JUNIORS TRY AGAIN

VOTE FORMER ACTIONS "NULL AND VOID"

Officers Elected and Class
Adjourns in Amity Smoking
The Pipe of Peace

There are no unhappy Junior Lits now. Neither are there juniors who feel that their class organization is in any way small or non-representative. All this is the result of a spirited meeting of the class yesterday afternoon.

About a week ago the junior class met and elected officers. At that time the election went through without a seeming possibility of friction. But the friction came later, juniors stood on the central walk and talked and continued for a week to talk much big talk. A large number in the class felt that this first election was not representative, even that the announcement calling the class had not been fairly posted and franked at the executive office. This was the situation. A "fight" to use the term current yesterday, was promised, in a fashion more vivid than the juniors had ever known before. Uncertain voters of the class became popular. But not to go into detail, this is the way it came out. With small discussion both parties amiably agreed that the former election was null and void. Then the class was without officers. Officers were needed. Nomination for the office of president were in order. But right here the question of the junior classification and the right to vote, arose. Committees on nationality, citizenship, and credentials were suggested. Finally the idea of calling the class roll was hit upon. Then indeed there was a weeding out, some silently stole away wearing sad faces, and likening their lot to that of the man without a country. Others rushed to the Registrar's office to see why the necessary credits were not forthcoming. "Time out" was taken never since the days of the freshman crush for registration was Dean Youngs' department so rushed. All her assistants were called into service. Even Barret was called in to assist; and for a time it seemed as though it would be necessary to send for Drake, the emergency of the case justifying tearing him away from his honey moon housekeeping.

Somewhat lessened in number the class proceeded to balloting on the presidential candidates. After a few stuffed ballot boxes and two or three tie votes Mr. Randall was declared the choice of the class by a close vote. Other officers were: Vice President, Anna Louis Secretary, Ethel Nichols, Treasurer, E. R. Blakely. The meeting attended by the class to a man, was entirely representative and conciliatory in

"We Will Run All Over Iowa"

Says Capt. Vanliew, of Grinnell

"We are going to run all over Iowa," said Captain Van Lieu of Grinnell in talking on the Iowa-Grinnell game with Minnesota players while Grinnell was in Minneapolis to play the Gophers.

"We are going to beat her by a big score this year. We are going to show Iowa how to play football.

This conversation was repeated several times to Minnesota players and caused a feeling of confidence among the Minnesota players regarding the Iowa game which bothered the Minnesota coaches very much.

Manager Spangler was told by Grinnell men yesterday that Grinnell had a good fighting chance to win the game with Iowa.

the highest degree. The spirit displayed indicates that the Junior Annual, The Prom, and other undertakings will be supported with the usual unified spirit of the class of 1905.

Middletonian

The Middletonian programs are always good. More their programs are unique. Their last evenings program was opened by a vocal solo by Miss Sebern. Dr. Albert an alumnus talked on his European trip last summer. "The Germans," he said, "are characterized by a lack of hurry." He then told of the hospital work at the University of Vienna. Miss Nimocks '05 then gave some "Dont's." Following this Murphy '05 gave a piano solo.

Then came the political evening the Socialists question was presented by Blythe '04 followed by Rosenbladt '04 for the Prohibitionists and he in turn by Faulk '04 for the Republican and closed by Albert '07 for the Democrats, some good politicians were spoiled when these men turned their attention to medicine.

Six O'clock Dinner

Miss Bertha Quaintance gave a six o'clock dinner at the Berkeley last evening to those who formerly were her assistants in the registrar's office.

Those present were Miss Abernathy, Messrs. Schench Barret, Walker, Wassam, and Ivins.

Other guests of Miss Quaintance were, Dr. and Mrs. Everts, The Misses Sleight, Mary Everts and Everts.

S. H. McCrory '04 has reentered the university as a senior civil engineer.

Katherine Jewell Everts is playing with the Otis Skinner company in Shakespearean roles.

Grinnell correspondents are informing their papers this week that Grinnell should win the game. In addition, they are representing that Iowa does not believe Grinnell has a ghost of a show to win, a belief that is far from existing at Iowa.

University students are not betting on the game, but Iowa City people have made bets that Grinnell will win by 10 points.

A Grinnell man at the St. James hotel this morning was loud in his expressions that Grinnell would win.

"You wouldn't know the Grinnell team this year," he said, "It is fast, heady and plenty heavy enough to bump Iowa's players around as it wishes."

HAMILTON CLUB CONTEST

Conditions Governing the Contest Have Been Made Public

The full text of the articles and conditions governing the Hamilton Club contest have been received here. The conditions for entrance are briefly as follows:

Contestants must be doing full undergraduate work and must not have had more than four full years work. The contest takes place January 11. The first prize is $100, second $50. Iowa is allowed $20 for expenses and $5 for printing. The subject of the oration must be Hamilton, his contemporaries or the events with which he had to do. The method of choosing judges and ranking is in general the same as that of the N.O.L. Twenty-two hundred words is the length limit of the oration. Facts in regard to the manner of printing the oration can be secured of Professor Gordon.

