. Brown are on the program.

The following were guests at the Beta House Saturday: E. L. Sabin, Des Moines; H. Kelley, Des Moines; T. Green, Moline; E. H. Carpenter, Burlington; F. McCutchen, Holstein; Dr. Chas. Coggsell, Cedar Rapids.

EXCURSION TO MINNEAPOLIS

It is necessary to guarantee a large crowd for Minneapolis next Friday in order to secure the five dollar rate.

All who will go, sign and cut out this coupon at once, and mail to H. E. Spangler.

We expect to go to Minneapolis October 16, on the excursion.

MAIL TODAY

forget the duty imposed on him by the rules.

Drake's score was made during a slight let-up by the Iowa team. Mr. Bacon, Drake's assistant coach had a signal to Capt. Steward for the play on which Jordan scored, it being his hat tipped back on his head Drake's big captain saw this signal twice displayed after the touchdown and the play was tried. But Iowa stopped it without gain.

The first half closed with the ball in the center of the field and the score tied 6 to 6.

Between the halves the two bands marched around the field accompanied by a large number of the rooters for both teams.

Iowa went into the second half with a determination to win but found that Drake's team was equally determined and in the first five minutes, Drake held Iowa far down on Drake's one yard line. Magowan's touchdown soon followed, after which the game becomes onesided and before the half closed two more touchdowns were made, but Jones failed to kick both, and the game ended with the score 22 to 6.

The team played with a spirit

VEBLEN ON NORWAY

AN INTERESTING VISIT TO NORWAY

Professor A.A. Veblen Lecturer Before the Edda Society On His Trip

The friends of Edda Saturday evening had the opportunity of hearing Prof. A. A. Veblen tell of his summer in Norway. More than a hundred stereopticon views of points of interest were shown.

A visit to Norway may be varied according to the season and locality visited. The country has a coast line of 1,700 miles, and reckoning all inlets of about 15,000 miles, with about 150,000 islands along the coast. Most of the population dwell along the coast, as the interior is too mountainous.

Most of the professor's time was spent in a typical mountain district of the interior, the province of Valdres, which was the ancient stronghold of the Veblen family, as well as many other well known citizens of the United States.

Professor Veblen took his travels over two of the mountain valley roads perfectly macadamized, as are all Norse roads. Many quaint old farm buildings were shown, which have stood for hundreds of years, with their little farms of a few acres, set at an angle of from 30 to 90 degrees on the mountain sides. Everything seems to slant in Norway. Farms were covered with immense piles of rock, and in some places earth had to be carried to the church yards to make burial grounds.

Many of the old churches have stood for 600 to 800 years, preserving the mediaeval forms of architecture. A characteristic feature of the country district were literary societies and rifle clubs. Every man and boy in Norway learns to shoot as a patriotic duty.

Professor Veblen was present at a Fourth of July celebration in Valdres where all the Norwegian-American visitors in the district assembled to hear the Declaration of Independence and speeches in in the Norwegian language, and cheer for Old Glory. The Norwegian people have a great interest in American affairs.

The population of Norway is only about 2,000,000, while there are about one and a half millions of Norwegians and their descendants in the United States. Almost every locality in Norway has representatives in the United States, and, as evidenced by the group, at the Valdres celebration, are almost uniformly substantial and prosperous citizens, except a few teachers, as the professor naively remarked.

E. W. Meinert L. A. '07 of Marion is pledged to Phi Delta Theta.

Be Loyal to Iowa Institutions

The following able article is taken from Midland Schools. It speaks for itself.

It will be observed that more than 560 Iowa teachers were enrolled in the institutions of other states this summer. Iowa schools were able to draw less than half this number into the various schools of the state. Our own State University drew but 15 students from outside the state, while over 150 Iowa students entered the universities of other states. Why is it that we cannot hold our own with the schools of other state? Are our schools inferior? We think not.

We are of the opinion that many Iowa principals enter institutions in other states more for the purpose of being able to advertise that they have studied in Chicago, Ann Arbor, Madison, Harvard, Columbia, etc., than because they can find work in these schools that suits their needs better than that given in our state schools. And when they have entered these famous schools they are placed under the instruction of tutors whose ability has never been proven.

One Iowa principal traveled 1900 miles to a noted institution where he expected to do some special work in a given line. He was surprised when his professor announced that the best authority on the subject was a professor in the State University of Iowa, whose writings on the subject would form the basis for the term's work.

We are convinced that at least three fourth of the teachers who go to the larger schools for their summer's study could do far better work in our own state schools.

An Iowa educator remarked recently: "I spent four summers in succession in Chicago University. Last summer I had occasion to visit our own state university. I was surprised to find that Dr. Bolton, Dr. Brown and the other professors at work during the summer, were doing work that was superior to that given in similar classes at Chicago."

Our own professors are quoted as authorities in their lines, and they should be recognized as such by the teachers of their own state. We heard a professor in the state University of Wisconsin say: "The best authorities on these subjects in the United States are Dr. Patrick and Dr. Seashore of the State University of Iowa." And there sat under the sound of his voice fifteen Iowa students who had traveled hundreds of miles to learn that their own state had a university with a faculty that is not excelled anywhere in the lines of work they attempt to teach.

Let us be more loyal to our own state institutions. Perhaps they should bring their work more prominently before the people of the state; but as principals and superintendents we should investigate our home institutions before we send students into other states where they will get no better schooling than they could have secured at home. Our State University should have a summer school of 500 next year instead of 200. All of our Iowa summer schools should have an increased enrollment. We now export more students than we import. The balance of trade should be in our favor. We should be loyal to Iowa institutions, give them our patronage, and help them to come into such prominence that students will flock across our borders to get the benefit of our educational institutions

Nebraska Seeks Debates

At a called meeting of the debating league Friday a communication from the University of Nebraska, asking for an interstate debate was read. Much as the League desired to enter a compact with a University of Nebraska's rank. it was not deemed advisable to make further dates at this time.

The League decided that it had all the work that could be done, with two sharp contests with Minnesota and Wisconsin ahead.
Iowa has won nearly all of these debates and the opinion that more work could not be done, and done well, prevailed.

The number of communications received within the last year is indicative of the University's rapid advance and her recognition as an institution which stands pre-eminent in forensic lines.

PARKER Lucky Curve Fountain Pen

If I could convey to you how much real pleasure, comfort and satisfaction there is in store for you should you decide to become an owner and user of one of my fountain pens, I am sure you would not be long without. I have never been satisfied with making merely a good pen, but I am making what is acknowledged to be absolutely the best pen in the world. Honest pens that will wear and are capable of many years of satisfactory use.

Special features are the famous "Lucky Curve," Anti-Break Cap and Accident Policy, insuring against breakage for one year, any rubber part of the fountain. If you cannot find one of the 9,000 dealers, please order direct, as I can more than please you. Parker pens range in price from $1.50 for No. 1, which is a nice little pen, fully warranted, to $2.00 for No. 18, larger than No. 1, to $2.50 for Nos. 20 or 020, Screw Joint or Jointless. Very popular numbers $4.00 buys No. 24 or No. 024.

These latter pens are indeed magnificent goods of large sizes. I also sell a dollar pen, the Palmer (without the Lucky Curve), an excellent pen for the money.

Let me send you my catalogue which shows cuts of the foregoing as well as many other styles and "The Reason Why," as well as the name of a dealer who sells the "Lucky Curve." Kindly write me today.
