POLLOCK INITIATED

PHI DELTA PHI INITIATE ENGLISHMAN

Sir Frederick Pollock Becomes A Member of the McClain Chapter

Sir Frederick Pollock was initiated into MacClain chapter of Phi Delta Phi last night.

Every member of the chapter was present in the fraternity halls to see the noted Englishman do the stunts required of all initiates. Sir Frederick was accompanied by Professor Wilcox as his friend. Professor Wilcox is also a member of the Phi Delta Phi. His services were called for to explain things to the visitor and prevent any balking.

Sir Frederick took his initiation like the thoroughbred he is and manifested a deep interest in all the proceedings

A., and member of the Iowa-Wisconsin debating team. Besides these honors he secured the Lowden prize in Greek and second prize in the Pickard and extempore debate in his senior year. After graduating he taught for three years in Highland Park College. Mr. Weldy will graduate from the Harvard law school next June.

Prof. A. V. Sims left today for Waterloo where he will deliver a paper on "The Engineer and The Death Rate," before the Iowa League of Municipalities.

Large Crowd Going to Minneapolis

One of the largest crowds that ever went to a football game from Iowa City will see the Minnesota-Iowa game on Northrup field Saturday.

Manager Spangler has had a large number of replies from the blanks printed in the IOWAN. One day more will be given those who desire to go to make their desires known to Manager Spangler. The more who go, the lower the rate.

CLYDE WILLIAMS' VOW

Clyde Williams, Professor Chalmer's assistant has decided that he will go to Minneapolis with the team.

As is well known to Clyde's closest friends, he vowed two years ago during the game on Northrup field, that he could never again return to Northrup field with an Iowa eleven until he came with a conquering team that would even up some of the things that Minnesota did to him.

When Manager Spangler secured Williams to assist in coaching this year, he especially excepted the Minnesota game, saying that he would not consent to bind himself to go to Minneapolis with a losing team. Manager Spangler consented to this.

"I am going to Minneapolis with the team," said Clyde after the practice on Iowa field. "I am going to get my revenge on these fellows this year. I may be mistaken? Well, there are chances in football, but I ought to know what Iowa's bunch is and I officiated at the Minnesota-Ames game last Saturday.

PRACTICE WAS BRILLIANT

The practice last night was most satisfactory to the Iowa coaches. The team ran through the signals finely. Jones, Allen, Coulthard and Watters were kept out of the scrimmage to let them rest up a bit for Saturday's game. Atkinson was put at right guard, where he played very nicely. Swinn was tried at fullback during signal practice and in the scrimmage was placed on the scrubs opposite Donovan, where he gave Donnie a lot of trouble. Salisbury, a new candidate, played a fine center for the scrubs and Roy Buckley, tackle on the second team, did some excellent work.

GOLF WITH CHICAGO

IOWA TO PLAY CHICAGO AT ROCK ISLAND

Gordon, Finkbine and Fullerton To Play For Iowa Against Maroons

The University of Chicago golf team has taken steps to arrange a match with a team representing this university. The date has not been set but one of Iowa's enthusiasts said that it would probably be within the next two weeks. The match will be played at Rock Island where there is one of the best links in the west.

The Iowa team has not been chosen. Finkbine, former state champion and runner up in the Trans-Mississippi Meet, Gordon and Fullerton will be three of the team to defend Iowa's prestige over Chicago. Chicago has a strong team and a great match is expected.

WEST EXCELLS EAST

So Says Sir Frederick Pollock This Morning

"The West is far more metropolitan than the East and in this country this condition increases as one approaches the Mississippi Valley," said Sir Frederick Pollock addressing the assembly this morning. He spoke as a member of the two great English Universities and he made a strong plea for pure classical learning for its own sake and not as acquired merely for the business of money getting. "The business of universities," he said, "is not to teach men to make money, but to teach people, while they are making money, not to forget that they are human beings."

"The more one comes west the more diversified and mixed seems to be the interests that surround one. There is a great temptation in the midst of such prosperity as is found here, to belittle learning but you have captured the weapons of modern business and you are turning them against materialism."

Scales of Justice

Sir Frederick Pollock's second lecture was upon the development of the various English courts. "Courts must be just if they desire to live," he said; and he cited as a successful court that of chancery, and as a failure the Star Chamber. "Chancery started upon canonical law as its foundation, and yet it gradually grew until it became not the mistress but the companion of the common law."