Eckersoll Barred

Walter Eckersoll the famous quarterback on the Chicago University football team has been expelled from amateur ranks by action of the Central Amateur Athletic union. It was charged that he had participated in baseball contests in which professionals had played. Eckersoll made his football reputation while a member of the Hyde Park High School team and is now considered one of the very best in university ranks. His expulsion will weaken the Chicago team materially.

Walter Savage a member of the Wisconsin university team was also barred on the same charge.

Sigma Chi will give an informal Friday evening at the K. P. halls.

NOT IN GOOD SHAPE

PATCHED UP TEAM WILL PLAY GRINNELL

Varsity Players Working Hard
But not Showing Ability—
Capt. Coulthard Out

The varsity is not in good condition for the Grinnell game.

If it can weather Grinnell successfully, the injured will be in shape to play against Nebraska and a team can be picked up to go against the cornhuskers that will be as good as Iowa has this year.

The varsity is not strong in substitutes this year and the absence of Captain Coulthard, Allen and Gibbs from the game will be badly felt. Watters too, may be unable to play.

The varsity has been working hard this week under Coach Chalmers. The players are trying hard, but so far do not seem to be accomplishing much. Their progress in learning the game is slow, and they do not have the dash and aggressiveness that the rooters would like to see them have.

All in all, a hard game is to be expected at Grinnell, much harder than some of the players and rooters expect. The varsity will do very well if it defeats Grinnell in its present condition.

If the varsity plays as it can play, and did play, two weeks ago, Grinnell will be defeated.

If the team plays as it did on Northrup field Saturday, the result will be doubtful.

If the men play as they have been playing in practice this week—well, may the saints preserve us.

RATE TO GRINNELL

A rate of a fare and one-third will be given to those going to Grinnell tomorrow. This makes the round trip rate $2.65.

It has been expected that a lower rate would be obtained, but the Grinnell management, with whom the matter rests, has made no effort to secure any rate whatever.

The train for Grinnell may be taken at 4:30, 8:20 or 11:50 tomorrow morning. The team goes up at 8:20. Returning, the 7:35 p. m. train reaches Iowa City at 9:53.

The class of '07 held a meeting in the auditorium yesterday afternoon. A class sociable is rumored for the near future, but the Freshies are not divulging particulars.

The University Mandolin and Banjo Clubs met last night at Close Hall and discussed plans for a tour of the state. The personnel of the clubs has not been decided upon. All players in the university are invited to attend rehearsals. Next Monday evening at seven the first rehearsal will occur at Close Hall.

The Book Hog

The habit of taking books from the library without permission and of failing to return them has again made itself manifest. This coupled with the systematic hiding and keeping of books for individual use is becoming a nuisance. The only remedy for this is in the student body. Each one can govern himself. More he can help to put it down in others by making such acts objects of ridicule. For the stealing of books there is a legal remedy, but for the "hogging" of books none.

Musical Societies

The organization of a mandolin club is a valuable addition to the university activities. Iowa, while not lacking in musicians and lovers of music, has never made it the feature it should be in college life. We have lacked in college and class songs. Our musical entertainments in our lecture courses have scarcely been of the highest standard. A strong feature in the large schools is the musical societies. At the State Normal the program of the musical societies at commencement week is a drawing card. The Oratorio while a new venture has proven what can be done. A new musical feature this year will be the university orchestra now in the process of organization. This should be supported with enthusiasm. There is a place for it at Iowa.

Course in Hamilton

The contestants for the Hamilton club contest have increased to three. There ought to be thirty. This contest has more to offer than the N. O. L. as all expenses are paid. Moreover it gives a more valuable training aside from the oratorical, in that it gives one a clear and deep insight into one of the most interesting periods of our history.

One of the professors, in speaking of the contest, made a suggestion, which we believe a good one. He said, that at the beginning of next year there should be organized a class in the study of Hamilton. This would give a substantial literary training upon which to build the oration. The value of such a course would be readily seen. We believe that such a course offered at the beginning of the second semester this year would find a large number of students. A course now offered in American Political Theory, in which the writings of Hamilton and other of the leading American thinkers are studied, is one of the strongest courses in political science.

Is the largest Commercial School west of the Mississippi, and it is known everywhere as a leader in business education. It is endorsed by educators and business men. It has a large faculty of specialists, and maintains a broad course of study. It is conservatively managed and the individual interests of the students are looked after with much care. Its graduates are competent to do things they are trained to do and they are in constant demand. Thousands of the former students of the C.C.C.C. are scattered throughout the Western states, many of whom are today prominent in business and professional circles, as well as in the affairs of government.
