column was pulled to make room for a single entry.

The annual field meet was pulled off yesterday afternoon. Although a small crowd was out it was an enthusiastic one. The boys showed up in good form despite the small amount of training which they have done.

The short events showed great gains over last year. W. Davis of Cresco shows exceptional ability. Cresco and he has trained on a very small amount, is in excellent form and came within but one half inch of the state record. S. E. C. Johnson although he has trained well and is in excellent form and came within but one half inch of the state record. S. E. C. Johnson is proper food. Late university contests will be the practice yesterday was some of the best he has ever done. Allen served at fullback and P. W. Davis took the halves. Davis played well on offense but still shows the weakness on defense that has so far kept him off the Iowa team.

Fred Moore of Harlan played left end in a creditable manner. I. W. Johnston was tried for a short time at fullback, but was not heavy enough for the position.

Bolman, playing right end on the varsity, achieved the feat of scoring on the varsity, picking up the ball on a fumble and running 60 yards for a safety because some one touch down was the way to go.

Couhnie and Watters will probably be able to be in the line up tonight. The regular varsity players will now get another line-up in the scrimmages and the above contests and the games with the colleges of the university upon their ability of handling the question, "Resolved, that the closed shop system is detrimental to the permanent interest of organized labor." on November 18. The jury, the highest mark in this contest will have another contest on November 25. The three highest in this will be declared the representatives and the other three alternates.

Under the terms of the compact Illinois submits the question this year and Iowa has the choice of sides.

Dramatic Club

At the meeting of the Dramatic Club the following officers were elected: president, F. B. Kern; vice-president, L. C. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Sadie Jacobs, and manager, W. M. Baughn.

G. R. Hall, W. M. Baughn and Madge Young were selected to form the committee to choose the play that will be presented later in the season.

Earl S. W. St. L. Rod left yesterday for his home at Minneapolis, Minn.

James Remleys L. 01, returned to Anamosa after a short visit with friends at Iowa City.

WOMENSHOULD EXERCISE

Dr. Leora Johnson, Addressess:
The Women of University

Dr. Leora Johnson addressed the young women of the University yesterday afternoon at 4:30 in the auditorium on the subject "Hygiene." She said in substance that exercises should be a most important part of every young woman’s life in order to gain perfect health, and walking is the best exercise. In comparing the condition of her American girls with that of her American girls with that of her Scotch sister, Dr. Johnson said that an American girl was easily recognized by her attire and her erect walk, and on her own style of personal appearance. The English girls have beautiful complexities, but are sickly. Another necessary item is proper food. Late university contests will be the practice yesterday was some of the best he has ever done. Allen served at fullback and P. W. Davis took the halves. Davis played well on offense but still shows the weakness on defense that has so far kept him off the Iowa team.

At Minnesota there is a co-ed debating club which competes with the other debating teams in the university. Although the co-eds have never won the prize cup, they have always been in the finals.

The leader of the strikers at the Minneapolis four mills is a former graduate of the University of Minnesota, and the men talking the strikers’ places are also from the same university.
