Still the cry is, On to Minneapolis.

If you go to Minneapolis don't forget to Root; and do it spontaneously. That's the kind that helps.

Say have you got five dollars? If you have, you can spend it to advantage by buying a ticket to Minneapolis.

The excellent appearance made by the battalion and band last evening speaks well for the short time they have been training.

What with inter-collegiate debates, oratorical contests, tennis and golf contests all coming to us from schools of reputation, it seems that Iowa is making a reputation, and a deserved one too.

Our freshman contest will probably close the first week in November. There is still a chance to enter and win a place. The only absolute requirement is an ability to work. Come and see us anyway we want to make the acquaintance of every freshman in the university.

There are those about the university, who think the only department to which they must be loyal is the one in which they are interested. While one should be true to his speciality, yet first, foremost and always, it should be included in a larger loyalty, that can take in the whole varsity.

Polygon held their first meeting of the year last night with Mr. Welch.

Graduate Club Elect Officers

The Graduate club of the university at a recent meeting elected officers for the ensuing year. W. E. Beck was chosen president; Alden Hoover secretary. Members of the executive committee are the Misses Brown, Lorenz, and Chawner and Messrs. Sever, Underwood and Boehm.

Mr. Crooks D. '07 of Carroll, Iowa has been pledged to the Xi Psi Phi.

Messrs. Brown, Whitley, and Jordon, visited over Sunday at the Sigma Nu house.

The best on the market, Parker's Jointless Fountain Pen at Startzman's Jewelry store. 7-28

The Oliver Typewriter turns work into play. It saves 75 per cent of the time needed for work with pen and ink. A child of ten years can write with it. Address J. T. BAILEY,

AMUSEMENTS

The American Stock Company will open a three nights and Saturday matinee, Thursday night, October 15, when they will present the new four act comedy drama success, "Life in New York", when a lady will be admitted free if accompanied by a 30c paid ticket if reserved prior to 6:00 o'clock opening night. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Capital and labor are debatable subjects today, and are rather odd ones for the stage, but when they are dove tailed in with love, sorrow and tempest-tossed passions, as they are in "The Middleman," to be presented at the Opera House on next Monday October 19, they become the contrasting elements a great play needs and are handled in "The Middleman" with wonderful dexterity and power.

Capt. Richmond Pearson Hobson, U. S. N., the hero of the Merrimac, lectures October 19, at the armory of "The United States as a World Power."

Captain Hobson attracts large audiences throughout the country not only as a popular hero of the Hispano-American War, but because he is magnetic and attractive as an orator. He brings a wealth of information in a message that pertains to our national life, and inspires patriotism. Seats reserved without extra charge at Cerny & Louis' on and after Wednesday October 14, at 1:00 o'clock at 50c.