The Senior Engineering Class will go to Oxford Monday to inspect the new Hanging Rock Bridge.

EXCURSION SECURED

MANAGER SPANGLER GETS FIVE DOLLAR RATE

Excursion Will Start at Nine O'clock Friday Night—700 Seats Reserved

"The five dollar rate to Minneapolis has been secured," said Manager Spangler this noon.

"I find students, alumni, and citizens are all very enthusiastic about the game. The very low rate which has been secured will bring hundreds of Iowan's to Minneapolis Saturday.

"I have reserved 700 grandstand seats for the Iowa crowd. This includes 400 set apart for Iowa students. The rest will be held for alumni, of whom there will be a great many at the game. Requests for tickets are coming in with every mail."

Manager Spangler has secured the Iowa seats in the center of the west grandstand on Northrup field.

The University of Iowa band, thirty-four pieces, will be taken on the trip. It will play in front of the West hotel Saturday morning.

Roy C. Hardman spent Saturday and Sunday in Cedar Rapids.

Workmen are busy today tearing down the brick backs at the Armory and old heating plant.

The Senior Engineers missed classes today on account of the absence of Prof. Sims and Prof. Magowan.

The "Press Censor"

The unfortunate announcement in a local paper last summer that F. C. Drake had been appointed "press censor" has caused considerable annoyance to Mr. Drake. The position to which he was appointed is the president's private secretary. For this position he was well fitted by newspaper experience and service for the university in several important matters in the state.

Being a newspaper man, Mr. Drake is particularly well fitted to gather news at the president's office. Reporters can not spare the time to wait to see the President often, and the President can not at all times admit reporters ahead of other callers. Reporters can still see the president if they desire, and no censorship has been placed on news by Mr. Drake or any other official at the President's office.

It has been the experience of several reporters this fall that Mr. Drake has helped them very much in gathering news. If reporters do not wish to use his assistance, they are no worse off than before.

But the expression, "press censor" was wrongly applied and should not be understood to exist save in a joking sense.

Wonder if Sir Frederick really understood all the jokes at his initiation into Phi Delta Phi last night?

The IOWAN board will meet in the usual place, Northwest room of the old capitol, at 1:00 p. m. Saturday. Every member should be present.

COAST & SON eod

Prof. C. C. Nutting, professor of zoology in the University of Iowa has a very interesting article in the August number of the Popular Science Monthly on "The Bird Rookeries on the Island of Laysan." Professor Nutting visited this most interesting place on his recent Hawaiian cruise and he pictures the island and describes its inhabitants in a most delightful manner.

AMUSEMENTS

Secure your seats in advance to avoid the rush at the door for Walker Whiteside tonight.

The American Stock Company will open a three nights and Saturday matinee, Thursday night, October 15, when they will present the new four act comedy drama success, "Life in New York", when a lady will be admitted free if accompanied by a 30c paid ticket if reserved prior to 6:00 o'clock opening night. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Capital and labor are debatable subjects today, and are rather odd ones for the stage, but when they are dove tailed in with love, sorrow and tempest-tossed passions, as they are in "The Middleman," to be presented at the Opera House on next Monday October 19, they become the contrasting elements a great play needs and are handled in "The Middleman" with wonderful dexterity and power.

Capt. Richmond Pearson Hobson, U. S. N., the hero of the Merrimac, lectures October 19, at the armory of "The United States as a World Power."

Captain Hobson attracts large audiences throughout the country not only as a popular hero of the Hispano-American War, but because he is magnetic and attractive as an orator. He brings a wealth of information in a message that pertains to our national life, and inspires patriotism. Seats reserved without extra charge at Cerny & Louis' on and after Wednesday October 14, at 1:00 o'clock at 50c.

The following is clipped from a recent number of Western Electrician: "The State University of Iowa has received from Mr. and Mrs. Euclid Sanders of Iowa City, alumnus and alumna of the institution, an unusual but useful gift, consisting of the Terrill mill dam on the Iowa River, a mile away from the university. Upon the mill site the university will erect a waterpower plant and hydraulic laboratory and upon a contiguous hillside will build a reservoir. The students of the school of applied science will receive practical training at the new property, and the power will provide for the lighting of the university buildings and grounds, the driving of machinery and other needs of the institution."
