DRAKE WILL MARRY

WILL WED MISS MIDDDEL-KOFF OF ADEL

Fred C. Drake, President's Private Secretary, will be Married October 21

Fred C. Drake, President's private secretary to President G. E. MacLean, will be married October 21st Miss Golda Middleton of Adel.

This announcement was not made at the time, as the place where Mr. Drake is accustomed to collect items of universality was not at hand for copies of reporters, but came from a fraternity brother on campus.

The wedding will take place at the home of the bride's parents in Adel, the residence of Mr. Drake's home. Quite a romance, extending back to childhood days is understood to underwrite the wedding announcement.

Mr. Drake entered the college of liberal arts in 1897 and was seen as one of the strong men of his class.

He was freshman chalker for Irving and a member of several, sometimes victorious class and preliminary debating teams of Irving Institute. He was a managing editor of the Vindicator Reporter and editor-in-chief of the Daily Iowan in its first year, being one of the founders of the paper. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

Miss Middleton is known to many university people, having been in Iowa City at several commencement exercises.

Whether we win or whether we lose at Iowa today, let us remember that it is only a game.

Those persons knowing where tar barrels, empty boxes or convenient wood-piles are, should report with goods in case of a victory over Iowa today. (We understand that no one reported, Ed.)

If Iowa should win on Northrup fold, what a bunch of things coming to Minnesota would be evened up.

Will Manager Spangler have a bunch, a dream or a feeling in his bones about the Minnesota score this year?

Another proof of the need of an auditorium, the crash at the opening of Sir Frederick Pollock's series of lectures last evening.

Isn't it worth five dollars to be saved of being on Northrup fold if Iowa should win? The game will be close and worth going miles to see.

From present prospects, the Iowa crowd that goes to Minneapolis this year may approach the record made by Nebraska two years ago.

The Daily Iowan should be in every student's room. It will be worth many times the value of the subscription during the year. Drop the Iowan a line asking to have the paper sent.

The graduate college is attracting a larger number of students from outside the state than any other college in the university. Students are here from Japan, England, Canada and from many of the states of the Union.

The Iowan will make a specialty of alumni news this year. The paper will be sent to any alumnus in the United States or
